I don't know who brought my friend's TV inside my house

A local couple told police they had left Misty Branum at their residence and when they returned home their television was gone. When officials found the television at Branum's house, she reportedly told them two men had brought it inside, but she didn't know who they were.

Misty Daiele Branum, 31, C Street, Lenoir City was charged with possession of stolen property.

According to records, Deputy Stegall, LCSO

sponded to Ms. Branum's residence Thursday, on an investigation of a stolen television. Prior to Deputy Stegall's arrival, Deputy Craig Brewer had responded to Heather Lane to take a stolen television report from the victim. The victim stated she'd left Misty Branum at her residence and when she returned home her 42 inch television was gone.

A short while later, Lenoir City Police Department was dispatched to C Street on a fight call, and a 42 inch television matching the description of the one that had been stolen was located at Ms. Branum's residence on C Street.

The victim's boyfriend was at the scene and identified the television as theirs. Branum was read her Miranda Rights and she said two unknown males brought the television into her residence and left.

Ms. Branum was placed under arrest and transported to the Loudon County Jail.

Police Beat

Michael Andrew Hensley, 33, Browder Hollow Road, Lenoir City was charged with public intoxication.

According to reports, Deputy Rondel M. Brannam, LCSO responded to Round Up Lane Saturday, on a suspicious vehicle call. The complainant stated there was a light colored vehicle parked in the road across from their residence and a male got out and later walked back and was just sitting in the vehicle.

When the deputy arrived on the scene he saw a silver Mercury Sable in the road with a man passed out in the passenger seat. The man was identified as Michael A. Hensley.

Mr. Hensley told the deputy he was with his girlfriend and she got out of the car and he didn't know where she went. No one else was located in the area and Hensley changed his story on who was with him several times.

Mr. Hensley had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person, red watery eyes, and slowed, slurred speech. He was taken into custody for public intoxication and transported to the Loudon County Jail.

Ronald Gene Wilkerson Jr., 31, Jim Hartsook Drive, Lenoir City was charged with failure to appear.

Officer Tim Craig, LCPD made the arrest Saturday.

According to an affidavit, filed by Detective Jonathan Sartin, LCPD; on or about March 12, 2012, Mr. Montgomery was at his residence with his family including an 8 year old victim. The victim was eating chips in his bedroom and Mr. Montgomery told him to go to the kitchen. The victim went to the kitchen and was crying and Mr. Montgomery told him to stop. The 8 year old wouldn't stop crying and Mr. Montgomery was upset because he wouldn't stop. He went to spank him on his butt and hit him on his right leg, leaving a hand print and bruise.

Detective Sartin made the arrest Tues-

an individual laying in the middle of the road. While en route the deputy was notified by dispatch the man had walked to the Marathon. The witness/complainant stated the man was wearing a blue T shirt and blue jean shorts.

Upon arrival, Deputy Jenkins saw the man standing outside the Marathon and noted he walked into the business as the deputy was pulling into the parking lot. The officer made contact with the man inside the store and identified him as Brandon M. Creekmore.

Mr. Creekmore had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person, was unsteady on his feet and appeared to be disoriented and confused. He performed poorly on field sobriety tasks and stated he'd had several shots and smoked marijuana. Mr. Creekmore is only 19 years old.

Witnesses stated Mr. Creekmore was laying in the middle of the road and when he was outside of the business he was making obscene gestures at employees and customers. Creekmore was deemed a danger to himself and the public if left unattended and was placed under arrest.
