Jennifer Griffis, 42, County Road Sweetwater, was charged with Theft of property x2.

Shannon Griffis, 42, County Road Sweetwater, was charged with Theft of property x2.

According to report on 2/11/14 Shannon Griffis entered the property at the Treasure Barn and Garden Center in Lenoir City. Shannon and his co-defendant Jennifer Griffis were traveling in a black vehicle.

The business owner observed Shannon and Jennifer walking around the business and loading items in the back of their vehicle. The owner recognized the two offenders and their vehicle from security video that was recorded during two prior thefts at the business. The Owner called the police and Lt. David Flynn and Sgt. Jeremy Dishner responded to the scene. Upon Officers arrival they observed Jennifer sitting inside the vehicle and Shannon standing behind the vehicle holding a car battery. A inventory of the vehicle revealed that Shannon and Jennifer had stolen a Duralast battery, an extension cord, copper pipes and miscellaneous copper fittings. Shannon and Jennifer were identified on security video from two prior thefts at the same location and was placed under arrest. Detective Kevin Condee LCPD, made the arrest.
