Almanza

Detective Jack Fine, LCPD; on August 25th, 2010, at approximately 12:22 AM, Mr. Almanza was in a white Mitsubishi when he stopped in front of the victim's house on Doyle Street and yelled threats at the victim indicating he would shoot the victim's son. The lawman noted Almanza committed the offense once before, on or about August 13th, 2010. Almanza's actions have placed the victim and the victim's juvenile son emotional distress, and caused them to be terrorized, frightened and intimidated.

Corporal Angi Martin, LCSO served the warrant at the jail Thursday.

Disorderly

Mr. Voth told Deputy Smith he had been in a fight and he wanted the deputy to let his family go and get the *x*x out of here. The deputy told Voth no one had his family and then got first responders to come and check him for injuries. Mr. Voth became very combative with officers and made threats of fighting with the officers.

Deputy Smith noted in his report he could smell a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from Mr. Voth and his speech was very slurred.

The deputy gave him several commands to calm down and Voth continued to get more combative with officers. He was then placed into custody. Deputy Sam Hensley, LCSO was also in attendance.

Darryl Franklin Carter Jr., 28, Collins Street, Loudon was charged with disorderly conduct.

According to records, Wednesday, at approximately 10:15 PM, Officer Bennie Houser, LPD responded to the Jiffy parking lot in reference to a possible fight and upon arrival made contact with Mr. Carter.

Carter advised he was just talking to some friends, however a clerk at the store, and bystanders in the parking lot stated Mr. Carter was trying to get one individual inside the store and one in a vehicle to come out and fight. Sgt. Bill Evans, LPD was also on scene.

Police Beat

Sharon Gail Branaum, 47, Hines Valley Road, Lenoir City was charged Friday, with theft under $500.

According to reports, Ms. Branaum was observed in the jewelry department at Walmart taking tags off necklaces and a watch, then going to shoes and concealing all the jewelry and the watch and some clothes she had also picked up.

Branaum then went to the health and beauty department and concealed toothpaste, hair color and other small items as seen on the register receipts. She then tried to exit the lawn and garden area where she was stopped by the security officer. The total number of items taken was 18, which were valued at $107.66. No restitution was sought.

Officer Brandon Gentry, LCPD made the arrest.

Samuel Joseph Brown, 25, Forest Heights Circle, Lenoir City was charged with violation of probation and failure to appear.

Deputy John Wilson, LCSO made the arrest Friday at the Knox County Jail.

Season

Sept. 1 through Sept. 26; Oct. 9 through Oct. 24; and Dec. 19 through Jan. 15. Hunting times, other than opening day, are one-half hour before sunrise until sunset for all other days.

Doves are found throughout the various regions in the state, but the most concentration is in farming areas. The hunter must have on his/her person a valid state hunting license and Tennessee Migratory Bird Permit at all times while hunting. Hunters must have landowner's permission to hunt on private land.

The daily bag limit is 15. There is no limit on collared dove. Doves not readily identifiable as collared doves will be considered mourning doves and will count toward the mourning dove daily bag limit. No person shall take migratory game birds by the aid of baiting, or on or over any baited area. Any auto-loading or repeating shotgun must be incapable of holding more than three shells while dove hunting.

More information on Tennessee's dove season can be found on the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency website (www.tnwildlife.org) under the "For Hunters" section. The 2010 Tennessee Hunting & Trapping Guide can also be viewed on the Web site or a copy may be obtained at any TWRA regional office or wherever hunting and fishing licenses are sold.

Herman

Herman, 25, Shaw Ferry Road, Lenoir City was charged with forgery and theft under $500.

According to the affidavit filed by Detective Jonathan Sartin, LCPD; on or about August 23rd, 2010, Mr. Herman took a check to Green Bank on Highway 321 in Lenoir City and cashed it, knowing the check had been stolen. The victim did not sign the check or give anyone permission to sign the check.

Mr. Herman did receive money from the check, knowing the check was stolen. The amount received was $75.

Herman was charged with theft over $1000 just last week in connection with the theft of items from Virgil and Denise Powell of Beals Chapel Road, Lenoir City in May, 2010. The items were valued at over $1000 and were found at Charlie's Super Pawn and Westside Pawn, Knoxville where they had been pawned or sold by Herman. Detective Sartin made the arrest Wednesday.

Morgan

While checking the area of Dailey Avenue and Blair Bend Road, Sgt. Yokley observed a white male that matched the description of the suspect. When the officer approached the man he noticed a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on his breath and person. He was identified as Arless Morgan III.

Mr. Morgan did poorly on field sobriety tasks and was placed under arrest. While searching the backpack he was wearing, a spoon with a burned bottom and a hypodermic needle were discovered inside. Mr.

Morgan reportedly made the statement he was a drug addict.

On Friday, Deputy Lonnie Gaut served a warrant for burglary on Morgan while at the jail after the victim was called in and identified him.

According to that affidavit, which was filed by Lt. Patrick Upton, LCSO-CID; on or about August 26th, 2010, Mr. Alex Whitt, Cox Road, Loudon went to his garage around 9:30 PM and upon entering saw someone ran out the back door, dropping tools which had been taken from the garage. Mr. Whitt described the man as being a white male with a beard, hat and blue jeans. Upon further investigation, deputies found Mr. Arless Morgan III behind the residence and he matched the description of the burglary suspect. He was arrested for possession of drug paraphernalia and public intoxication.

Upon further investigation, Lt. Upton took the victim through a six person lineup and he picked the photo of Mr. Morgan as the subject who had taken his tools from the garage and fled.

in the morning to finish up. Sure enough, about noon on Sunday they showed back up, cut a couple more limbs out, and then one fellow climbs out of the tree and explains that's all they can do for the day and he needed two hundred dollars. They again agree to $20 and say they will be back in the morning. It's been 8 days since they started working; they cut 2-3 limbs a day and he pays them, and they show back up the next day. My neighbor asked, "What are you going to do? You are out of limbs and that chain saw won't cut the main trunk, you need a bigger chain saw." The other guy, not the leader, said, "Well, that's why we can only cut the small ones; we've been trying to steal a gas saw all week, but can't find one."

Unlicensed

Francisco Andres Domingo, 20, East Callwell Street, Knoxville was charged with driving without a license. According to records, around 5:10 PM, Friday, while on routine patrol of Highway 95, Deputy Charles Butler, LCSO noticed a silver Mazda traveling south. The vehicle crossed the white fog line then crossed back over. A check of the tag returned registered on a yellow Suzuki. Deputy Butler activated his blue lights and stopped the Mazda on Rudd Road just off Highway 95. When asked for his license, Mr. Domingo produced an ID only out of Mexico. NCIC revealed Domingo was unlicensed.
