respond to a location at Green Meadows Road near the intersection with Pumphouse Road in Rockwood, Roane County. Agents from the 9th Drug Task Force and other agencies in Roane County including Roane County Sheriff's Department, Harriman Police Department, Kingston Police Department, Rockwood Police Department were attempting to locate individuals who were indicted at the most recent grand jury for drug charges. When they attempted to enter a trailer at the aforementioned location it was apparently "booby trapped" in a fashion that caused a suspected meth lab to explode. Apparently no one was injured in the incident. The bomb squad was called in to investigate this scene as well as other surrounding structures that may be similarly designed to explode. Further details will be released, if available, once a suspect(s) are in arrest.
