for a period of three years. She was also ordered to pay restitution in the amount of $522.63.

Rhodes negotiated counterfeit checks at retailers in the Knoxville area. The counterfeit checks contained bank account information gleaned from mail that she had stolen. The counterfeit checks were negotiated with false identification cards bearing the same name as the account holder on the checks and a picture of Rhodes. When negotiating the counterfeit checks at a local merchant, the bank account information was processed electronically by Telecheck Services, Inc., in Houston, Texas.

The indictment and subsequent conviction of Rhodes was the result of an investigation conducted by the U.S. Secret Service. Assistant U.S. Attorney Matthew T. Morris represented the United States.

Loudon County Toys for Tots Sponsors Needed

Due to an increased number of applications and a decreased number of sponsors, the Loudon County Sheriff's Office is asking for businesses, churches, Sunday School classes, other groups, or even individuals to consider "adopting" children from the Toys for Tots list. Currently there are about 75 names that have not been taken and that means 75 Loudon County children between the ages of 1 and 13 that face a dismal Christmas. To adopt names, contact Debbie Hines at the Sheriff's Office 865-986-4823, Monday - Friday 8-4 ning several months, conducted by the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) and the Fourth Judicial District Attorney's office. An undercover investigation by the TBI from April 2014 through July 2014 revealed that Holt bought stolen property and sold it from convenience stores he owned with his wife in Newport Tenn. He also distributed hydrocodone and swapped the drug for stolen property. Many of the transactions occurred while Holt was on duty as a detective captain with the Newport Police Department. In July 2014 Holt was arrested and search warrants were executed by TBI and other agencies, both at his residence and the Newport Police Department. Evidence seized included pill bottles, pills, a short barrel shotgun and other items outlined in the factual basis for the plea agreement on file with the U.S. District Court.

Agencies assisting TBI included the Fourth Judicial District Attorney's office, Tennessee Highway Patrol and Federal Bureau of Investigation. Assistant U.S. Attorney Donald Wayne Taylor represented the United States.

U.S. Attorney William C. Killian said, "Holt illegally used his badge and the trust placed in him for personal gain. While the quantity of drugs he distributed was small by federal prosecution standards, his conviction was important because he victimized the community he swore to protect. Furthermore, he betrayed the brave men and women of law enforcement who risk their lives to protect and serve. The U.S. Attorney's Office will continue to make it a priority to support law enforcement in the effort to protect the integrity and honor of the profession from those who abuse the privilege of wearing a badge."

Tennessee Bureau of Investigation Director Mark Gwyn stated, "This case was a blemish on the law enforcement community and those who do their best to uphold the law and maintain transparency. As a result of this investigation, it is my hope that we can all move forward and work harder to maintain public trust."
