Customer robs clerk who once helped him in medical crisis

LCSO-CID authorities arrested a man accused of robbing a Loudon County truck stop where the clerk advised he had helped the man, a regular customer, in the past because of medical problems.

Arthur Lee Milleinos Jr., 48, Lavergne Tennessee, was charged with aggravated robbery and theft under $500.

According to the affidavit filed by Investigator Jeff Russell, LCSO-CID; on March 7th, 2010, an employee of the Truck Stops of America located at 500 Watt Road, Lenoir City re- (see Milleinos pg. 3)

TWRA Makes Public Aware of Potential Legislative Action Concerning TWRC, Agency

NASHVILLE --- The Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency informed its governing board, the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Commission and others in attendance at their regularly scheduled March meeting of possible legislation that could affect the future of the TWRC and the agency. This information came during the legislative update portion of the meeting, concerning legislation that would sunset the TWRC and/or the TWRA.

Every state governmental entity has a statutory termination date, generally referred to as a sunset provision. Each of these entities must periodically go through a process of review ported a white male, later identified as Milleinos, came into the retail department of the business and demanded money from the cash register. The clerk refused and Mr. Milleinos stated he had a gun and was serious.

The clerk gave Milleinos $90 and he left in a green colored car.

The identification of Milleinos was possible due to the fact he was a regular customer and had medical problems at the store and was once assisted by the same clerk he robbed.

Milleinos was also picked from a photo line up.

Deputy Nathan Wilson, LCSO made the arrest at the Giles County Jail Saturday.

Police Beat

Emilio Lopez-Lopez, 40, D Street, Lenoir City was charged with DUI 1st offense and violation of implied consent.

Patrolman Jeremy Dishner, LCPD responded to a drunk driver call in the area of Walmart where he was advised by Deputy Jerramie Bowen of the Loudon County Sheriff's Department that the deputy was following a drunk driver in a white Nissan Altima. Upon arrival in the area, Officer Dishner made contact with Deputy Bowen and Mr. Lopez in the Walmart parking lot.

Mr. Lopez was unsteady on his feet, smelled strongly of an alcoholic beverage and had slurred speech. He reportedly admitted to drinking at least 5 beers and performed poorly on field sobriety tasks.

Mr. Lopez refused to give consent to have blood drawn to determine his BAC.

Dennis Ray Ward, 52, Carding Machine Road, Loudon was charged with public intoxication.

According to records, Officer Brad Parks, LPD, was dispatched to the area of Carding Machine Road for shots fired. Dispatch advised someone at a residence was outside shooting a rifle.

Upon arrival, the officer made contact with Dennis Ward standing on the porch. Mr. Ward had a strong odor of an intoxicating beverage about his person and was unsteady on his feet.

Ward was deemed a danger to himself and others if left in his condition in public.

A 22 caliber rifle was found in Mr. Ward's residence. Mr. Ward admitted the shots were fired from his house.

Christopher Lee Smallen, 31, Smallen Road, Loudon was charged with violation of probation.

Corporal Angi Martin, LCSO made the arrest.

Unemployment

"The state unemployment rate continues to hold steady for the third month in a row," reported Labor Commissioner James Neeley. "Both of our major employment surveys show net gains in employment, which is positive, but significant hiring has yet to occur."

Major Changes in Estimated Nonagricultural Employment January 2010 to February 2010

According to the Business Survey, 3,100 job gains occurred in state government educational services; 3,000 in educational and health services; and 1,900 in professional and business services. Major employment decreases occurred in mining and construction, down by 1,800; transportation and warehousing declined by 1,400 jobs; and clothing and clothing accessories stores decreased by 1,200.

Major Changes in Estimated Nonagricultural Employment February 2009 to February 2010

Year-over-year increases occurred in educational and health services, up by 9,300; state government gained 1,000; and real estate, rental and leasing was up by 900. Year-over-year decreases occurred in manufacturing, down by 26,200; trade transportation and utilities lost 22,500; and mining and construction decreased by 15,100.

A homeless man charged with stealing from Walmart was further charged with assault after he allegedly struck a loss prevention officer in the head after leaving the store.

Philip Lawrence Jenkins, 25, homeless was charged with assault and theft under $500.

According to records, Saturday, at 1:47 PM, Mr. Jenkins was seen concealing headlight bulbs in each of his arm sleeves, then passing all points of sale without paying for the items.

Jenkins then exited the general merchant side of the store and when approached by Walmart loss prevention in the parking lot, Jenkins struck the loss prevention officer in the back of the head twice.

Sgt. Eddie Range, LCPD made the arrest.

Police Beat

Cliff Craig Tussey IV, 32, Lexington, Kentucky was charged with DUI 1st offense and violation of implied consent.

According to reports, Deputy Craig Brewer, LCSO responded to Interstate 75 north in reference to a reckless driver. He located a red Kia matching the description and began following it. It swerved onto the shoulder of the roadway several times and into the other lane of traffic then back onto the shoulder, barely missing a vehicle parked on the shoulder.

Mr. Tussey was the driver and only occupant of the vehicle. He had bloodshot eyes, slurred speech and was fumbling to get his license. He performed poorly on field sobriety.

Tussey was read and explained the implied consent law and refused to give blood to determine alcohol and/or drug content of his blood.

Mr. Tussey stated he took 30 mg. of oxycodone around 6:00 pm on the prior evening. The deputy found a prescription for oxycodone in Mr. Tussey's possession and checked the prescribed amount to what was missing and found there were 8 more tablets missing than the prescribed dosage.
