January 7th, 2010, at approximately 1:50 AM, Officer Bennie

Houser, LPD observed a vehicle traveling east on Highway 72 at a high rate of speed. After he initiated his emergency equipment the vehicle continued on Highway 72, increasing in speed to over 100 mph.

The vehicle ran the red light at Highway 72 and Highway 11 without regard for himself or his passenger.

Officer Houser continued to pursue the vehicle on Steekee Road into Monroe County where he lost sight of it. The officer was then contacted by Monroe County, saying they had the vehicle and it had wrecked on Brakebill Road. Officer Houser then made contact with the driver, Lorenz J.

Freeman.

Mr. Freeman stated he saw Officer Houser behind him, but he was going home and wasn't going to stop.

Mr. Freeman's passenger stated they exited Interstate 75 at the 72 and ran the red light. The young woman also stated she told Mr. Freeman the police were behind them.

Mr. Freeman said they had been at Cotton Eyed Joe. He had a strong odor of an intoxicant about his person and performed poorly on the field sobriety tasks he was given. Monroe County also had charges on Mr. Freeman.

Deputy Brian Turpin, MCSD, was also on scene. Deputy Nathan Wilson, LCSO, served the warrants and made the arrest Monday, October 4th, 2010.

Windshield

Anthony Shane Kilby, 32, Grimes Road, Loudon was charged Wednesday with driving on suspended license.

According to reports, Deputy Rondel Branam, LCSO noticed a red Chevy S10 with a busted windshield traveling east on Highway 72 in Loudon. The deputy stopped the pickup at the Food City and identified the driver as Mr. Kilby.

A check of Kilby's license through NCIC showed it was suspended for frequent traffic violations.

DUI

Jennifer Ann Neeley-Bahr, 30, McCrary Street, Philadelphia, was charged with driving under the influence and violation of implied consent.

The report states, Ms. Neeley-Bahr was involved in a single vehicle crash on September 11th, 2010, that caused her and a passenger injury. She was transported to UT Medical Center for treatment.

Neeley-Bahr stated she was driving and she crashed because she wasn't paying attention. Ms. Neeley-Bahr had an odor of an alcoholic beverage on her breath and admitted to drinking 1 1/2 beers. She also had slurred speech and blood-shot eyes. She seemed confused and changed her story after being informed of a DUI charge to indicate she didn't know she was involved in a crash and the passenger had been driving.

Neeley-Bahr could not do standard field sobriety tasks and due to the injuries to the passenger, her blood was drawn. She refused implied consent to the draw and stated getting a blood sample would not do any good.

Trooper Daniel Morton, THP worked the accident and issued the warrant. Deputy Daniel Ferguson, LCSO made the arrest Thursday.

Police Beat

Ashley Renee Hackman, 22, Westside Drive, Athens, John Martin Macuga, 22, Nelson Street, Philadelphia, and Charles Ed Rogers, 19, West Lee Highway, Loudon, were charged Friday night with simple possession of schedule VI (marijuana).

According to reports, Deputy Rondel Branam, LCSO observed a beige Pontiac Grand Am traveling north on Highway 95 in Greenback. The tag displayed on the vehicle came back to a 2007 silver Chrysler PT Cruiser. The deputy stopped it at Morganton Road.

The driver, Ms. Ashley Renee Hackman was identified by her Arizona drivers license. The front seat passenger, identified as John Martin Macuga, appeared very nervous. Deputy Branam asked and received consent to search the vehicle. He asked everyone to exit the car, at which point he made contact with the back seat passenger, Charles Ed Rogers.

Upon searching the vehicle, Deputy Branam found a clear plastic baggy with approximately 14 grams of a green leafy plant like substance believed to be marijuana under the front passenger seat. None of the occupants claimed ownership of the marijuana and all three were taken into custody.

LCSO Deputies Brian Shaw and Michael Watkins were also on scene.

Christopher Ray Bailey, 26, Richmond, Kentucky was charged with driving on suspended license.

The report states Bailey was stopped for having no visible registration on his purple Toyota Tacoma on Highway 72 early Wednesday morning.

After the stop, Mr. Bailey, handed the officer a Kentucky driver license. It came back suspended out of Kentucky for failure to answer a court summons.

Jason Michael Hale, 29, Finley Drive, Lenoir City was charged with violation of probation.

Officer Kevin Condee, LCPD made the arrest Monday.

Property

Barrett Wilson of Johnson City.

The corporal called Mr. Wilson and he stated the residence had been rented for a year to a woman who got behind in her rent and was $2000 in arrears, so he advised her to move out and she did. That's when he had Mr. McCloskey go and check on the residence and he discovered the vandalism and theft.

There were several windows broken out. A wood stove was taken and a window air conditioner was gone. All items plus the rent arrears total $3200.

The investigation is ongoing.

Stolen

Mr. Mark Millsaps, Pond Creek Road, Philadelphia reported to Deputy Mike Williams, LCSO someone unlawfully entered his father's outbuilding and took three chain saws. The complainant's father, Homer Millsaps, also of Pond Creek Road, was out of town when the theft occurred. Millsaps said he lives next door to his father and hadn't seen anyone around.

The missing items include; one Stihl Farm Boss 20" cut chain saw and two Husqvarna 16" cut chain saws, with a total estimated value of $900.

Records further indicate approximately two weeks earlier, Mark Millsaps reported the theft of his tions as that old buzzard has lived thru. He is on the kick about thinking the current folks in power is ruining our great nation and for the most part I would have to agree with him; but he eats, breathes and sleeps this stuff.

Coonfoot had him all messed up during the last election. He went to the DNC and got as many Obama signs as he could and he stuck them in all sort of crazy places around Toad's farm. Obama stickers on the tractor, metal Obama "change" pins stuck to his fishing hat and one of those full size cut-outs of the man himself. Toad sort of likes the cut-out; said it kept the birds out of the garden all summer.
