port, Deputy Jamie Ketner, Deputy Chris Hutchens and Deputy Brandon Burley, went to Donaldson Rd. on two felony warrants, aggravated burglary and theft over $500 for Michael T. Abron. Deputy Chris Jenkins and Deputy Hutchens went to the side door and made contact with Mr. Brown upon entering. Deputies did not make contact with Michael Abron at that side of the residence. Deputies then went to the next entrance of the house and made contact with the Grandfather. Deputy Jenkins and Deputy Hutchens identified their selves and stated that we had two felony warrants for Michael Abron. The Grandfather stated that Mr. Abron was in the back bedroom. At which point Courtney Brown was forcibly holding the door, preventing us from making contact with Mr. Abron.

Mr. Brown was also inside the residence Deputy Jenkins and Deputy Hutchens asked Mr. Brown several times to step back Mr. Brown did not comply with the orders and on several occasions stood in the way putting Deputy Jenkins and the other Deputies in danger. Mr. Brown also made several threats to Deputy and his family. Deputy Hutchens, Burley and Jenkins entered the backroom where Mr. Abron was located and did observe Mr. Abron was trying to flee out of the bedroom window. Mr. Abron was ordered to come back from the window at which point he stated that if he anyone touched him he would "knock them the f out". Mr. Abron was pulled back from the window, at which point he did strike Deputy Burley in the face with a closed fist. During which time Deputies Burley and Hutchens were attempting to gain control of Abrons using the minimal amount of force necessary. Mr. Abron continued to resist arrest striking Deputy Hutchens in the face several times with his elbows and kicking Deputy Burley with his legs. The amount of force being used proved ineffective at which time Deputy Burley did dry stun Mr. Abron in the left thigh with his X-26 Taser. This gave Deputy Hutchens the ability to roll Mr. Abrons onto his stomach and gain effective control by Deputy Burley securing his right arm and Deputy Hutchens gaining control of his left arm, and then placing him in custody. During the struggle Courtney Brown continually attempted to prevent Deputies from arresting Abron and did strike Deputy Burley in the head with a flashlight. Once Abron was arrested Courtney Brown then did take the original warrants we were there to serve and hid in the bathroom with them refusing to relinquish them. She finally did release the warrants and Mr. Abron was secured and transported to the Loudon County Jail. Deputy Chris Jenkins LCSO made the arrest.
