scene with K9 Dagger. The K9 alerted on the vehicle and a search produced a green leafy substance not believed to be marijuana but identified as "spice" a name for a synthetic marijuana. Petty advised the spice and pipe was his.

Paula Allen Petty, 19, of Covington Lane, West Deptford, NJ, was charged with counterfeit controlled substance and drug paraphernalia. Officer B. Burley LCPD made the arrest.

ed's note: More information about synthetic drugs can be found at www.9thdtf.com, including the following excerpt from the Roane County Anti-Drug Coalition: On Tuesday, March 1, 2011, DEA published a final order in the Federal Register temporarily placing five synthetic cannabinoids into Schedule I of the CSA.

The order became effective on March 1, 2011. The substances placed into Schedule I are 1-pentyl-3-(1-naphthoyl) indole (JWH-018), 1-butyl-3-(1-naphthoyl) indole (JWH-073), 1-[2-(4-morpholinyl)ethyl]-3-(1-naphthoyl)indole (JWH-200), 5-(1,1-dimethylheptyl)-2-[(1R,3S)-3-hydroxycyclohexyl]-phenol (CP-47,497), and 5-(1,1-dimethyloctyl)-2-[(1R,3S)-3-hy-droxycyclohexyl]-phenol (cannabicyclohexanol; CP-47,497 C8 homologue). This action is based on a finding by the Administrator that the placement of these synthetic cannabinoids into Schedule I of the CSA is necessary to avoid an imminent hazard to the public safety. As a result of this order, the full effect of the CSA and its implementing regulations including criminal, civil and administrative penalties, sanctions, and regulatory controls of Schedule I substances will be imposed on the manufacture, distribution, possession, importation, and exportation of these synthetic cannabinoids.

identified as Ronald Jack Taylor. At that time Officer Ward did not find a chainsaw in Taylor's possession nor was there one reported missing from the area. On November 20, 2012 a River Bend Drive man called to report his missing Poulan chainsaw. The same day Detective Jenkins went to Taylor's residence on Collins Street and received consent to search and when doing so found a Poulan chainsaw and case hidden in a basement crawl space. The victim identified the saw as his the value was estimated at $150.

In another warrant, also on November 18, 2012 LPD received a call of a man pulling what the caller thought was a pressure washer down the street on Pathkiller Trail. Officer Ward found Ronald Jack Taylor and again he was without the reported stolen item, this time a pressure washer. On November 21, 2012 the victim reported someone entered her out building and stole a red pressure washer valued at $1300.

During an interview Taylor admitted to cutting the lock off the building and taking the pressure washer. Detective Brian Jenkins also recovered a set of bolt cutters, which Taylor admitted to using in the burglaries. The pressure washer has not been recovered.

Ronald Jack Taylor, 40, of Collins Street, was charged with two counts of burglary, theft under $500 and theft over $1000.

Deputy Chris Hutchens, LCSO made the arrest.

Thank You

"Thank You" to all those who voted for me in the race for Lenoir City Council. Your encouragement and support, and all the smiles and waves and thumbs up as you drove by us were so much appreciated and will never be forgotten.

Your votes have sent a message that the majority of the people who voted in the 2012 election voted for changes in the hiring practices in our City/Utilities District and in the Council/Board's responsibility to be open and transparent in carrying out their responsibilities. (There were 2,640 people who voted in the City election. We received 192 fewer votes than the most successful incumbent. We failed to win a seat by only 42 votes.)

I hope when our re-elected Councilmen take their Oath of Office for their next four years of service to the community, they will take seriously the words of that Oath and realize they become individually responsible to perform their duties "without fear or FAVOR."

It is time they realize their sworn obligation:

1) to the citizens who have a right to be fairly considered for City and LCUB jobs according to merit. (The jobs do not belong to the City Council/LCUB Board members and are NOT their jobs to give away!);

2) to the employees of the City and LCUB who deserve to have the best and most qualified workers hired to help get the job done; and

3) to the customers who depend on these employees to provide professional and knowledgeable service when we call or come in to do business.

see and settled in Tellico Village. They founded John Leech & Associates, a manufacturing rep company, which John operated until his death. A passionate "cowboy" and horse lover who loved to back country ride out West, a diehard Pittsburgh Steelers and UT sports fan, John also loved golf, skiing, and traveling. Together John and Marianne found great joy in his work and their playing. Everyone, without exception, who crossed John's path met a remarkable, loyal, and trusted friend. He is preceded in death by his parents, John Frank and Mary Catherine Leech and his eldest brother, William "Bill" Leech. Along with his loving wife and best friend of 28 years, Marianne Morris Leech, he is survived by his children, William "Bill" (Becky) Leech of Halethorpe, Md., John (Beth) Leech of Phoenixville, Pa., and Diana (Nelson) Baries of Midlothian, Va.; grandchildren, Eric and Emily Baries of Midlothian, Va., and Chloe, Sam and John Henry Leech all of Phoenixville, Pa.; his brother, Robert "Bob" (JoAnn) Leech of Coraopolis, Pa., their children, Mary Jo, Dottie, Terry, and Bobby; deceased brother's daughter, Dolly Leech Mason, and Dorothy Roddy Turkovich, the mother of his children. Also surviving are Marianne's brother and sister-in-law, W. Lee and Peggy Morris of Christiansted, St. Croix, Virgin Islands; nieces, Tanya (Greg) Morris Rogers, their children, Aliscit and Alanah of West Palm Beach, Fla., and LeAnn (Chris) Morris Pliske, their children, Emma and Max Ellis (John's namesake) of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; and brother-in-law, Bobby Stalcup of Tulsa, Ok. John's family extends a gracious thank you to special and devoted family friends and caregivers, Cheri Ruth, Mike Goss, Patti Fuller, Mary McNeal, Lori Almond, Ruth Fairfax, and countless others. Heartfelt gratitude is also extended to Teaha, Shelly, and Greg with Amedisys Home Health & Hospice Care of Sweetwater, Tenn., and Drs. Ted Stallings, Jeffery Hecht, and Kevin Martinolich. hired a man he identified to work as a subcontractor for him and had also let the man stay at his home for a few days during hard times the man was experiencing.

The contractor said the man left the residence and he gave him ample time to retrieve his personal property, but the man hadn't come to get it and instead has made threats to file a theft report on his property.

The contractor further reported the man has also threatened to call the police and say that he, the contractor, had sexually assaulted his girlfriend, and that he also would bring people to the residence to assault the contractor or his wife.

The officer noted the suspect reportedly also told the contractor he has personal information on him.

No other information was available and no charges had been filed at the time of the report.

Domestic

Sierra Marie Burnett, 19, Alhambra Road, Oak Ridge, and Anthony James Phillips II, 19, Kelly Circle, Louisville, were charged with domestic violence just before 5:00 p.m. Monday.

According to records, Deputy Billy Lewis, LCSO responded to a call of a rolling domestic on Highway 321 at the Loudon/Blount County line and upon arriving at the location spoke with Phillips who exited the vehicle. Phillips said he and his girlfriend, Burnett, had become involved in a heated argument over the ownership of the car and a rifle and it became so heated Burnett pulled the car over.

Burnett reportedly corroborated Phillips' story and admitted the same.

Deputy Lewis reported he observed an infant child in the back seat of the vehicle and he then learned the young couple had had a physical domestic just the day before and they were separated and a report was filed.

The deputy concluded his report by noting, "I was then unable to determine a primary aggressor and for their safety and safety of the infant child, both were taken into custody for domestic violence."

The child and car were released to a friend.

HOROSCOPES

you out in a big way today, though it may not be exactly what you were hoping for. If you can stay flexible, then things should start to improve soon.

Capricorn 12/22-1/19
Your great energy is manifesting itself in financial ways today -- so jump on that screaming deal or say yes to that new money-making opportunity! You should feel a lot better about money soon.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18
You've got to tackle some changes that popped up lately that you don't much like. It's rare for you not to embrace change, but this time your skepticism shot off the charts. Say no!

Pisces 2/19-3/20
Your connection to the world of romance is a little stronger today, so make sure that you're telling your sweetie how you feel or approaching that hottie to ask them out. You can't lose!

Aries 3/21-4/19
It's a good time to take stock -- of your feelings, but also of your stuff. You don't want to be on a special holiday edition of 'Hoarders,' so donate as much of that old stuff as you can let go.

Taurus 4/20-5/20
Entertain yourself today -- it's easy! You may find that your energy lends itself to silly little games at work or at home, or to just blowing off responsibilities entirely! Have fun at any cost.

Gemini 5/21-6/21
Your working life is in need of some love, so make sure that you're dealing with the right people and tackling the right issues. It may not be the most glamorous day of the year, but it helps.

Cancer 6/22-7/22
A family member calls out for help -- though you're lucky if they're explicit and asking for it directly. More likely, you have to read between the lines and give them what they need quietly.

Leo 7/23-8/22
You may get mistaken for a celebrity -- or just treated like one! Your energy is a bit off-center, which means others are going out of their way to cater to you and help you get back on track.

Virgo 8/23-9/22
Your deep thoughts are stretching further than ever today -- so take the time to explore them to the fullest. Make sure that you're sharing your findings with your friends and coworkers.

Libra 9/23-10/22
Listen to your emotional side -- it's full of good ideas and advice, if only you could hear it. You may need to find a quiet space to meditate or do whatever else you do to get in touch with yourself.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21
You feel ambushed in a meeting or in a casual chat with your mate today -- but it's just that you weren't expecting to have to defend your ideas. That's not such a bad thing, really, so go right ahead.

and he had strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person and performed poorly on sobriety tasks. Mr. Miller became somewhat upset at the questioning and stated he was hypoglycemic and EMS was called and performed a sugar test. Miller was transported to the ER after it was determined the vehicle possibly flipped.

When asked to submit to a BAC test at the ER Miller said he would submit to a test and then refused by writing "I Don't Care Pig" on the implied consent form.

Jairus Paul Miller, 19, of Timothy Avenue, Sweetwater, was charged with underage driving under the influence and violation of implied consent. Deputy John Maples, LCSO made the arrest.

Theft

Records indicate Deputy Chris Bowen, LCSO, was dispatched to Old Spears' Road Monday where he spoke to a man who said he and his wife had not received a bank statement in two months and when they went to the bank to get a printout they discovered their account had been compromised.

The victims advised they found several charges throughout the statements that had been made without their knowledge or permission and they believed their bank statements had been removed from the mailbox without their knowledge.

The bogus charges totaled approximately $1500 and a suspect was named.
