vehicle she was in because she nor the driver were wearing seat belts.

Elizabeth A. Sanford, aka Brandy Moore, 29, Browder Hollow Road, Lenoir City was charged with criminal impersonation and seat belt violation.

The report states, Wednesday, around 2:22 AM, Ms. Sanford was a passenger in a red Chrysler Concorde stopped on Highway 321 for following too closely. Both driver and passenger were not wearing seat belts.

Ms. Sanford gave her name as Brandy Moore and date of birth as 06/17/1978. A drivers license check revealed the information was not on file.

The woman then gave her true identity of Elizabeth A. Sanford with date of birth in 1981. Trooper Eric Miller, THP made the arrest.

Friends leave Farragut teen holding the bag

Cody Dwayne Greer, 18, Wardley Road, Farragut was charged early Thursday morning with underage consumption.

According to the report, Corporal Ernie Brown, LCSO received a call in reference to a suspicious person at Beals Chapel Baptist Church who was changing the letters on the sign.

Upon arrival, Corporal Brown found the accused sitting on the porch of the church. Cody Greer had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person and stated he had been drinking spiced rum. The young man reportedly admitted he was changing the sign around but fixed it when he was confronted by the complainant. His friends abandoned him at the church and he didn't know where he was. Greer was placed into custody at 1:47 AM.

Fugitive found at McGhee Square

Rachel Koster, 29, McGhee Square, Lenoir City was charged Wednesday with driving on suspended license 2nd offense.

According to records, Deputy Marty Stanley, LCSO noticed a black Chevrolet Beretta on McGhee Boulevard and the passenger was not wearing a seat belt. The deputy stopped the vehicle at an apartment in McGhee Square and identified the driver as Mrs. Rachel Koster.

Koster stated, her license were suspended for not paying a traffic ticket. A check through NCIC revealed her license were indeed suspended for failure to satisfy a citation out of Loudon County.

Mrs. Koster also had one prior conviction for driving on suspended.

The passenger, Sheila Ann Vasquez 45, Piney Hills Trailer Park, Loudon was charged with being a fugitive from justice.

Deputy Stanley checked Vasquez information through NCIC and a hit was received from Ogden City, Utah. A teletype was sent and Ogden City Police in Utah confirmed the hit and advised they would extradite Mrs. Vasquez back to Utah.

Investigator Shane Ezell, LCSO was also on scene.

Buckner

Andrew Lester Buckner, 20, Wilson Drive, Knoxville, was charged Wednesday, with domestic assault.

According to records, Officer Brandon Gentry, LCPD, responded to a residence on Browder Hollow Road in reference to a physical domestic that just occurred. The complainant/victim stated, she and her boyfriend Andrew Buckner, had been in a physical altercation. She advised, they were arguing over money and he hit her in the head with a cell phone, then grabbed her and threw her on the floor. Officer Gentry stated in his report, she had a large knot on her forehead from where the cell phone hit her. Mr. Buckner reportedly admitted hitting her with the cell phone.

Police Beat

Roger Anthony Charles Gray, 40, Ko-

lana Lane, Loudon was charged with DUI 1st offense.

According to reports, around 1:20 AM, Officer Bennie Houser, LPD was dispatched to the Shell Station on Highway 72 in reference to a possible drunk driver in a red Dodge Durango. The complainant called the E 911 Center advising a Dodge Durango almost hit him twice and when they exited Interstate 75, the Durango was traveling east in the west bound lane.

Upon arrival, the Durango was pulling out. It turned east on Highway 72 in the west bound lane. Officer Houser turned on his emergency equipment and the vehicle went into the emergency lane, then into the east bound lane and back to the emergency lane.

The officer asked Mr. Gray for his license, registration and proof of insurance. Mr. Gray appeared dazed and confused and stated he went to Krispy Kreme in Knoxville to get doughnuts.

Officer Houser asked him if he was on any medication or had he been drinking and Gray advised he was using ketamine nasal spray, valium, baclofin, and effexor ER. Mr. Gray performed poorly on field sobriety tasks. He was read the Implied Consent, agreed, and was transported to Fort Loudoun ER for a BAC.

Officer Samuel Harrison, LPD was also on scene.

Couple

A local couple was jailed following an investigation into the larceny of numerous items taken from a residence belonging to one of the pair's parents and selling them in another county.

Jimmy Derek Henderson, 26, Town Creek Circle, Lenoir City and

Heather Ann Pitts,

24, Yates Lane, Loudon were charged with theft of property over $500.

According to reports, on June 20th, 2010, Mr. Jimmy Henderson and Ms. Heather Pitts were guests at Mr. Henderson's parent's residence on Town Creek Circle in Lenoir City. While there, Jimmy Henderson entered his mom's and dad's bedroom and took items belonging to them, including a chainsaw, a set of electric hedge trimmers and a Ryobi cordless drill.

Mr. Henderson did not have consent from his parents to take the items, which were call valued at more than $500.

After taking the belongings from the bedroom, Henderson and Pitts transported them to a location in McMinn County where they sold them. Ms. Pitts did have knowledge of the theft and did benefit from the sale of the items at the time of the incident.

Detective Charles Cosner, LCSO-CID made the arrest.

Laptop

Petty, LCSO responded to a Miller Road, Lenoir City residence Monday in reference to a burglary and spoke with Katie Hughes.

Hughes stated she was away from her residence for several days and when she returned around 2:00 PM Monday she noticed the front door had been pried open. Hughes said the only thing she could find missing was her black Toshiba Laptop, which was valued at $800.

The case was turned over to the LCSO-CID.

Sharron Coleen Schrimsher, 47, River Bend Drive, Loudon, was charged Wednesday, with theft under $500.

The report states, Ms. Schrimsher was observed by Walmart Security taking a razor knife off the shelf. She cut open a perfume package and concealed the perfume in her purse, then exited the general merchandise doors and was stopped in the lobby after passing all points of sale and the final point of sale.

After taking Schrimsher into the Security Office, it was discovered she had other items on her person as well, which included jewelry, make-up and clothes, totaling up to $87.65.

No restitution was sought. Officer Jeremy Dishner, LCPD made the arrest.

Police Beat

Damyon Zachary Skudlarek, 34, Live Oak, Florida, was charged with public intoxication.

According to reports, Tuesday, at approximately 11:44 PM, Officer Samuel Harrison, LPD noticed a man, later identified as Damyon Z. Skudlarek, in the parking lot of the Weigels Gas Station in Loudon. He was unsteady on his feet and appeared to be intoxicated.

Skudlarek advised he was traveling alone from Florida to Kentucky. Mr. Skudlarek had bloodshot eyes, very slurred speech, and was very lethargic in his actions. He advised he had taken oxycodone earlier in the day and approximately 130 prescribed oxycodone pills and 35 alprazolam pills were found on his person.

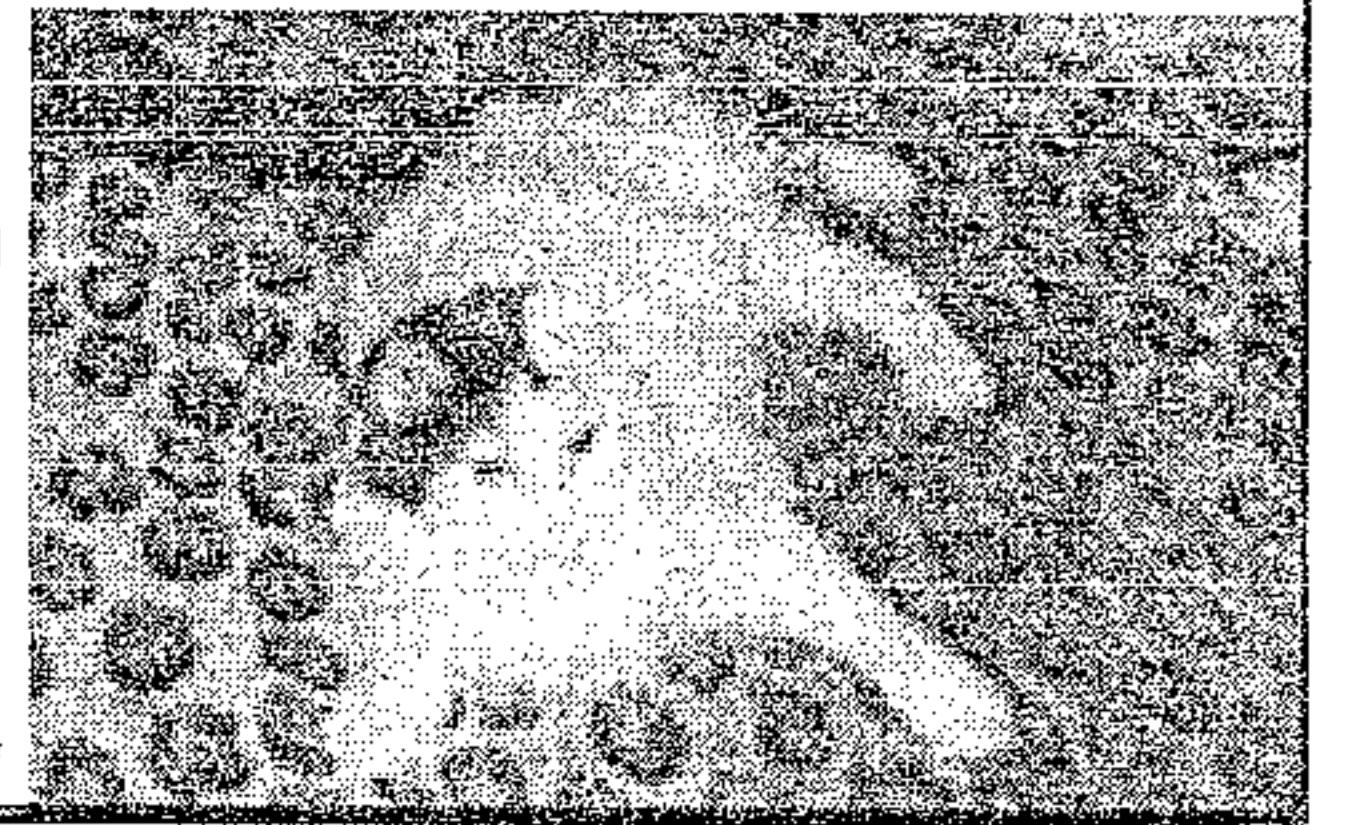

Officer Harrison felt that Mr. Skudlarek, who was alone, posed an immediate danger to himself and the public and placed him under arrest. LPD's Sgt. Bill Evans and Benny Houser were also on scene.
