DUI 1st offense, possession of schedule II narcotic for resale and possession of schedule III for resale.

The report states, Friday, around 11:11 AM, LCPD officials received a call to go to Dairy Queen in reference to a possible drunk driver in a blue Buick. Upon arrival, it was discovered Mr. Wilson was at the drive-thru of the Dairy Queen and as he was leaving, he ran over a concrete curb.

Sgt. Eddie Range, LCPD stopped the vehicle and while talking Mr. Wilson reportedly admitted he took one oxycodone pill.

Wilson had slurred speech and when he got out of his car, he was unsteady on his feet and could not do field sobriety tasks.

Mr. Wilson had a pill bottle with 7 pills in it and a small plastic case with several pills inside, which he had put down in his pants.

He was placed under arrest and transported to jail.

under $500.

According to reports, Officer Emily Lawson, LCPD was dispatched to the area of Sharp Lane across from the Dollar General Market in reference to a white male with gray hair, wearing a denim shirt and blue jeans who had shoplifted steaks from the dollar General Market.

Records indicate employees saw the man crossing Highway 321 after leaving the store and Officer Lawson located hiding between the shrubs and the building of the First Church of the Nazarene on Sharp Lane and identified him as Alvin Barron.

Four vacuum sealed frozen steaks were also found behind the shrubs with Barron.

Application Period Deadline Approaching for State's Second Elk Hunt

NASHVILLE --- Time is winding down to apply for participation in Tennessee's second-ever managed elk hunt. Sportsmen have until midnight (CDT) on May 31 to submit their application to the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency.

The second elk hunt will be held Oct. 18-22, 2010 at the North Cumberland Wildlife Management Area, located off I-75, north of Knoxville. Once again, there will be five Elk Hunting Zones designated at the WMA.

Persons may apply at any TWRA license agent, TWRA regional office or online at www.tnelkhunt.org. Mailed applications will not be accepted.

As in the first hunt, five individuals will be selected to participate. Four of the participants will be selected through a computer drawing conducted by the TWRA. The fifth participant will be the recipient of a permit that is donated to a NGO (Non-Governmental Organization) which this year was the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation. Fundraising proceeds are designated to the TWRA Elk Program.

In the inaugural hunt, all five participants harvested an elk. Four came on the opening day of the hunt. The 2009 participants in the historic hunt were Craig Gardner (Parrottsville), Chuck Flynn (Rockford), Tami Miller (Franklin), Jeff Moses Cleveland), and Ron Woodard (Oak Ridge).

There is no application fee for current Tennessee Annual Sportsman License holders, Lifetime Sportsman License holders, or senior citizen hunters (Type 166) with an Annual Senior Citizen Permit (Type 167). All other applicants will be charged a $10 non-refundable permit fee, a $2 internet usage fee (if applying online) and $0.50 drawing fee (the internet and drawing fees are charged by the internet provider). For those applying at a license agent, there is a $1 agent fee in addition to the $10 non-refundable permit fee.

The successful applicants will be announced at the June meeting of the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Commission. Successful applicants will not be allowed to reapply for an elk quota permit for 10 years following a successful draw.

Charged

amount of drugs. Jose Luis Baldez, 21, Clintwood Way, Pigeon Forge, was charged with driving without a license, simple possession schedule VI (marijuana), and possession schedule IV (clonazepam).

According to records, Monday, around 4:16 PM, Officer Jonathan Yates, LPD stopped a black Honda Accord on Interstate 75 north near mile marker 72. The vehicle was following too closely to another vehicle and changed lanes without giving a signal. The driver was identified as Jose

L. Baldez and he did not have a drivers license.

Officer Yates asked for consent to search the vehicle and Mr. Baldez gave his consent. There were two plastic bags tied off at the end, containing a green plant material that appeared to be marijuana, found in the glove box, which weighed weight 3 grams. Also, in a compartment near the driver's seat the officer found a yellow pill and a half, positively identified as clonazepam, a schedule IV narcotic. Baldez did not have a prescription for the medication.

Baldez's passenger, Manuel Antonio Reyes, 24, Cedar Street, Athens was charged with simple possession schedule VI (marijuana) and possession schedule II (hydrocodone).

Mr. Reyes was asked to exit the vehicle. Officer Yates asked for and received consent to search Mr. Reyes and found something in his pocket and asked him to remove it. Mr. Reyes handed the officer a plastic bag containing a peach colored pill believed to be hydrocodone, a schedule II narcotic, for which he did not have a prescription. Mr. Reyes also had access to the marijuana found in the glove box.

Police Beat

Andrew Lynn Green, alias Josh Green, 25, Pitman Drive, Knoxville was charged Monday with driving on revoked and financial responsibility.

Andrew Lynn Green

According to reports, Mr. Green was driving a black Honda Accord on Highway 321 at Muddy Creek Road when Trooper R.

Smith, THP stopped him.

Trooper Smith had prior knowledge Green's license are revoked for failure to provide proof of insurance.

A check through NCIC confirmed Green's revocation and he was placed under arrest and transported to jail.

Did'ja know?

In English pubs, ale is ordered by pints and quarts... So in old England, when customers got unruly, the bartender would yell at them 'Mind your pints and quarts, and settle down.' It's where we get the phrase 'mind your P's and Q's'
