A Thanksgiving History

The first American Thanksgiving was celebrated in 1621, to commemorate the harvest reaped by the Plymouth Colony after a harsh winter. In that year Governor William Bradford proclaimed a day of thanksgiving. The colonists celebrated it as a traditional English harvest feast, to which they invited the local Wampanoag Indians.

Gun missing

A Loudon woman told authorities she put her gun in her vehicle after seeing a No Weapons sign at the mall Monday, and after shopping she couldn't find the firearm any-where.

According to reports, Monday, around 9:51 AM, Mrs. Kathryn B. Rutherford, Robertson Spring Road, Loudon went to the Justice Center to report her gun stolen. She advised she always has her gun in her purse but when she and her daughter went shopping at West Town Mall she noticed a sign at the entrance that said No Weapons.

Mrs. Rutherford said she returned to her truck and placed the gun in the door compartment, secured the truck and set the alarm. She said she wasn't sure the truck was locked when they came out of the mall because she used the remote to unlock the doors.

Rutherford further stated she didn't remember taking the gun out of the truck when she got home and advised she always keeps the gun in her purse or on top of the refrigerator and it was not in either place.

The firearm was described as a stainless steel .357 caliber Smith & Wesson with a total estimated value of $787. Deputy Robbie Lane, LCSO filed the report. The case was turned over to an investigator.

Thanksgiving

Days of thanksgiving were celebrated throughout the colonies after fall harvests. All thirteen colonies did not, however, celebrate Thanksgiving at the same time until October 1777. George Washington was the first president to declare the holiday, in 1789.

Source: Arttoday.com

By the mid-1800s many states observed a Thanksgiving holiday. Meanwhile, the poet and editor Sarah J. Hale had begun lobbying for a national Thanksgiving holiday. During the Civil War, President Abraham Lincoln, looking for ways to unite the nation, discussed the subject with Hale. In 1863 he gave his Thanksgiving Proclamation, declaring the last Thursday in November a day of thanksgiving.

In 1939, 1940, and 1941 Franklin D. Roosevelt, seeking to lengthen the Christmas shopping season, proclaimed Thanksgiving the third Thursday in November. Controversy followed, and Congress passed a joint resolution in 1941 decreeing that Thanksgiving should fall on the fourth Thursday of November, where it remains.

Ornaments

ing holiday memorial for the families of those lost to homicide. At the event to be held at the State Capitol, you will be allowed to place an ornament on the memorial wreath that will then be displayed in the Capitol throughout the holiday season.

Those in attendance will include several representatives from my office. If you are unable to attend this event, but would still like to have an ornament displayed on the wreath, we will be honored to hang the ornaments for you. Deadline to drop ornaments off at my office is December 1st, 2010 at 4:00pm. Please note that ornaments will not be returned.

We all share in the senseless loss of our family members, friends, and neighbors. While these loved ones can never be replaced, events like these help to honor their memory. Regardless of whether you attend, we here at this office will keep all of our victims in mind and in our prayers this holiday season.

Happy Thanksgiving and Merry Christmas to you and yours.

Sincerely,

Russell Johnson, District Attorney General
Class

and they all did a great job. We were fortunate enough to be in attendance and saw a lot of potential stars in the making.

Thanks for the invitation; all of you are to be commended.

What She Said

A couple drove down a country road for several miles, not saying a word. An earlier discussion had led to an argument and neither of them wanted to concede their position. As they passed a barnyard of mules, goats, and pigs, The husband asked sarcastically, "Relatives of yours?"

"Yep," the wife replied, "in-laws."

First Segment of Statewide Duck Hunting Season November 27-28

NASHVILLE --- The first segment of Tennessee's statewide duck season (the remainder of the state outside the Reelfoot Lake Duck Zone) will open Saturday, Nov. 27 and runs through the following day, Nov. 28. The second segment will run from Dec. 4-Jan. 30, 2011.

Shooting hours are one-half hour before sunrise until official sunset each day.

The Canada Goose Statewide Zone (all counties and portions of counties not in the Northwest Canada Goose Zone) for Canada geese is Nov. 27-28 and Dec. 4-Jan. 30, 2011. A bag limit of two per day is permitted.

The second segment of the Reelfoot Duck Zone will run Dec. 4-Jan. 30.

The Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency would like to issue its annual reminder to waterfowl hunters to inspect their boats to make sure all of their equipment is in good order. Two areas of primary concern are the boat's running lights and the possession of personal flotation devices (PFDs).

All boats operating between sunset and sunrise are required to display the appropriate lights. Boats should have properly fitting PFDs for each occupant in the boat.

Waterfowl hunters should review the daily bag and possession limits listed in the 2010-11 Tennessee Waterfowl Hunting Guide. Hunters also need to review the Federal Regulations Summary in the guide. The sunrise-sunset tables are also included in the guide. The guide is available where licenses are sold and online at the TWRA website, www.tnwildlife.org.

The safe was gray with a key pad, about 2 feet tall and 1 1/2 feet wide. It contained a Glock 10 mm pistol model 29, 1 1/2 gold coins, a diamond belly ring, assorted collectors type 'old' money, a substantial amount of cash, two $3 gold pieces, old 1099 forms, six or seven gold basils, a gold wedding band with diamonds, and a golfer necklace. There was no forced entry into the home and a suspect was named. The theft is under investigation.

Thanksgiving vittles

Cornbread, Bacon, and Onion Stuffing

Yields: 12 cups

Prep Time: 15 min

Cook Time: 1 hr 10 min

Oven Temp: 300

Ingredients

* 2 pound(s) prepared cornbread, cut into 1/2-inch cubes (8 cups)

* 1 pound(s) thick-sliced smoked bacon, cut into 1/2-inch pieces

* 2 large (2 1/2 pounds) white onions, diced

* 1/4 cup(s) chopped fresh sage

* 1 teaspoon(s) kosher salt

* 1 cup(s) (or to taste) canned turkey or chicken broth

* 2 tablespoon(s) unsalted butter

* Unsalted butter for greasing baking dish

Directions

1. Heat oven to 300 degrees F. Place cornbread on a large baking sheet. Bake 30 minutes, gently stirring cubes twice, until lightly toasted and firm. Cool completely (can be made 3 days ahead and kept loosely covered at room temperature).

Place cornbread in a large bowl.

2. Cook bacon in a large skillet over medium heat until golden and crisp around edges and most of the fat has been rendered; remove bacon with a slotted spoon to paper towels to drain. Discard all but 3 Tbsp of the bacon drippings from skillet. Add onions; cook 8 minutes, stirring occasionally. Stir in sage; continue to cook 4 minutes, or until onion is translucent and lightly golden. Stir into cornbread with salt.

3. Drizzle broth over stuffing and gently toss until evenly moistened (if you prefer wetter stuffing, add more broth). Spoon dressing into a buttered shallow 2-quart baking dish or casserole; dot top with butter. Cover with foil (can be prepared up to 1 day ahead and refrigerated).

4. While turkey rests, place stuffing in a 350-degree F oven for 25 minutes. Remove foil; bake 10 to 15 minutes, or until stuffing is hot and browned.

TWRC to Meet December 1-2 in Gatlinburg

NASHVILLE --- The Tennessee Wildlife Resources Commission will convene for the final time of the calendar year when it meets Dec. 1-2 in Gatlinburg. The meeting will be held at the Clarion Inn and Suites.

Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency Wildlife Division Chief, Greg Wathen, will update commission members on the State Wildlife Grants program (SWG). SWG is a program that was implemented in 2000 to provide critical funding in support of fish and wildlife that are rare and on the decline. Since the program began, the TWRA has been allocated more than $10 million which has been used to enhance TWRA's non-game wildlife conservation programs across the state. Many of the projects funded with the program's funds have provided important habitat for all wildlife.

To participate in the SWG program, each state wildlife agency was required to develop a State Wildlife Action Plan. Tennessee's plan has been recognized as one of the best plans in the nation due in large part to the partnership that TWRA formed with The Nature Conservancy. In recognition of the 10 year anniversary, presentations will be made at the meeting from The Nature Conservancy and the American Eagle Foundation, two partners who have aided in securing funds for the program.

Among other items on the agenda, a project overview and status report for the Elizabethton Fish Hatchery will be made. The commission will hear a report on the status of hell-benders in Tennessee. The hellbender is the largest amphibian in North America.

Committee meetings will begin at 1 p.m. (EST) on Dec. 1. The commission meeting will start at 9 a.m. on Dec. 2. The public is invited to attend.
