Ian James Mackenzie, 20, Rockport, Maine was charged with possession of schedule VI.

Leigh Hatt, 20, also of Rockport, Maine was charged with possession of schedule VI.

According to records, Wednesday, around 12:20 AM, while on routine patrol, Officer Bennie Houser, LPD observed a black Jeep Cherokee with four occupants sitting in the parking lot of the America's Best Value Inn. The officer stopped and made contact with Ian J. Mackenzie, the driver.

Mr. Mackenzie

stated they were on their way to Bonna-roo and had stopped to take a nap. Mr. Mackenzie appeared very nervous, and Officer Houser asked if there was anything illegal in the vehicle and Mackenzie said no. Officer Jon Yates, LPD, deployed his K9 partner Bear and Bear alerted on the Jeep.

While searching the vehicle, Officer Houser discovered a small silver container which contained hash. Mr. Mackenzie stated the hash belonged to him.

The hash was sent to the TBI Crime Lab for a positive ID.

Hatt was one of the passengers in the Jeep and reportedly told Officer Houser he had some marijuana in a container of coffee. There was approximately 6 grams of a green leafy plant like material believed to be marijuana.

The marijuana was also sent to the TBI Crime Lab for positive ID.

hicle was driving all over the road along I-75. Both the driver and is passenger reportedly were heavily intoxicated and the driver had pill sin his possession.

Robert Randall Smith, 41, Calhoun, Georgia was charged with driving under the influence by alcohol and/or drugs 2nd offense, simple possession of schedule IV (xanax) and open container.

According to records, Sgt. Adam J. Yokley, LCSO was dispatched to a possible drunk driver on Interstate 75 south near the 79 mile marker around 5:02 PM, Sunday. The vehicle, described as a black Ford F-150 was all over the road, according to the complainant.

Sgt. Yokley caught up to the truck at the I-75 south off ramp at the 72 exit. The complainant was able to get the truck to stop.

The driver, Robert Smith had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from his person and there was an open beer can in the cup holder.

Mr. Smith also had extremely slurred speech and appeared unsteady on his feet. He did very poorly on several field sobriety tasks.

While conducting an inventory of the vehicle, the Sgt. found a prescription bottle with the label removed, containing six light blue oval pills believed to be xanax. Mr. Smith submitted to a blood test to determine the alcohol and drug content of his blood.

A passenger in the truck was identified as Michael Dewey Smith, 50, also of Calhoun, Georgia. Smith was charged with public intoxication.

Mr. Smith had extremely slurred speech and when asked to exit the vehicle he appeared to be very unsteady on his feet. Mr. Smith stated he had been drinking.

Due to his level of intoxication, Smith was deemed a danger to himself and the public, if left at the scene. Deputy Chris Jenkins, LCSO was also on scene.

Brown

A Loudon County Jail inmate was charged with aggravated assault after he injured another inmate when he punched him.

Randall Dale Brown, 25, Abbott Road, Lenoir City was charged with aggravated assault.

According to an affidavit filed by Deputy Nathan Wilson, LCSO; on June 3rd, 2010, at approximately 8:00 PM, Randall D. Brown physically assaulted a fellow inmate at the Loudon County Jail. According to statements from Mr. Brown, the inmate, and from viewing surveillance video, it was determined Mr. Brown punched the other inmate about the facial area causing him to fall and hit his head on a block wall.

The inmate was transported to Fort Loudoun Medical Center where he received nine staples in the back of his head. He also had a swollen jaw.

The injuries were a result of being assaulted by Randall Brown. The video evidence showed the other inmate did not touch Mr. Brown before the assault occurred. Deputy Nathan Wilson served the warrant on Monday.

Burglary

yard and discovered someone had broken into it and stolen multiple items belonging to her.

According to reports, at 10:21 PM, Sunday, Sgt. AJ Yokley, LCSO was dispatched to the Star Transportation Yard on El Camino Lane in Lenoir City on a breaking and entering to a tractor trailer. The complainant/victim, Mrs. Shirley Soto, of Alabama stated someone broke into her vehicle at the Star Transportation Yard and stole several items sometime between May 24th, 2010 and June 6th, 2010.

Records indicate the suspects broke out a small window in the passenger side door and entered the cab of the truck and stole a Dell Laptop computer, a PlayStation 3 and games, a PSP and games, several movie DVD's and several other items.

The value of the loss was estimated at $1900, however, the values of the PSP, PlayStation games and movie DVD's were unknown.

The case was turned over to the Loudon County Sheriff's Office Criminal Investigation Division.

Haddock

A Loudon County Sheriff's deputy filed an evading charge against a Loudon man after he attempted to serve the man a warrant for violation of probation and he ran earlier this month.

Daniel Louis Haddock, 40, Cox Road, Loudon, was charged with violation of probation and evading arrest.

According to an affidavit; on June 4th, 2010, Deputy Michael Watkins, LCSO went to the Cox Road residence of Daniel Haddock attempting to locate him on a violation of probation warrant. Upon arrival, Mr. Haddock was standing in the back yard and when he saw the deputy he started running up Dailey Avenue.

Deputy Watkins gave two verbal warnings of Sheriff's Office Stop and Mr. Haddock refused. Mr. Haddock was charged with evading lawful arrest after the officer had a warrant issued against him for running.

Deputy Rondel Branam, LCSO made the arrest Saturday.

Seivers

A disorderly man was jailed after he reportedly raised a loud and profane ruckus at City Court Tuesday.

William Van Seivers, 37, unknown address, was charged with disorderly conduct.

According to an affidavit; Tuesday, at approximately 9:30 AM, Sgt. Eddie Range, LCPD was at City Court in Lenoir City when William V. Seivers came in to check on a court case.

Mr. Seivers was very loud to court clerks over a citation he wanted to pay for.

The clerk told Seivers he would have to come to court and Seivers got angry and started cussing.

Seivers got mad again and started cussing as he was walking out of the building.

This occurred in a public place, with the intent to cause public annoyance and where several other people were present, to prevent them from carrying on with their job.

Sgt. Range made the arrest.

Jamerson

An investigation into the mid-March larceny of a Loudon man's utility trailer resulted in the arrest of an Etowah man who reportedly took and sold it on the same day.

Troy Neil Jamerson, 36, County Road 490, Etowah was charged with theft over $1000.

According to an affidavit filed by Investigator Jeff Russell, LCSO-CID; on March 16th, 2010, Ray Welch of Circle Drive, Loudon reported his black 14 ft. utility trailer was taken from his yard the day before. The trailer had a solid metal floor and a mesh tailgate.

Upon further investigation it was discovered Troy Jamerson sold a trailer matching the description to a man on Steekee Creek Road for $300 on March 15th, 2010, the day Welch discovered hi missing.

Mr. Jamerson gave the Steekee Creek Road man a bill of sale with his name and signature. Troy Jamerson was later picked out of a photo lineup by the man as the one who sold him the trailer.

The trailer was identified by Ray Welch as being the one taken from his residence. Deputy Daniel Ferguson, LCSO made the arrest.

Jones

A Loudon woman is accused of lying for a man who crashed into another person while both were on dirt bikes in an accident that seriously injured the other driver and was witnessed by numerous people.

Jennifer Mae Jones, 30, Grove Street, Loudon was charged with filing a false report.

The record states

Trooper R. Smith, THP was dispatched to a crash with injury involving two motorcycles Tuesday on Steekee Creek Road in Loudon. Ms. Jones stated she was the driver of a dirt bike that struck another dirt bike, causing serious injury to the other rider.

After talking with multiple individuals at the scene, Trooper Russell determined Jennifer Jones was lying for the original driver, identified as Jimmy Mainor, who had left the scene of the crash.

Jones was given multiple opportunities to tell the truth and she refused. She was arrested at 10:24 PM.

Poe

Timothy Allen 'Tim' Poe, 19, Beals Chapel Road, Lenoir City was charged with underage driving under the influence, possession of schedule VI marijuana and implied consent.

According to records, Saturday, around 3:45 AM, Deputy Charles Butler, LCSO was dispatched to the intersection of Huffs Ferry Road at Hotchkiss Valley Road in reference to a vehicle stopped in the roadway causing a traffic hazard.

Upon arrival, the deputy observed a blue Toyota Tercel stopped in front of the stop sign with no headlights or taillights on. A white male was asleep against the window in the driver's seat with the keys in the ignition. He was in physical control of the vehicle.

Deputy Butler woke

the man up and identified him as Timothy Poe. Mr. Poe had a strong odor of alcohol about his breath and person, red glassy eyes and slurred speech.

Poe did not know where he was and thought it was 12:00 AM, even though the time was around 4:00 am. He performed poorly on field sobriety tasks and reportedly admitted to drinking 3 beers and smoking marijuana.

Mr. Poe was read and explained the Implied Consent and refused to be tested. After arresting Mr. Poe, a search was conducted and a plastic bag with a green leafy substance believed to be marijuana was found in his right front pocket.
