Verse of the Day

*And we know
that in all things God works for the good of those who love him,
who have been called according to his purpose.

Wazzup

Anyone notice the alleyway between First and Second Avenues just up from the Pilot on the east side of town looks like a blacktop slip-n-slide? Something sure has sprung a leak round those there parts, and from the looks of it, it's getting wetter every day. Sure will be a doozy of a water bill if it goes on much longer....

Department of Safety & Homeland Security Announces Results of Labor Day "No Refusal" DUI Enforcement Effort

(see No Refusal pg. 7)

NASHVILLE --- The Tennessee Department of Safety and Homeland Security announced the Tennessee Highway Patrol investigated zero alcohol-related fatal accidents in the 16 counties chosen for "No Refusal" DUI enforcement efforts over the Labor Day holiday period.

Additionally, just one DUI suspect detained by the THP refused to take a blood alcohol level test in these enforcement counties and one search warrant was obtained for a blood sample under the new "No Refusal" law. The enforcement effort was coordinated by the Ten-has chosen today to remind someone that a life given to Him is intended to be full of peace, joy and happiness!

The Good News

How many times each day do we have direct contact with others in which words and occasional smiles are quickly exchanged? How many times a day do you hear the words, "Howya doin'" or with our younger generation, "wazuup"? I work in the public so it happens to me a bunch of times each day.

Sometimes when I speak to folks that I meet in town, even Christians, what I hear can be depressing. It is important for us to remember that we serve an awesome God! He is bigger than anything we can even imagine and when we trust Him completely, our days can be enjoyed and our smiles become contagious. On those days when troubles are near or we just wake up with a bad attitude... God is still God. He doesn't place that poor attitude on us, we just choose to ignore His majesty to "waller" in our circumstances.

Let us be reminded that the same God who placed these words on my heart today is the same God that lead the children of Isreal each day by sending a cloud before them and lead them at night by fire. He parted the Red Sea so His people could cross on dry land to escape those trying to harm them. God provided food when His people were hungry and brought forth water from a rock when they were thirsty. Time and time again God displayed His power throughout the scriptures. He protected and provided for those who trusted in Him but also allowed them to suffer when they chose to forget Him.

Jesus tells us in Luke 19:10 that "The Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost." Jesus came to the earth in the flesh so that you and I can receive salvation. During His earthly ministry, Jesus healed the sick, made the deaf hear and caused the blind to see. Jesus cleansed the lepers, calmed the seas and raised the dead.

Just in case no one has told you, this same Jesus that did all these things also gave His life for mine and your sins. He rose from the grave on the third day and as I type these words, He is not just in heaven making intercession for us to God the Father, He lives within my heart! WOW! This is worth getting excited over!

Please note the joy and happiness within the heart of the psalmist who wrote the 96th Psalm;

Oh, sing to the Lord a new song! Sing to the Lord, all the earth.

Sing to the Lord, bless His name; proclaim the good news of His salvation from day to day.

Declare His glory among the nations, His wonders among the peoples

For the Lord is great and greatly to be praised;

He is to be feared above all gods.

For all the gods of the people are idols.

But the Lord made the heavens.

Honor and majesty are before Him;

Strength and beauty are in His sanctuary.

Give to the Lord, O families of the peoples,

Give to the Lord glory and strength.

Give to the Lord the glory due His name;

Bring an offering and come into His courts.

Oh, worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness!

Tremble before Him all the earth.

Say among the nations, "The Lord reigns";

The world also is firmly established,

It shall not be moved;

He shall judge the peoples righteously.

Let the heavens rejoice and the earth be glad;

Let the sea roar, and all its fullness;

Let the field be joyful, and all that is in it.

Then all the trees of the woods will rejoice

before the Lord.

For He is coming, for He is coming to judge the earth.

He shall judge the world with righteousness,

And the peoples with His truth.

That's what I'm talkin bout! The writer of this psalm knew exactly where happiness was found and who to thank for it. Listen to what Jesus tells His disciples;

John 16:33 (NKJV)

These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world.

As I began to type these words today I received a text message from my friend and brother in Christ, Scott Parmer. He said this; "Catch on fire with enthusiasm and people will come for miles to watch you burn! He then shared this verse; Colossians 3:23 (NKJV) And whatever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not for men.

My buddy Parmer had no idea what God had laid on my heart this morning but was encouraging me, as I attempt to encourage you. Ain't God good!

As we close today there is one more passage that you should read, you should know and always remember. I have it written on a sticky note in my home office as a reminder.

Proverb 3:5-6 (NKJV) Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths.

The Bible says that He "SHALL" direct your paths. I find this scripture to be true for my life and I am confident that it will also be true for yours.

Whatever is going on in your life that is draining your happiness and causing you pain is not any bigger than Jesus Christ! If you have accepted Jesus as your Savior, then you can claim this power just as I can. We need to wake up thanking God for what He has done and what He wants to do in our lives. Angie and I have trusted Him completely and surely.... if you know me at all, you can see that Jesus has made me different!

Blondie and I have something to smile about and we wanna share it with you! Drop us a line or visit us at www.thegoodnews-dailyedition.com. Thanks for reading.

No Refusal

Tennessee Highway Patrol, along with the Governor's Highway Safety Office (GHSO), local district attorneys, and various local and state law enforcement agencies.

"We believe awareness of the 'No Refusal' enforcement effort really served to deter people from getting behind the wheel while impaired. That is our main goal with this new law, to prevent tragedies caused by drinking and driving," Commissioner Bill Gibbons said.

The "No Refusal" enforcement period started at 6 p.m., Friday, August 31 and ran through 11:59 p.m., Monday, September 3. This special DUI enforcement was effective in selected counties: Roane and Campbell (Knoxville District); McMinn and Meigs (Chattanooga District); Robertson and Rutherford (Nashville District); Shelby and Tipton (Memphis District); Jefferson and Sullivan (Fall Branch District); Cumberland and Warren (Cookeville District); Bedford and Lincoln (Lawrenceburg District); and Chester and Weakley (Jackson District). State and local officials conducted sobriety and driver license checkpoints, as well as saturation patrols, in those counties as well as in other parts of the state.

The "No Refusal" law, enacted this year by the General Assembly, allows law enforcement officials to seek search warrants for blood samples in cases involving suspected impaired drivers. Previously, a suspected impaired driver could refuse a blood alcohol content test and face charges of violating the implied consent law. This new law enables law enforcement to legally obtain blood samples by working with prosecutors and judges throughout the state during the warrant acquisition process.

The results for the "No Refusal" Tennessee Highway Patrol enforcement effort in each of the 16 counties are
