By His Wounds We Are Healed

Two weeks ago, I made an unexpected visit back to Tennessee to see my Aunt Jan. She had been diagnosed with cancer a couple of years ago, and did ok with treatments for a while. When hospice was called in, I wanted to go spend some time with her and my family.

When I arrived in Knoxville on Friday night, my mother-in-law met me at the airport. She had a loaner car gassed up and ready to go for my short visit. I was exhausted from a nine hour trip and four different airports (it isn't easy getting from Helena to Knoxville). I went to see Aunt Jan, and it broke my heart.

The spunky gal that we had all loved for so many years didn't even look like the same person. She talked to me a little that night and even laughed a time or two. She was always good for a laugh — even in tough circumstances. When I went back to see her on Saturday, she had gotten a little worse than the night before. By the time Sunday rolled around, she wasn't talking or responding at all.

I headed back to Montana on Wednesday, and she passed away on Thursday. I kept thinking about how every night before we went to bed those few nights that my Mamaw would say, "God can heal her. I believe in miracles". Then I thought about how Jan described "healing" to my Aunt Judy. She said this, "Whether I am healed in this life or healed in death, I will one day be healed". What an amazing testimony!

Jan was much like my Papaw Clyde. She always found the good in everybody and everything. Even in some of the hardest times of her life, she was able to see goodness. Jan had a way of making everyone feel special! She was loved and will be missed by all of us, but I am thankful today that she has found healing in Heaven.

While it's hard to understand cancer and death, we have to hold strong to the hope and faith that Jesus gave us when He died on the cross. When I think of Jan and the hurt that my family is going through, I cling to this verse: Romans 8:28 (KJV) "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose."

I ask that as you read this that you say a prayer of healing for Charles, Jan's husband for over 30 years. For her sons, Michael and Chucky. For her grandson, Houston. For her momma, Betty. For her sister, Judy, who took care of her when she was so sick. For her brothers, Joey and Jack, who just buried their little sister. I ask that you remember the nieces and nephews that loved her and all of the kids that she took in when they had nowhere else to go.

Then I challenge you to ask yourself; if you were to die today, would you be healed through death? Would you be in Heaven to live with Jesus forever? Have you accepted Christ as your Savior to know your eternal destination? Or would you continue a life of torment in hell?

My friend, hell is just as real as Heaven, and there is only one way to get there. Ephesians 2:8 KJV "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God."

Toys for Tots 2014

Thanks to the generosity year after year of the Loudon County residents, churches, businesses and industries, the Loudon County Sheriff's Office is once again able to offer the Toys for Tots program. We are beginning our 30th year of providing toys to the needy children of Loudon County, and thanks to generous contributions of time, money and gifts, we are able to make Christmas a more joyful time for more and more children. In 2013, approximately 500 children were helped by the Loudon County Sheriff's Department Toys for Tots program through their partners. Even with the difficult economic times we are experiencing, we hope that the people of Loudon County will be there once again to help. Beginning Monday, September 8, the 2014 applications will be available at the Loudon County Sheriff's Office.

Applications will be accepted for children from Age 1 through 8th grade that are enrolled in the Loudon County or Lenoir City School systems. ALL applications must be returned to the Loudon County Sheriff's Department by 4 PM, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 23, 2014. It is requested that everyone please submit their application as soon as possible. Applications must also include a copy of the parent or guardian's current income information. A current Tennessee Driver's License or State Issued ID is required from the parent, and a copy of the child's social security card is also required. Names will be available beginning in mid-October through business and churches. If you are considering helping a child this Christmas, please be assured that applicants are thoroughly checked to make sure they require this assistance. Names are also compared with the school systems to make sure no one is receiving duplicate assistance. If your business or church would be willing to take names please call Debbie Hines, Toys for Tots Coordinator at 988-2300.
