Trailer

Daryl Smith, LCSO responded to a local area Friday when a trailer was stolen from a major remodel project. The victim, Martin Joseph Horan, Coyatee Circle, Loudon, said construction workers noticed the trailer was gone on Monday and they assumed he had moved it, however he had no knowledge of the trailer being moved.

The trailer was described as a white Rocky Top brand enclosed 5' by 8' with a single axle. It's contents include a Jenn Air cook top, some kitchen cabinets, light fixtures and assorted household items to be reinstalled.

The estimated value of the loss is $4200. The case was turned over to a investigator.

when an off-duty officer reported her for possible DUI after she hit a mailbox while driving down the road.

Kimberly Baldwin Phillips, 50, Andalusian Way, Knoxville was charged Saturday with DUI 1st offense, resisting stop, arrest, search, and violation of implied consent law.

The report states, Deputy Steve Helms, LCSO was off duty and in his personal vehicle when he notified fellow officers of a possible intoxicated driver operating a gold Honda Odyssey van in the area of Highway 11 and Old Stage Road.

According to Deputy Helms, the van had struck a mailbox on Old Stage Road.

Another deputy spotted the Honda on Highway 70 East and Wilkerson Road and stopped it. The driver, later identified as Kimberly Phillips, had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on her person, bloodshot eyes and slurred speech.

Ms. Phillips was asked to exit the vehicle to perform field sobriety tasks and she refused. She was asked several more times to exit the vehicle and still Phillips refused, so she was physically taken out of the car.

Ms. Phillips made several attempts to prevent being placed under arrest by hiding her arms, pulling away and trying to run away. After a brief struggle she was placed under arrest and read the Tennessee Implied Consent Law, which she refused.

Veterans

Nov. 11.

Passed by the General Assembly earlier this year, the new policy calls for a yearly, special state parks day to honor Tennessee's resident veterans. Tennessee State Parks chose each Nov. 11 as that designated day, offering one free night of camping and complimentary greens fees for 18 holes of golf with appropriate identification. The new free day will go into effect this Veterans Day and will occur on Nov. 11 each year.

"Veterans Day was the most appropriate choice and the new policy gives Tennessee State Parks an additional way to honor the men and women who served our country," said Environment and Conservation Commissioner

Jim Fyke. "The purpose of this new policy is to extend our current state park discounts to Tennessee's Veterans, paying tribute to their dedication and offering them an opportunity to enjoy the great outdoors." The new free day on Nov. 11 is in addition to Tennessee State Parks' current veterans' policy, which includes a camping discount within the state parks system and is available annually beginning November 1 through March 31, offering a 15 to 25 percent reduction off the standard nightly base rates (depending on the type of site chosen). This camping discount is available to Tennessee residents showing proof of prior military duty.

A special state park discount also is in place for active duty military personnel and members of the Tennessee National Guard. This year-round discount is given to all U.S. military - regardless of their branch of service or where they are stationed. Disabled Veterans also are eligible for the Tennessee State Parks year-round ADA discount that provides a 25 to 50 percent discount for campsites. For more information about Tennessee State Parks' Veterans and military discounts, please visit www.tnstateparks.com/FAQs.

Thief

Sonia L. Thomas, Cedar Street, Loudon reported Friday, around 3:30 PM, she went into the locker room at Baptist Healthcare, her place of employment, to get her purse for lunch and when she opened it she found her cash, wallet and jewelry were missing.

Thomas advised the items were all in her purse when she put it in her locker and further stated the locker doesn't have a lock on it. The total value of the loss was estimated at $398.

Deputy Charles Butler, LCSO filed the report. The theft is under investigation.

Police Beat

Mark Elliott Tillery, 49, Monterey Road, Knoxville was charged Sunday with public intoxication.

Traci Frye Russ, 48, South Ruth Street, Maryville was also charged with public intoxication.

According to reports, LCSO deputies were dispatched to Dead Man's Farm, 9567 Highway 11 East, to assist other officers with an intoxicated man and woman. Upon arrival they spoke with other deputies who advised the pair were on the hay ride when they were asked to leave. The lawmen further stated after they asked them to leave, Mr. Tillery went to try and get a refund and his girlfriend Traci Russ became irritated and started causing a scene.

Mr. Tillery admitted he had a few glasses of wine before arriving at the farm.

Both Mr. Tillery and Ms. Russ had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from them and Ms. Russ had bloodshot eyes and slurred speech. She was also unsteady on her feet. The couple were deemed a danger to themselves and to the public if left alone and were taken into custody.

ville was charged with promotion and manufacturing methamphetamine.

According to affidavits; on November 2nd, 2010, with the assistance of the Loudon Police Department, Agent Brendan DeBoer, 9th DTF conducted a traffic stop on a 2000 Ford Taurus on Highway 72 and Highway 11 in the City of Loudon. The vehicle had an improperly displayed registration that was not visible on the back of the car.

The occupants were identified as Jamie Nealy and Sherri Fisher. While speaking with Ms. Nealy and Ms. Fisher it was determined they had come to Loudon to purchase a pseudoephedrine based product, which is a precursor for the manufacturing of methamphetamine, to exchange for $50 dollars in US currency or 1 gram of methamphetamine.

Ms. Nealy was also in possession of numerous types of drug paraphernalia including cut straws, 2 glass pipes, rolling papers and scales. She stated she was on her way to deliver the pseudoephedrine to a unnamed individual in Madisonville.

Ms. Fisher told the officers she was fully aware the product was intended to be used to manufacture methamphetamine.

Agent DeBoer made the arrests. Agent Jeff Vittatoe, 9th DTF, and Officer April Farmer, LPD were also on scene.

food, clothing, or financial aid for utility bills.

Police Beat

Jeffery Dyron Roberts, 22, New York Avenue, Knoxville was charged with assault by domestic violence.

According to records, Deputy Chris Jenkins, LCSO went to Bimbo's Monday and spoke to Officer Dino Guider, LCPD and the victim, who both stated Jeffery Roberts ran from Bimbo's on foot. The victim advised Jeffery Roberts came to her residence on Shaw Ferry Road uninvited and was standing at her window. She told him to leave and he was not welcome. She said she heard a loud noise and then discovered Roberts was inside the house holding their small child and they began to argue. She was attempting to call 911 and a relative when Mr. Roberts grabbed the phone out of her hands.

According to her she was giving him a ride from the residence when she spotted an officer at Bimbo's and pulled into the business. When she started speaking with Officer Guider Roberts took off and said he was going back to the house and kill himself.

When Deputies Jenkins and Marty Stanley went back to the residence Roberts was there with the victim's phone. The front door facing was busted with wood debris and door hinges in the floor and yard.

When asked about the door Mr. Roberts stated he used his shoulder to get into the residence. Jeffery Roberts was deemed the primary aggressor and placed under arrest.
