sault. According to records, Deputy Rob Lane, LCSO was at the Pilot in Lenoir City when he was approached by Kenneth Shelton, who stated he was assaulted by two females at a residence on Holland Trail. While the deputy was taking Shelton's statement, a 911 call came in from the Holland Trail residence and an ambulance was sent.

Corporal Ernie Brown, LCSO arrived at the residence on Holland Trail and found one of the women on the floor disoriented and unresponsive. She had a large welt on her shin and her right forearm appeared to be broken.

The lawman reported there was a large pile of hair lying on the counter that had been pulled out of the other woman's head and her left thumb was swollen and possibly broken. The coffee table was broken and the living room was disheveled.

The women stated Kenneth Shelton entered the residence and attacked one of them and when the other woman tried to get him to release her from a head lock she was punched and struck with the metal end of a vacuum attachment.

Both women were transported to Fort Loudoun ER for treatment. Corporal Brown made transported Shelton to jail.

uty Rondel Branam, LCSO was dispatched to a possible burglary in progress on Martel Road in Lenoir City Saturday. Dispatch advised someone broke the glass out of the back door and was in the bedroom laying on the bed

Deputy Branam noted in his report he saw where the back glass had been broken completely out and saw a man lying in the bed bleeding from his hands and feet.

When awakened, the man had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on his breath. He was identified as Nicholas J. Adkins. The resident of the home stated she had gone to Walmart and had she locked all the doors before she left. Mr. Adkins had been staying there for a couple of days and didn't need medical treatment. He was transported to the Loudon County Jail.

The cost of the damage to the door was greater than $500 but less than $1000.

No License

Anastacio Calmo Perez, 24, 1st Avenue, Lenoir City was charged with no drivers license, light law violation, and financial responsibility.

According to records, Sunday around 9:11 AM, Mr. Perez was driving a red Ford Explorer on East Broadway and was stopped on Highway 321 at the BB&T Bank for a window tint violation.

Perez stated he didn't have a license or insurance. NCIC revealed Mr. Perez was in fact unlicensed.

Sgt. Eddie Range, LCPD made the arrest.

Police Beat

Timothy David Burger, 27, Grant Townhouse Drive, Maryville was charged violation of the bad check law.

According to an affidavit, Mr. Burger wrote a bad check in the amount of $450 to Rick Terry Jewelry Designs, 131 Kelsey Lane, Suite 104, Lenoir City.

Records indicate the check was returned on a closed account.

Deputy Bruce Padgett, LCSO made the arrest at the Blount County Jail Saturday.

Invasion

According to records, Monday, around 5:11 PM, and 90 year old man and his 84 year old wife called 911 and reported a man entered their home and stole a wallet. Deputy Charles Butler, LCSO responded to the residence and spoke with the couple.

The man advised he was asleep in his chair in the living room and was awakened by a man wearing a heavy coat, blue jeans, and a white mask. The intruder said "wallet" and pulled the man to the floor, ripped his pants, grabbed his wallet, exited the home and fled on foot.

The victim's wife stated she saw the man enter the home but was not sure which door he used. She further stated the intruder was in the house for about 40 seconds before fleeing.

The elderly male advised he grabbed the man's mask and tried to remove it, but was unsuccessful.

The wallet contained approximately $50 in cash, credit cards, and the victim's Tennessee drivers license and social security card. The wallet was valued at $15.

The couple was uninjured. The home invasion is under investigation.

County.

According to reports, Deputy Rondel Brannan, LCSO responded to Devyn Lane in Lenoir City

Saturday on a theft. The complainant, Mr. Adam Graves stated he was looking at his bank statements online and noticed several large purchases were made throughout Knox County from his debit card account.

Mr. Graves said he checked his wallet and does have both cards belonging to the account in his wallet.

The debit card account was used at Walgreens, Walmart, Red Box Rentals, and Sonic, which are all in Knox County.

The purchases all totaled over $3000. The account was closed and the case was turned over to an investigator.

Brent A. Snyder, 28, Caldwell Road, Loudon was charged with theft under $500, criminal trespass and failure to appear.

Alysia Dawn Partin, 19, McGhee Square, Lenoir City was charged with criminal responsibility for conduct of another.

According to reports, Friday, at approximately 4:00 PM, Officer Park, LCPD was dispatched to Walmart on Highway 321 in Lenoir City on shoplifters apprehended by Walmart Security.

The affidavit stated Ms. Partin was at Walmart with Brent Snyder. She was seen trying on a women's jacket and hat, before she handed the items to her boyfriend, Mr. Snyder. Snyder took the tags off the hat and jacket and concealed the hat in his pants and carried the jacket over his arm out the grocery side, past all points of sale and the final point of sale.

Ms. Partin would have benefited from the clothing items, had they been purchased. The total amount for the hat and jacket was $28.

Once Mr. Snyder got into the asset protection office, he began taking miscellaneous party favors out of his pants and the sleeves of his jacket. The total amount was $39.38. It was discovered Mr. Snyder had a failure to appear warrant and mittimus x 2 for theft under $500 and criminal trespassing out of Lenoir

City Municipal Court. Officer Park made the arrests.
