tion of probation. During the course of the investigation McCulloch was living on Abbott Road, where the deputy first encountered Mr. Bowers.

Before leaving the residence, Deputy Stegall found out that Monica would be driving a brown Toyota Camary and when he returned to the Abbott Road residence the Toyota Camary was there. While he was attempting to serve the warrant Steven Bowers blocked his way to the steps of the residence.

Deputy Stegall walked past him and after entering inside the door, Steven Bowers got in the deputy's face and started arguing about seeing the warrant and blocking his attempt to locate Ms. McCulloch for violation of probation. Mr. Bowers even attempted to provoke Deputy Stegall into a fight.

After back up arrived, Deputy Stegall was able to search the residence and found Monica McCulloch in a back bedroom, hiding.

terstate 75 north Saturday around 11:45 AM, where a witness was observing and giving dispatch a description of a vehicle and tag number. Deputy Jenkins made contact with the vehicle, a blue Chrysler Lebaron with a Kentucky tag at the 75 mile marker. The vehicle was traveling from the fog line to the center line and crossed the center line several times.

Jenkins initiated his blue lights in an attempt to stop it for suspicion of DUI. The vehicle traveled approximately 1/2 to 1 mile before stopping. The driver was identified as Raymond E. Smith.

Deputy Jenkins noticed several open and empty containers of alcoholic beverages in the center console and an odor of alcohol coming from the car. When Mr. Smith got out of his vehicle he was unstable on his feet. He had slurred speech, red watery eyes and a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person.

Mr. Smith was asked if he knew the day of the week and the time of day and he said Friday at 1:00. Before field sobriety tasks were administered a pat down for officer safety was conducted and Mr. Smith gave verbal consent to search his person. An unlabeled pill bottle was found in his left rear pocket with 6 blue oval pills identified as alprazolam.

Mr. Smith was given field sobriety tasks in which he did poorly. He was then placed under arrest. A check of his driver's license through NCIC showed Mr. Smith's license was suspended for DUI with a previous DUI conviction on September 23, 2011.

During a search of the vehicle, five white round pills identified as lorazepam and three yellow round pills identified as clonazepam were found in the passenger side floor.

There was also two empty alcohol containers in the passenger side floor along with eight unopened alcoholic beverages. Mr. Smith was transported to the Fort Loudoun ER and read the implied consent advisement and consented to the test. He was then transported to the Loudon County Jail.

Police beat

Amy M. White, 'aka' Amy Macuga, 24, Old Highway 68, Sweetwater was charged with failure to appear on a public intoxication charge.

Officer J. Dishner, LCPD made the arrest.

Justin Cozart, 29, Grove Road, Loudon was charged with violation of parole.
