God's Message through Jeremiah

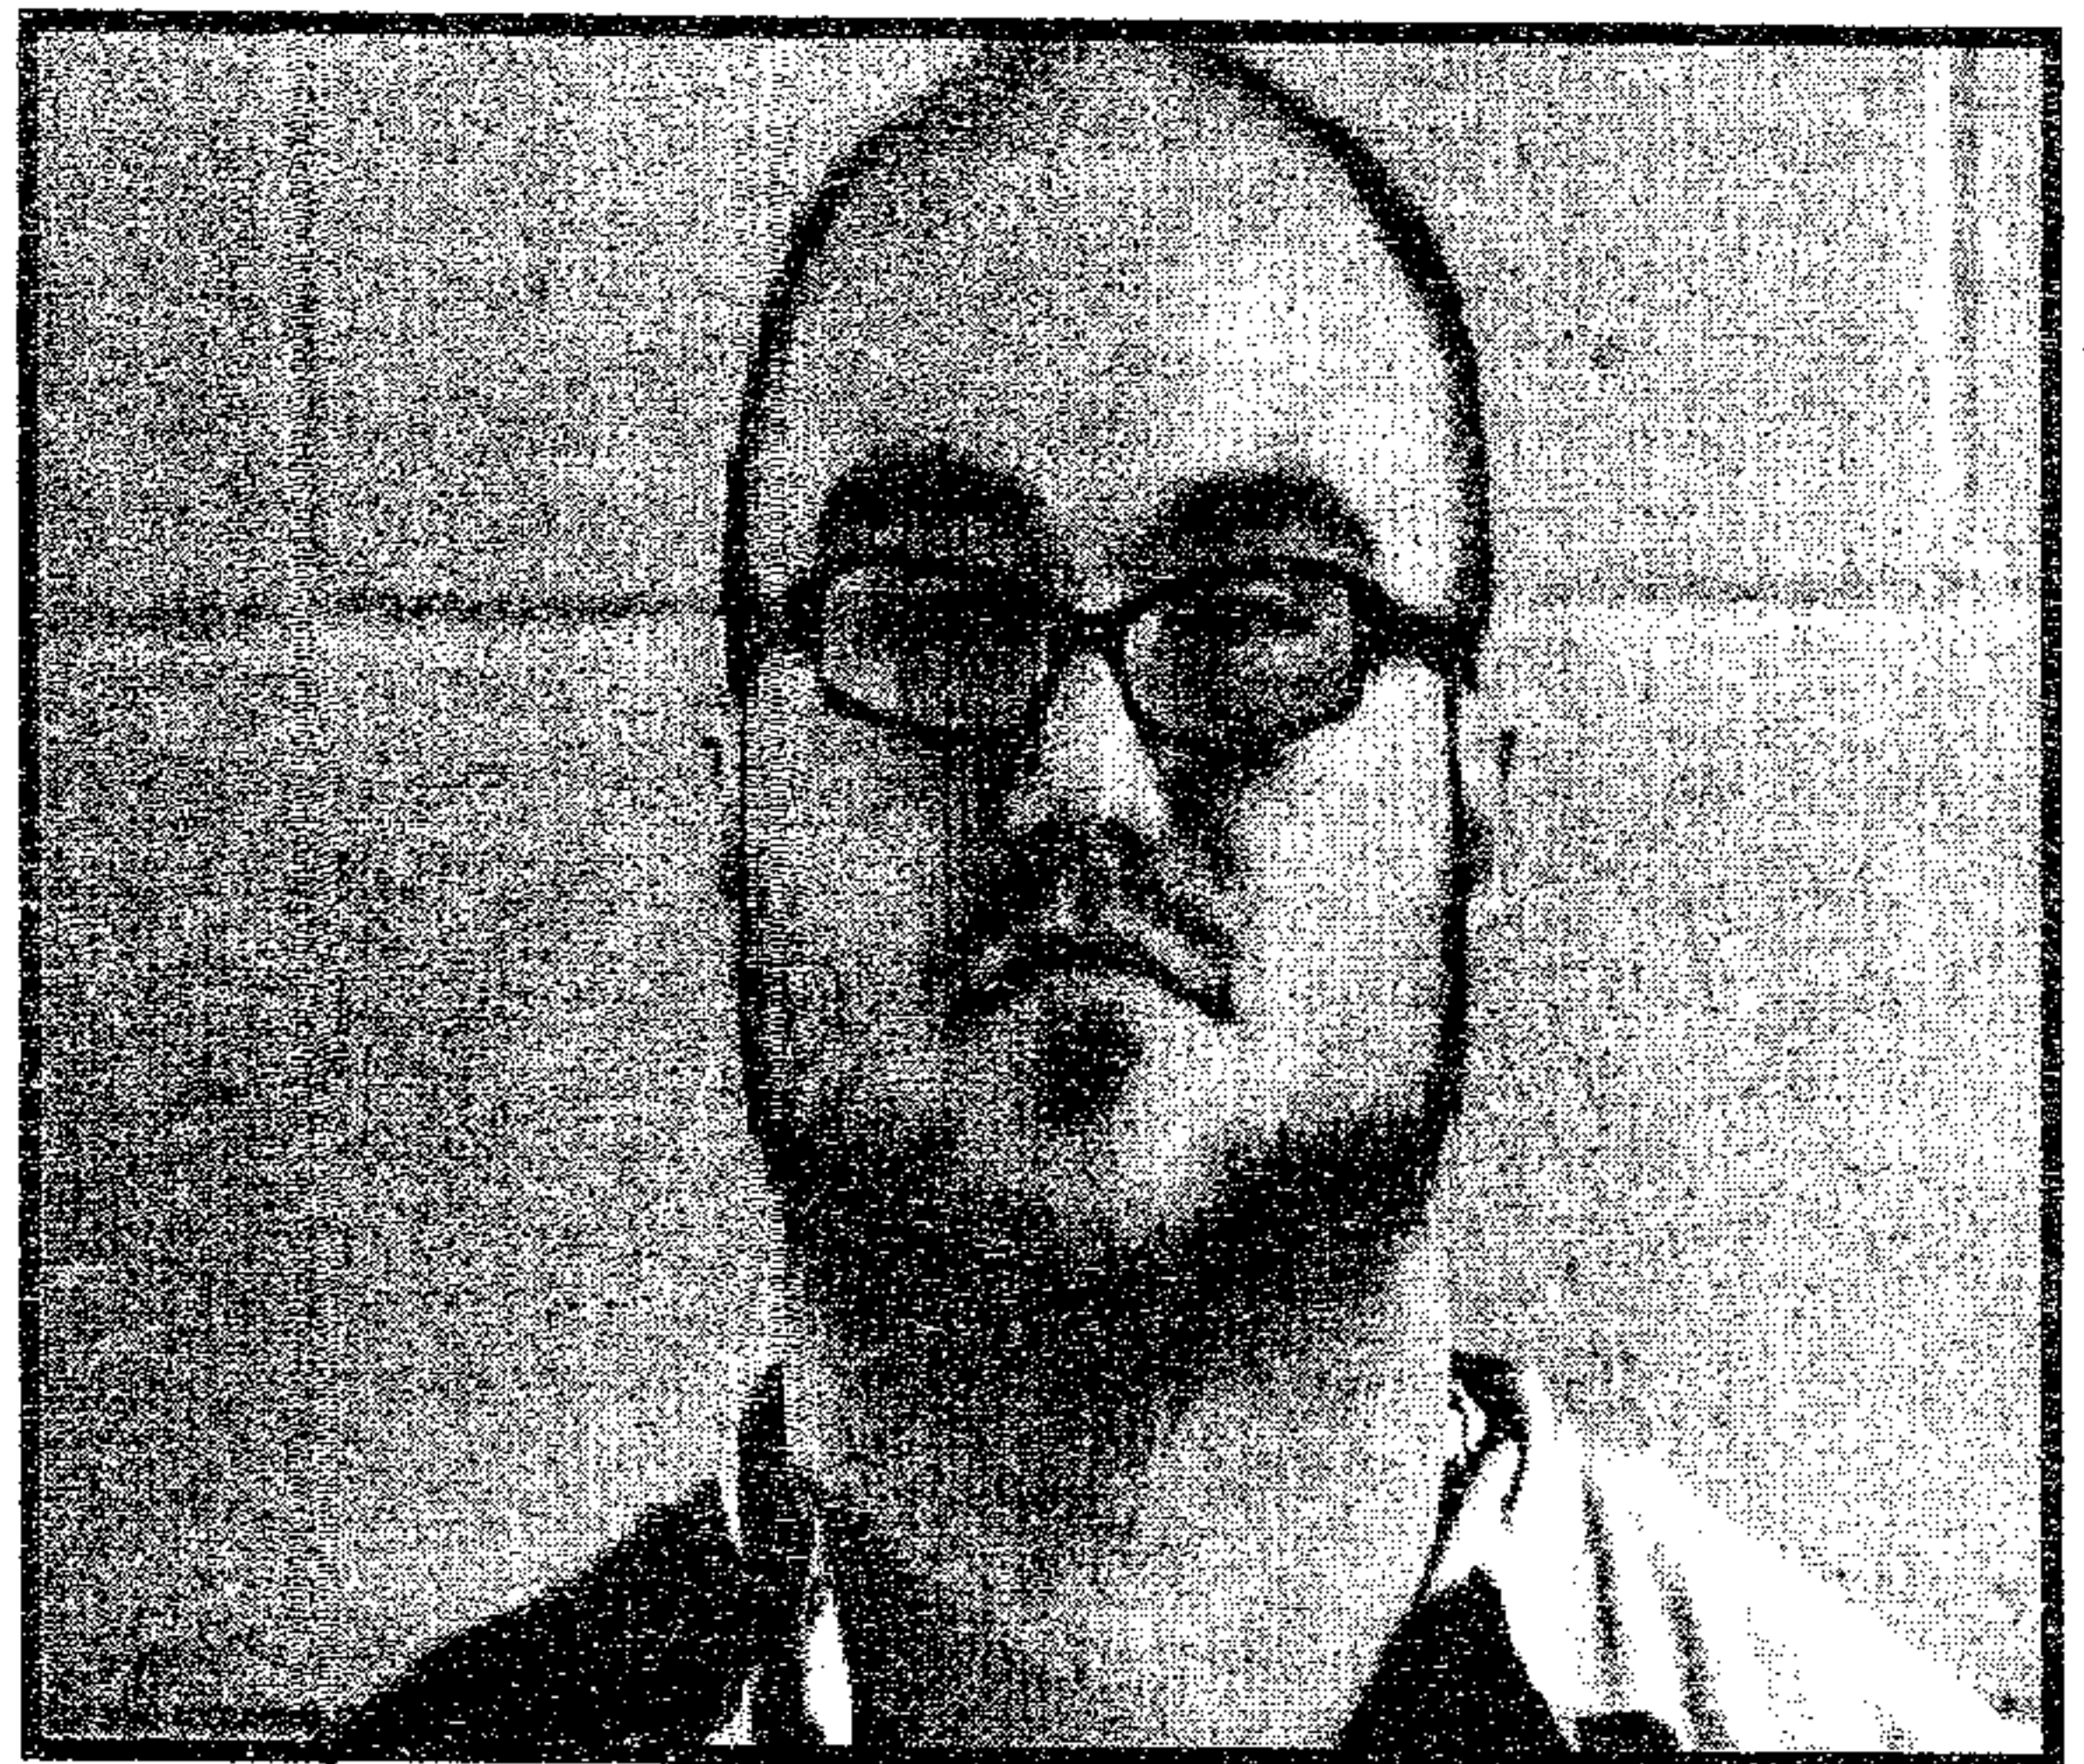

Over five hundred years before the birth of Christ in the flesh, God called a young man named Jeremiah as a prophet. God planted His own words in the mouth of Jeremiah and had him deliver a message to the children of Israel. God's intention was to remind His people of how far they had turned away from Him and to warn them of the consequences that were soon coming because of it. They were worshipping wooden and stone idols, praying to false gods, and were not following the commandments of the Creator of the universe.

Verse of the Day

And everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. ... With many other words he warned them; and he pleaded with them, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." Those who accepted his message were baptized, and about three thousand were added to their number that day. — 40-41

God loved the Israelites, they were His chosen people. God's patience with them throughout the entire Old Testament shows His mercy and willingness to forgive and restore. However, God would only be rejected for so long before He reminded those He loved that He is the one true God and their very existence was only because He allowed it.

God held the fate of the Israelites in His hand just as He holds that of America today. He chose to use Jeremiah to preach a message of the wrath to come if His people refused to repent and turn to Him. As I read the Book of Jeremiah tonight I thought of our families, our communities and the Christian church as a whole. How disgusted God must be at what we have allowed Christianity in our nation to become. Consider how far we have strayed from even the time of our parents and grandparents? How long before God pours out the wrath on us as that we deserve? Read God's thoughts toward His people (in which we are now included) as relayed to Jeremiah; Jeremiah 2:1-22 (NKJV)

(1) Moreover the word of the Lord came to me, saying,

(2) "Go and cry in the hearing of Jerusalem, saying, 'Thus says the Lord: "I remember you, the kindness of your youth, the love of your betrothal, when you went after Me in the wilderness, in a land not sown.

(3) Israel was holiness to the Lord, the first fruits of His increase. All that devour him will offend; disaster will come upon them," says the Lord."

(4) Hear the word of the Lord, O house of Jacob and all the families of the house of Israel.

(5) Thus says the Lord: What injustice have your fathers found in Me, that they have gone far from Me, have followed idols, and have become idolaters?

(6) Neither did they say, "where is the Lord, who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, who led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and pits, through a land of drought and the shadow of death, through a land that no one crossed and no one dwelt?"

(7) I brought you into a bountiful country, to eat its fruit and its goodness. But when you entered, you defiled My land and made My heritage an abomination.

(8) The priests did not say, where is the Lord?' And those who handle the law did not know Me; The rulers also transgressed against Me; The prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.

(9) Therefore I will yet bring charges against you," says the Lord, "and against your children's children I will bring charges.

(10) For pass beyond the coasts of Cyprus and see, send to Kedar and consider diligently, and see if there has been such a thing.

(11) Has a nation changed its gods, which are not gods? But My people have changed their Glory for what does not profit.

(12) Be astonished, O heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid; be very desolate," says the Lord. (13) "For My people have committed two evils: they have forsaken Me, the fountain of living waters, and hewn themselves cisterns- broken cisterns that can hold no water.

(14) Is Israel a servant? Is he a home born slave? Why is he plundered?

(15) The young lions roared at him and growled; they made his land waste; his cities are burned, without inhabitant.

(16) Also the people of Noph and Tahpanhes have broken the crown of your head.

(17) Have you not brought this on yourself, in that you have forsaken the Lord your God when He led you in the way?

(18) And now why take the road to Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? Or why take the road to Assyria, to drink the waters of the river?

(19) Your own wickedness will correct you, and your backslidings will rebuke you. Know therefore and see that it is an evil and bitter thing that you have forsaken the Lord your God, and the fear of Me is not in you," says the Lord of hosts.

(20) For of old I have broken your yoke and burst your bonds; and you said, 'I will not transgress,' when on every high hill and under every green tree you lay down, playing the harlot.

(21) Yet I had planted you a noble vine, a seed of the highest quality. How then have you turned before Me into the degenerate plant of an alien vine?

(22) For though you wash yourself with lye, and use much soap, yet your iniquity is marked before Me," says the Lord God.

If God were speaking to us today in our language and terminology it might sound something like this:

"Oh people of America, how long shall I endure your sin, selfishness and disbelief?"

Have I not allowed you to live in a land free of oppression and hardships? Have I not given you clean water, plenty of food and the best of healthcare? Have I not allowed you to worship me without fear of imprisonment or death?

Did I not send you my only begotten Son who selflessly gave His life to pay the ransom for your sin?"

"You have neglected to worship Me in spirit and in truth. Each of you have my written word but choose not to open the pages and hear from Me. You pray to Me only when you need Me to do for you and you turn your backs on the poor and broken. You claim to belong to Me yet tell no one else how to know Me and receive eternal life through My Son, Jesus. How long will I withhold My wrath upon your deceitful nation? How long before, at My word, you breathe your last? How long before I send drought, famine, plagues and other deadly consequences upon you for denying My holiness, My worthiness and My righteousness? How long?????????????
