The Loudon County Patrol Division located a vehicle at the Inn of Lenoir on Highway 321 in Lenoir City.

After checking the TN registration on the vehicle, it was found not to be the Raby Town Road suspect's vehicle, but, it was connected with two other suspects involved in another meth investigation by the LCSDND.

The LCSD Patrol Deputy observed the vehicle leaving the

During that traffic stop another meth lab was discovered in the trunk of that vehicle.

LCSD Reserve Deputies were stationed at the Raby Town road location while the LCSDND Investigators responded to the Harmon Lane location to investigate the mobile meth lab there. Found in the trunk of the vehicle was a cooking, one-pot method meth lab.

On Scene LCSDND Investigators interviewed Ashley McMahan and William Pappageorge who were the occupants of the vehicle. During the interview it was discovered that while they were at the Inn of Lenoir in room 237 they manufactured meth with two other subjects.

Deputies from the LCSD Patrol Division and LCSD CID went to the location and secured the room. Two suspects were detained at that location. They were identified as Ashley Kaye Greenwood and Dustin Lee Webster.
