If ya don't pay, and sell it away, you go to jail today!

Can ya pull me outta this ditch deputy?

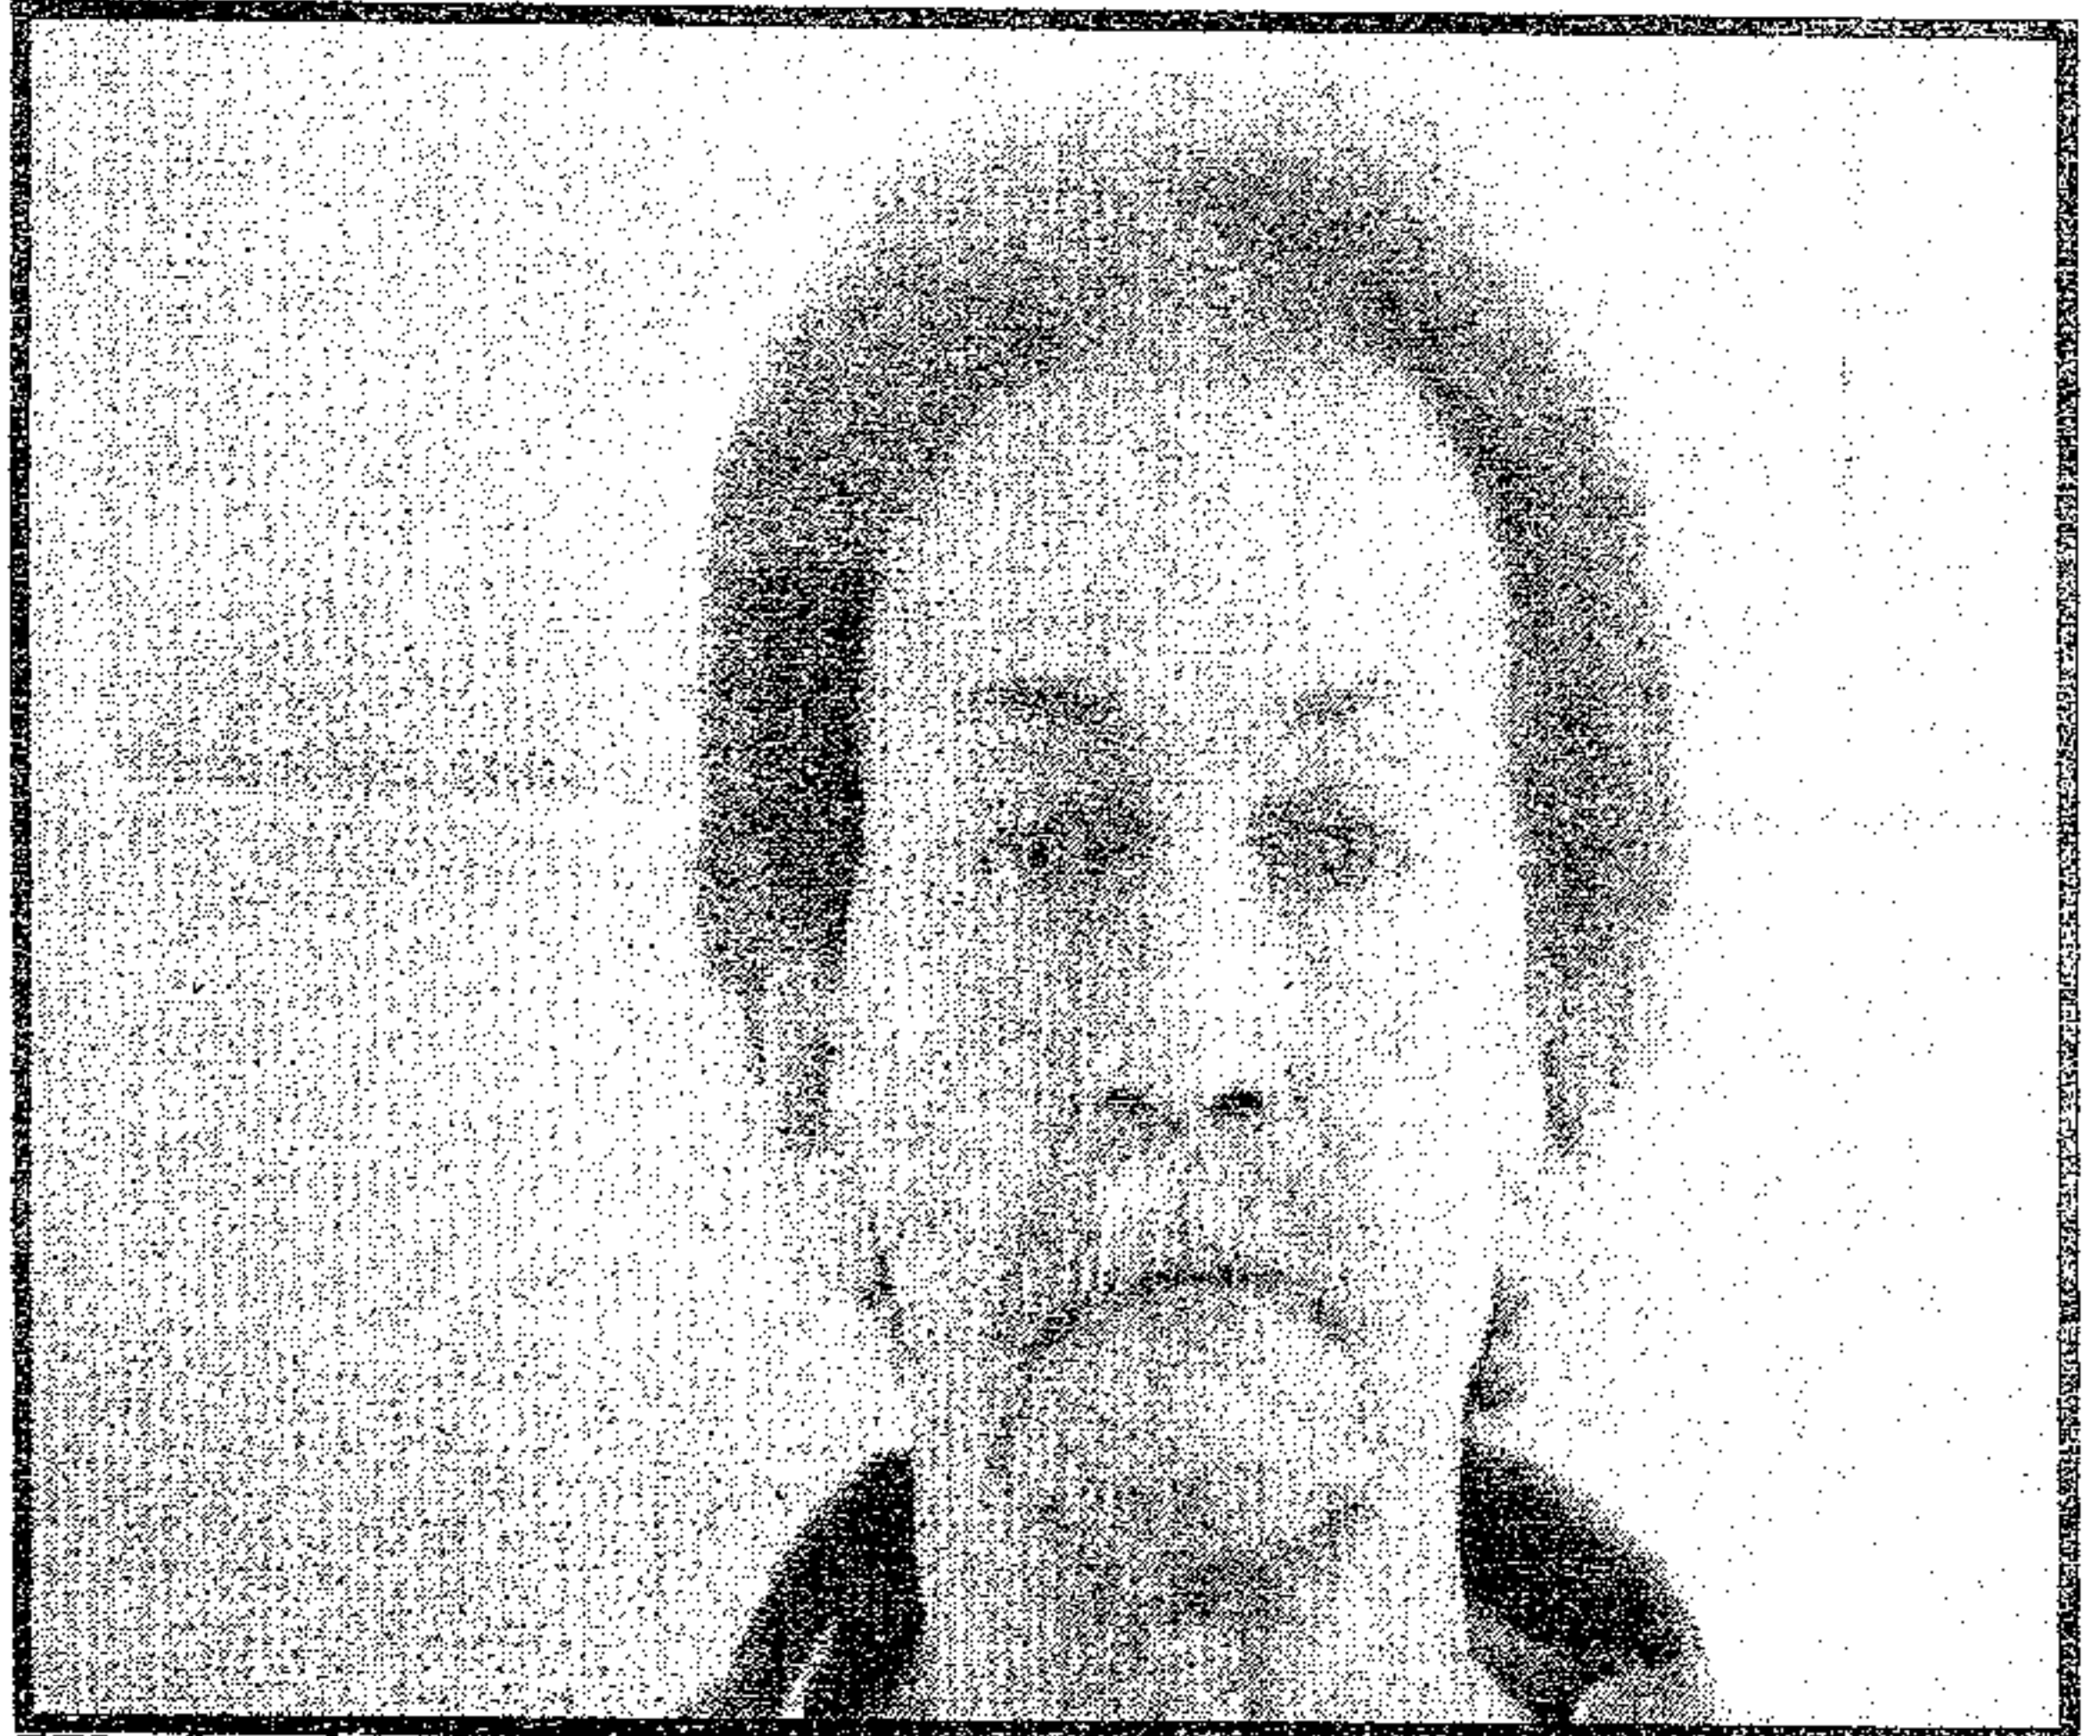

David Lee Queener

A Lenoir City man who thought he could just take a vehicle and sell the parts off it, then decided he wasn't gonna pay for a truck, has been charged with hindering a secured creditor after he didn't pay C.R. Cars in Loudon for the vehicle.

Hindering

Hindering Secured Creditors.

According to the report on 1/31/12 David Queener purchased a red pick-up truck from the victim. The truck was financed through the victim. Upon further investigation David only made one payment on 3/16/12.

The victim advised that he made several attempts to get David to make payments or give the truck back. It was learned during the investigation that David had sold some parts off the truck including the bed to a person on Davis Ferry Rd.

The warrant stated David did sell and dismantle the truck without the lean holder's knowledge. Lt. Patrick Upton Issued the Warrant.

Deputy Brandon Dixon LCSO, arrested David at West 2nd Ave and transported him to Loudon County Jail.

Police beat

Patrick Fulton, 41, Pine Ridge Rd, Lenoir City, was charged with DUI. Deputy Tony Branson was directing traffic when a vehicle was traveling at a high rate of speed the Deputy then waved the vehicle to slow and the vehicle did stop and roll the window down. Deputy Branson then made contact with the driver later identified as Patrick Fulton. The Deputy could smell a strong odor of alcohol coming from the vehicle. The Deputy then asked Mr. Fulton to exit the driver seat and asked if he would perform field sobriety and he did consent and performed poorly on the test. Deputy Branson then read Mr. Fulton a copy of the implied consent and he did give consent to a breath test at the Loudon County Jail. Deputy Branson then placed Mr. Fulton under arrest for driving under the influence and transported him to the Loudon County Jail. Sgt. Jerramie Bowen did wait the allotted 20 min time and gave the breath test. Sgt. Jeramie Bowen LCSO made the arrest.

Death being investigated

According to the report, Deputy Smith did respond to Highway 411 South in Loudon County for a call of a shooting. Upon arrival Deputy made contact with complainant. Complainant stated to the Officer he and victim were hunting and saw a deer run into a field where they did not have permission to hunt. Complainant stated when they entered the field they saw an atv coming toward them and they started to slide backward while sitting.

Complainant stated victim was in front of him when he was going under the fence and the crossbow he had, fired and struck victim in the right side, back of his head. At this time Inv. Cosner did respond to the scene and did collect evidence and document the scene.

Burglary reported

Deputy Bobby Hamilton badge responded to a alarm call at Pine Grove/New Providence Rd. Upon arrival the home owner was there and reported he had found that someone had kicked his front door open and broke his alarm control panel off the wall.

The report stated it appeared that the intruder was scared off by the alarm. At the time of the report the victim could not find anything missing.

The victim did have damage to his front door and frame of the front door and to his alarm control panel.

Order
 Jason Holland, 36, Peterson Road Lenoir City, was charged with Violation of Order of Protection. Deputy Jamie Ketner LCSO, went to Peterson Rd. to cite Jason Keith Holland into court for leaving the scene of two separate accidents. Deputy Ketner was advised, through our dispatch, that Mr. Peterson had an Order of Protection out of Blount County. The order of protection was filed on August 15, 2013 and expires on August 15, 2014. Mr. Holland was the respondent and homeowner was the petitioner. Mr. Holland was not allowed to possess or attempt to possess any firearms. On 01-11-2014 Mr. Holland wrecked his vehicle on Peterson Rd. and left the scene, inside his vehicle there were a box of 9mm luger bullets and various other bullets inside his vehicle.

Deputy Ketner made contact with Mr. Holland on 01-13-2013, to cite him into court, and Deputy asked where was his firearm. Mr. Holland then took me into his bedroom and lifted up his bed, and underneath the mattress there was one Hi-Point 380, with one in the chamber, and one Bersa 9mm. Deputy then arrested Mr. Holland for the violation of order of protection. Deputy Jamie Ketner LCSO made the arrest. Police beat Rick Ard, 38, Wild Wood Road Maryville, was charged with Failure to appear. Deputy Kyle Collins LCSO served a FTA Warrant on Rick at the Jail.

Chris Brashears, 38, Summer Street, Loudon was charged with Violation of probation. Deputy Pam Snow LCSO, served a VOP Warrant on Chris at the Loudon County Jail.

DUI

Wesley Brown, 55, Old Slag Road, Vonore, was charged with DUI. According to the report, Deputy Kenneth Palmer LCSO, was advised of a vehicle that had possibly ran off the road at Highway 321 at Highway 444. When Deputy Palmer arrived on scene he observed a White Chevrolet S10 that had ran off Highway 321 and was stuck in the grass. Deputy Palmer did observe the driver was trying to get the vehicle out and was just spinning the tires.

Deputy Palmer did make contact with the driver identified as Mr. Wesley Darrell Brown. Deputy Palmer did observe Mr. Brown when he exited the vehicle observed him to be unsteady on his feet and was balancing himself on the truck.

Mr. Brown stated he had a tow strap and asked if the Deputy would pull him out.

While speaking with Mr. Brown Deputy Palmer could smell a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage emitting from his person.

Deputy Palmer also observed Mr. Brown's speech was slurred and his eyes were red and glassy. Deputy Palmer asked Mr. Brown how under arrest for driving under the influence. Mr. Brown was read the Tennessee Implied Consent Form at which time he stated he would give blood. Mr. Brown was transported to the Fort Loudon Emergency Room and then to the Loudon County Jail. Deputy Kenneth Palmer LCSO made the arrest.

much he had to drink at which time he stated I. Deputy Palmer asked Mr. Brown if he would be willing to do some field sobriety tasks at which time he stated yes. Mr. Brown did perform poorly on all field sobriety task. Mr. Brown was placed
