Robertson

According to an affidavit filed by Sgt. Lynette Ladd, LCPD; Sunday, July 25th, 2010, William Robertson committed the offense of simple assault while at the E-Z Stop on West Broadway in Lenoir City. Robertson assaulted a man by striking him in the mouth. The man was a customer at E-Z Stop with Robertson's ex-girlfriend.

According to the victim and witnesses, Robertson chased the man around a vehicle and struck him with his fist. Robertson fled the scene and was located a short distance from E-Z Stop in an out-building.

The victim had an injury to his mouth and went to City Hall to sign a warrant with the clerk for simple assault. Robertson was transported to the Loudon County Jail by LCPD.

On Monday, was incarcerated at the Loudon County Jail when he was served a warrant for domestic violence assault.

According to the affidavit filed by Robertson's ex-girlfriend, when she picked up Robertson from work, he started "nitpicking" at her. She told him to leave her alone.

When they arrived at their residence on River Street, Robertson took her keys out of her purse to leave. She didn't want him driving her vehicle. She got mad and started breaking dishes.

Robertson told his ex-girlfriend's kids to get in their room and shoved one of the kids into the wall. The woman walked over to check on her child and the child showed her a bruise and said, this is what "Dale" did.

Robertson reportedly then punched his ex-girlfriend in the back of her head. She asked him "what was that for?" and Robertson picked her up by her throat and attempted to put her head through a wall.

Police Beat

Cody Arlen Kelley, 24, Browder Hollow Road, Lenoir City was charged with public intoxication and failure to appear.

According to the report filed by Patrolman Dennis Guider, LCPD Mr. Kelley was at Fort Loudoun Medical Center in Lenoir City. He had been at the Mediplex on Medical Park Drive, aggravating all the doctor's offices.

Kelley was unsteady on his feet and had slurred speech and it was believed he was on some form of medication or street drugs. Officer Guider made the arrest at 12:22 pm.

Crouch

City was charged with failure to appear (driving on suspended) and two counts of theft under $500.

According to affidavits filed by Detective Jack Fine, LCPD; and according to the victim's statement, on or about January 5th, 2010, Mr. Crouch entered Executive Jewelry and Pawn, Highway 321, Lenoir City and took a Paslode cordless finish nailer valued at $250.

According to another victim's statement, Mr. Crouch entered the victim's garage on West 2nd Avenue in Lenoir City on or about January 19th, 2010 and took a DeWalt 10" miter saw, Ryobi skill saw and a Roto zip saw.

Crouch was in possession of the stolen items in that he sold the miter saw and the Skil saw to Executive Jewelry and Pawn on Highway 321 and sold the Zip saw to Global Pawn on West Broadway in Lenoir City. Mr. Crouch did this without the permission of the victim, with the intent to deprive the victim thereof.

The value of the three saws was $395.

Officer Kevin Condee, LCPD made the arrest Sunday.

Police Beat

Gary Dwight Hughes, 41, Charles Street, Loudon was charged with public intoxication.

The report states, Tuesday, at 9:06 PM, Officer Brad Parks, LPD was dispatched to a residence on Charles Street in reference to a verbal domestic violence call. Upon arrival the officer made contact with Mr. Hughes in the front yard.

Mr. Hughes had a strong odor of an intoxicant on his person, red bloodshot eyes and admitted to drinking beer prior to the lawman's arrival.

Mr. Hughes was deemed a danger to himself and others if left in the public in his condition.

Officer Jaison Brown, LPD was also on scene.

Littleton

ner, LCSO-CID; on July 27th, 2010, at approximately 9:00 AM, Ms. Dusty Littleton entered into a residence on Browder Hollow Road in Lenoir City on the pretense she wanted to use the man's bathroom.

After she left the bathroom, the resident witnessed Ms. Littleton take a bottle of 30 mg oxycodone, containing approximately 50 pills from his desk and run from the residence with the intent to deprive him his property. Ms. Littleton did not have the owner's consent to take the medication.

Deputy Brad Rayfield, LCSO made the arrest Tuesday.

Monger

$1000.

According to an affidavit filed by Detective Charles Cosner, LCSO-CID; on November 23rd, 2009, a man made arrangements with Ryan Monger to repair his lawn mower. He also purchased an ATV from Mr. Monger, and purchased parts for it and provided them to Mr. Monger to repair.

On March 30th, 2010, the man reported he provided Mr. Monger with money to repair the items and was now unable to contact Mr. Monger. He also stated he was unable to locate his property.

At the time of the warrant, Mr. Monger had made no attempt to return the man's property, nor the money he paid for the parts.

Deputy Kimber Littleton, LCSO made the arrest Monday, at the Monroe County Jail.

Police Beat

Christopher Domier Bounds, 18, Dosset Lane, Clinton was charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

According to reports, Sunday, around 4:17 AM, Sgt. Joe Foster, LCPD made a traffic stop on a white Ford Ranger on East Broadway and Pike Street. The driver was Christopher Bounds.

Sgt. Foster had prior knowledge Detective Jonathan Sartin, LCPD, wanted to talk to Mr. Bounds.

Christopher Bounds

also had a 13 year old female with him, who was transported to the Loudon County Juvenile Center. Mr. Bounds was transported to the Loudon County Jail for investigative hold.

James Lee Rigney, 24, Buttermilk Road, Lenoir City, was charged with violation of probation.

Deputy Michael Wilson, LCSO made the arrest Tuesday.
