FORMER WACKENHUT SECURITY OFFICER INDICTED FOR THEFT OF PUBLIC FUNDS

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - A federal grand jury in Knoxville returned a three-count indictment on Dec. 16, 2014, against Sarah Parker, 52, of Dandridge, Tenn., for theft of U.S. Government property and money laundering. Parker appeared in court on Dec. 18, 2014, before U.S. Magistrate Judge C. Clifford Shirley, Jr. and pleaded not guilty to the charges in the indictment. She was released pending trial, which has been set for Feb. 17, 2015, in United States District Court, Knoxville.

The indictment alleges that Parker, who was employed as a Security Protective Officer with Wackenhut Services Inc. at the ETPP facility in Oak Ridge, Tenn., converted $214,022.59 to personal use, in the form of checks that came into her possession as a result of her employment. The indictment further alleges that Parker illegally engaged in financial transactions with those funds, including the purchase of a vehicle for $39,608.97 and payment of $74,327.12 to Bank of America.

If convicted, Parker faces a term of 10 years in prison for each count. The indictment also states that Parker, upon conviction, may be required to forfeit any property that is traceable to the alleged offenses.

This indictment is the result of an investigation by the U.S. Department of Energy, Office of the Inspector General and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Assistant U.S. Attorney Frank M. Dale, Jr. will represent the United States.

Members of the public are reminded that an indictment constitutes only charges and that every person is presumed innocent until their guilt has been proven beyond a reasonable doubt.

KEVIN SCOTT THIBAUT SENTENCED FOR FORGERY OF SIGNATURE OF A U.S. DISTRICT COURT JUDGE AND MAIL FRAUD

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - On Dec. 18, 2014, Kevin Scott Thibault, 49, of Maryville, Tenn., was sentenced by the Honorable Pamela L. Reeves, U.S. District Judge, to serve 60 months in prison for forgery of the signatures of a district court judge and an officer of the U.S. District Court. Additionally, Judge Reeves ordered Thibault to serve 72 months in prison for mail fraud. These sentences will run concurrently.

Thibault pleaded guilty in August 2014 to a two-count indictment charging him with the forgery counts and a one-count information charging him with mail fraud. Thibault was also ordered to pay restitution in the amount of $380,340.12. Upon his release from prison, he will be supervised by the U.S. Probation Office for three years.

Thibault admitted to falsely representing himself as an attorney and agreeing to assist two individuals with the adoption of foster children in their custody. In May 2012, Thibault presented the individuals with fake adoption papers that he claimed had been filed in U.S. District Court, signed by U.S. District Judge Thomas A. Varlan, and certified by U.S. District Court Officer Kathy Keeton. An investigation revealed that neither Judge Varlan nor Keeton signed the documents and the signatures were forged.

In October 2012, Thibault demanded that the individuals sign a power of attorney permitting him to represent their interest in the alleged adoption proceedings. However, the power of attorney actually allowed him to conduct certain financial transactions on their behalf. According to the plea agreement, through the
