Sound Advice for the New Year

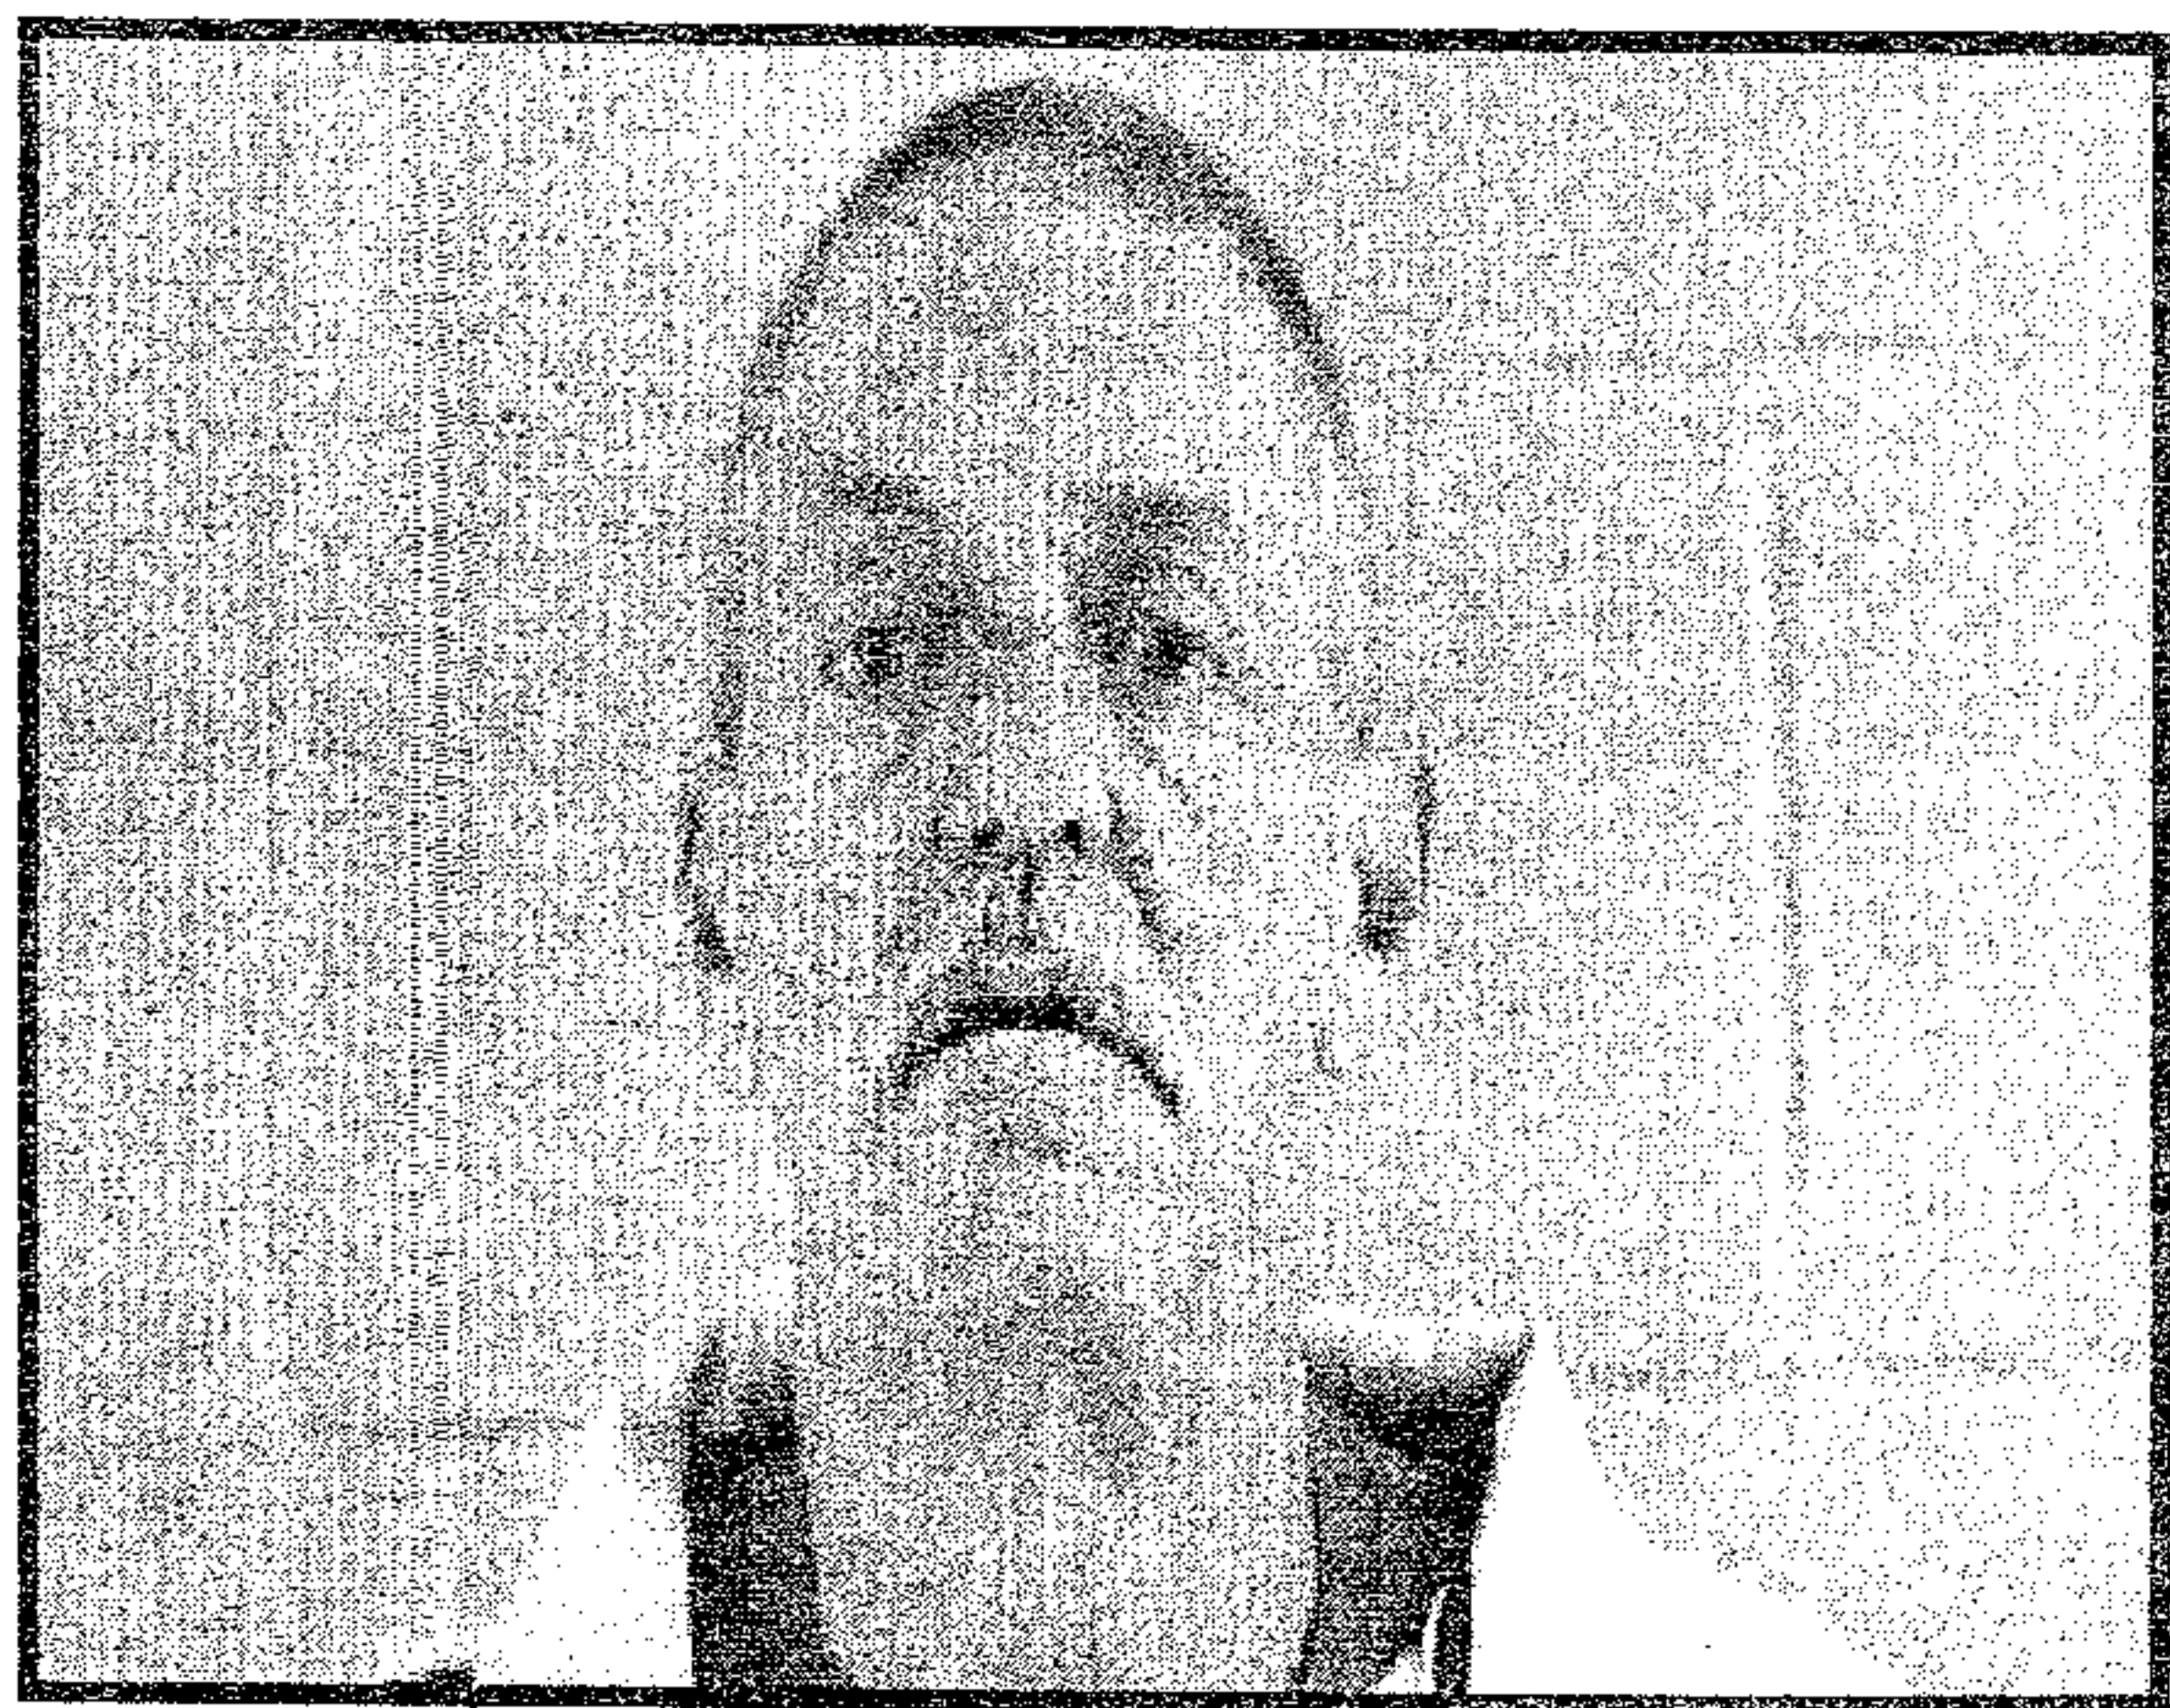

The holiday season has now ended and a brand new year is beginning for all of us. We could each, undoubtedly, recount some unpleasant experiences that we were forced to endure during the last year and we could all likewise share something positive and exciting that happened in our lives as well.

For me, I sincerely regret some opportunities that I had to share my faith in Christ more effectively with the people I saw every day but I am grateful that although I failed God the name of Edward Paul White. When Deputy Hamilton and TJ Scarborough and Patrolman Dennis Guider checked the garage at Browder Hollow they located Mr. Edgar Paul White in the garage. Mr. White is homeless and broke into the garage and was sleeping in the garage. Mr. White had a homemade bed, candles, food, clothes, marijuana pipe and other items in the garage for his use to sleep there. Several of the items the Deputy took into custody for evidence. When Deputy talked with the owner of the property she stated that Edgar White had not been given permission to be on the property or in the garage or any other building on the property and that Mr.

White had done this without owner's permission. Deputy Hamilton placed Mr. Edgar White under arrest on the existing warrants they had on him and charged him with criminal trespassing.

In that regard, He still allowed me the honor of leading at least one person to Him for eternal salvation and is now using my wife and I to share the gospel in Montana.

As we all begin wading into the waters of 2014, I want to encourage you to make the most of every day that you are blessed with and allow this year to be your best one! To help with that, I have chosen a few passages of scripture that I believe exemplify the power of our Creator and the love that Jesus Christ has for each of us. If you believe the Bible to be true, (and I pray you do) then you may want to write these down, memorize them or at least highlight them in your own Bible to lean on throughout the coming triumphs and trials that may flow your way this year.

I truly believe the Bible is jam packed full of God inspired facts, examples and useful advice for a peaceful life that is grounded in the faith of Jesus Christ, the Son of God and our Savior. So here goes:

Genesis 1:1 - In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

I could just stop right there! God literally spoke the earth and everything in it into existence. God is not just a figurehead of religious beliefs, He is the great I AM! If He created all that we see and all that exists then He is worthy of our praise and worthy of living for.

Deuteronomy 6:5 - You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your strength.

This is what God told Moses to teach the children of Israel. If we want to really experience a relationship with God that changes our hearts and guides our lives, this is how.

Jeremiah 29:11-13 - For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the Lord, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope. Then you will call upon Me and go and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all of your heart.

We should always remember that God isn't just our Creator or a righteous Judge; He cares for each of us and wants us to experience peace, joy and happiness if we will only reject the sins of the world and seek Him with our hearts.

John 3:16-17 - For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.

This is undoubtedly the most popular verse in the Bible and almost everyone can recite it, but have you let the words penetrate your heart? God knew what Christ would have to endure to pay our sin debt. Our sins, the sins of the world, were a barrier between us and God. But through faith in Jesus, we can enjoy a relationship with God and experience His greatness both now in our life on earth, and later for eternity.

Luke 19:10 - For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost.

Jesus tells Zacchaeus that His purpose for coming to earth was to seek out and to save all those who will believe on Him. This is you and this is me! We are the reason Jesus came to earth to sacrifice His life. The only Son of the Creator of the universe came to earth to be crucified so that you and I could spend eternity with Him and God the Father in heaven!!!!

James 1:19 - So then, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath; for the wrath of man does not produce the righteousness of God.

I should have this verse stamped onto my forehead! We often allow our mouths to destroy our witness as Christians, which rendered this verse mandatory for a better year than last for most of us.

Romans 12:1-2 - I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

This is one of my favorite verses in the Bible and it challenges me every time I think of it. Blondie's missionary uncle, Jack Housley, pointed me to this verse of scripture over three years ago and I think of him and his commitment to Christ every time I read it. If I want to be a disciple maker for Jesus Christ, this is what I must do, this is what it takes.

Acts 1:9 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.

These were the last words that Jesus spoke to His disciples before ascending to heaven. The first century church began to fulfill this command but it is Christians of our generation who must continue the work until Christ returns for the church. This command is the reason that we are now living in Helena. Our heart's desire is to be His witnesses to the folks of Montana and wherever else God chooses to send us.

WARNING: Living by the advice described in the scripture above will totally and radically change your life forever!!! If you desire another year just like the last one, please disregard!
