Horoscopes

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Your ability to get through the day is depending on your sense of purpose -- so it's a good thing that inspiration strikes early! You may not be totally enthused, but you can tell that it's right.

(see More pg. 2)

Libra 9/23-10/22

Your relationships need maintenance -- but you're up for it! In fact, you feel more energized than ever when it comes to coworkers, romantic partners and family members, so start gabbing!

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

You reach out without thinking to help a friend or coworker in need -- and score major points as a result! You may not feel that you've earned them, but karma doesn't care what your intentions are.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

Your energy is extremely active right now, and you should find that almost anything is possible -- so make sure that you've got a full slate of activities to choose from. You want to try it all!

Capricorn 12/22-1/19

You have to choose between your people and your job -- but only for today! If you blow off friends, they are sure to understand, but it may also be true that your boss gets that you don't want to stay past quitting time.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

Your big ideas are helping you see the truth behind the confusion. It's one of those days when you are probably too far out there for most folks to understand, but take heart -- they should catch up soon!

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Your focus is so intense it gets a little scary today, whether you're working on a complicated project or watching a terrible old rom-com on television. You may learn quite a lot about yourself!

Aries 3/21-4/19

You can't just sit still today -- you've got a restless yearning for something new! Your great energy helps you break out of any ruts and should see you hot-footing it somewhere sweet, pronto.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

It's vital that you keep yourself from spending money today -- at least on impulse purchases! Don't even glance at the shelves next to the check-out counter, or you might end up spending twice as much as you want.

Gemini 5/21-6/21

Listen up -- someone is trying to get your attention and advise you about something that could be a very big deal in the long run. Good advice is surely coming your way, so make the most of it!

Cancer 6/22-7/22

Your quick thinking saves everyone needless heartache today, so see if you can stay in the center of things at work or at home. You may not be feeling all that cheerful, but once you pop up, it's all good.

Leo 7/23-8/22

Some wild new gossip comes your way -- probably pretty early -- that sets you off on a wild chase for more. It's a great time to get your people to check out what's really going on out there.

Police Beat

Daltone Bradley Major, 28, Corinth Road, Loudon was charged Sunday, with public intoxication.

According to records, Deputy Rondel Branam, LCSO was dispatched to a residence on Corinth Road in reference to an altercation between neighbors. Upon arrival the deputy saw Mr. Major standing in the driveway.

As Deputy Branam exited his patrol unit Mr. Major became very belligerent and put his hands on his head and layed face down on the asphalt. According to the deputy's report, he wasn't able to calm Mr. Major down and Major had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from his person, was unsteady on his feet, and had red watery eyes.

The neighbor stated Mr. Major came into his residence to use the phone and became irate, so he asked him to leave. Mr. Major was taken into custody at the scene for PI.

Herman

City was charged with theft over $1000. According to an affidavit filed by Investigator Jason R. Smith, LCSO-CID; on Friday, May 28th, 2010, Virgil and Denise Powell of Beals Chapel Road, Lenoir City, filed a report with the Loudon County Sheriff's Office that someone had taken items from their residence including a .22 Winchester rifle model 1400, a gold wedding band and two garnet rings. The items were valued at over $1000 and were found at Charlie's Super Pawn located at 8420 Kingston Pike, Knoxville and Westside Pawn located at 5613 Kingston Pike, Knoxville. All items were pawned or sold by Christopher Herman at the pawn shops on May 28th, 2010. Christopher Herman's girlfriend is the daughter of Denise Powell. Deputy Kimber Littleton, LCSO made the arrest Tuesday. Police Beat Ashley N. Minix, 30, Salyersville, Kentucky was charged with possession of schedule II (oxycodone) and possession of drug paraphernalia. According to records, Saturday, at approximately 12:48 AM, Sgt. Billy Hall, LCSO stopped a black Saab on Interstate 75 north at the 72 mile marker for suspicion of DUI. The driver stated he was extremely tired. The officer asked him to exit the vehicle and walk around to wake up. While they were talking outside the vehicle the driver advised he was returning from Atlanta. The officer went to the owner of the Saab, who was the front seat passenger and he advised they were returning from Florida. The owner gave consent to search the car. While searching, the officer discovered a cut straw used to snort pain pills that contained a white powdery substance. Also found with the cut straw was a plastic bag with nine 30 mg oxycodone pills. The cut straw and pills were discovered together in a wallet belonging to Ashley Minix, a rear seat passenger. Minix advised she only had a prescription for 15 mg. oxycodone and the cut straw was used to snort pain pills. She also claimed ownership of the 30 mg. oxycodone pills.

James Harold Lee Stanifer, 19, West 7th Avenue, Lenoir City was charged with DUI and possession of alcohol by a minor. According to reports, around 1:43 AM, Sunday, Officer Bennie Houser, LPD observed a blue Geo Prism traveling north on Highway 11 in front of the CO-OP at a high rate of speed. The Geo passed another vehicle on Mulberry Street at Huffland Avenue. When the officer engaged his emergency equipment the car was doing 75mph in a 30 mph zone and ran the red light at Ward Avenue, then continued north, finally stopping at the Methodist Church. The driver, Mr. Stanifer advised he was just trying to get home. Mr. Stanifer had a strong odor of an intoxicant about his person and stated he didn't want to lie to the officer, but he was unsure how much he'd had to drink. He performed poorly on field sobriety tasks and there was a 1.75 liter of Captain Morgan Long Island Iced Tea over half empty in the vehicle. Once at the jail, Mr. Stanifer was read the implied consent and agreed. His BAC was .12%.

Rowe

LCSO-CID; on Friday, May 28th, 2010, Virgil and Denise Powell, Beals Chapel Road, Lenoir City, filed a report with the Loudon County Sheriff's Office that someone had taken items from their residence without permission.

The items included an E.R. Amantino shotgun valued at $225 and a Remington model 870 shotgun valued at $300. The items were found at Charlie's Super Pawn, located at 8420 Kingston Pike, Knoxville.

Both shotguns had been pawned by Cynthia Rowe on May 24th, 2010. Ms. Rowe was given a total of $350 for both guns by the pawn shop.

Corporal Angi Martin, LCSO served the warrant on Ms. Rowe while at the Loudon County Jail Wednesday.

Police Beat

Christopher James Flagg, 41, Old Greenback Road, Lenoir City was charged Wednesday, with public intoxication.

The report states Deputy Bobby Hamilton, LCSO responded to a residence on Old Greenback Road in reference to a man who was very intoxicated and attempting to hang himself. When the deputy arrived on scene, Mr. Flagg was sitting in a chair under a tree and when approached he got up and began to walk off.

Mr. Flagg appeared to be very intoxicated. The officer told him to stop and put his hands behind his back and he refused. Deputies Hamilton and J.C. Schultz then layed hands on Mr.

Flagg and he resisted before they got him in hand cuffs and placed him under arrest. Deputy Hamilton made the arrest.

Nabbed

the discovery of over 60 grams of the illicit weed packaged in multiple bags for resale.

David Clark Ware, 22, McCalla Avenue, Knoxville and William Bradley Oneill, 25, Red Bud Court, Lenoir City were charged with possession of schedule VI for resale.

According to affidavits; on Wednesday, at approximately 9:33

PM, Investigator Jason Butler, LCPD stopped a red Mercury Marquis on Highway 321 North near Garret Drive for a window tint violation and following too closely. The driver was identified as David Ware.

Investigator Butler observed a strong odor of marijuana emitting from Ware's vehicle. Subsequent to asking the front seat passenger (William Oneill) to step out of Ware's vehicle, officers observed a baggie containing a green plant material, believed to be marijuana in the front passenger seat in plain view.

Upon further search of Ware's vehicle, officers found a large bag containing several individual bags, which all contained a green plant material believed to be marijuana under the front passenger seat. Officers also found a small baggie containing a green plant material believed to be marijuana under the ashtray. All baggies combined totaled approximately 65 grams. Neither Ware nor Oneill claimed possession or the suspected marijuana.

Investigator Butler made the arrests.

Police Beat
Dennis Christopher

Four Tellico Lake American Legion members recently rode their motorcycles to Knoxville, Legion Post 2. The mission of their ride was to accept from Eastern Headquarters the official certification and charter for Post 256 "Legion Riders." The American Legion Riders are members of the American Legion who are also motorcycle enthusiasts.

Having received the "Post Legion Rider Charter," their purpose will be to use family oriented motorcycling activity to further promote the aims and purpose of The American Legion. These and other Legion Riders will be found participating in community parades, memorial ceremonies, partaking in charity fund raising events, and supporting the communities in which they live, work, and play.

If you are a Veteran and motorcycle enthusiast and would like to learn more about con-
