A Lesson from a Youngster

How young is too young to love folks like Jesus loves us? How do you know if you're being the Christian example to your children that God expects of those who claim to belong to Him? This is a real life story that says it all!

A few weeks ago Blondie and I received a request from a young man named Boone Mathis, whose family are members of New Providence Baptist with us. Boone is 7 years old and one of six young brothers in the Mathis crew.

victim in the garage. On talking with the victim found that he and his wife was leaving for a trip and had rented a car for their son to use and then found out the insurance would not cover it and took it back. Mr. Jason Heiden, the son, awoke to go to work and found the car missing. He got upset and they offered to pay for a cab for the time they were gone and he refused and told them he was taking their car. Mr. Jason Randall then pushed his father and started yelling and screaming at him. On trying to take Mr. Jason Heiden into custody he tried to walk off from Officers and we had to go hands on with the subject. He then pulled away and Deputy Marty Branam got back a hold of him and at this time Mr. Jason Heiden hit Deputy Branam with a forearm in the nose causing him to bleed. Deputy Branam then grabbed and started to take Mr. Jason Heiden to the ground and at which time, Deputy Craig Brewer, deployed a Tazer on Mr. Jason Heiden and he then became compliant. Mr. Jason Had been drinking and had a smell of intoxicating beverage about his person. Deputy Craig Brewer made the arrest.

Boone and his family have been praying for and supporting Angie and me from the time we left Loudon County to follow God's plan for our lives in Montana.

Adam and Ameer Mathis keep up with the winter weather here in Helena and share this information with their family as they pray for us. Knowing that we often experience sub-freezing temperatures out here, Young Boone began to worry about other young folks living in our community and decided to take action in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Boone told his parents, who relayed to us, that he had saved one hundred dollars ($100) and wanted to use his money to buy coats for any children in Montana that might need one this winter. He also wanted to write them a personal letter and let them know that he hoped the coats would keep them warm and that he was praying for them.

The Mathis family supported Boone's burden for cold kids and mailed us his saved money, two hand written letters for the children and a photo of the Mathis family. Angie and I both about cried (well Angie did cry) when we first heard about Boone's desire to get involved and then again when we received the letters he had written, along with every dollar he had saved.

It didn't take my blonde bride very long to locate just the family for this special gift as we are convinced that God Himself had a part in this whole idea. Angie introduced herself to a family who had two young boys in need of new winter wear and explained to them how young Boone, living two thousand miles away, wanted to purchase a new coat for both of her young sons. It is no coincidence to us that the young daughter in this family had already received a winter coat recently and did not need one but both boys did.

After a little shopping, Angie began to build a relationship with the mother in this family and found two perfect coats that the boys were very excited to receive. (In the spirit of fairness, the young girl received a new shirt that she was also proud to take home that day).

The youngsters were each given the letter and photograph from Boone Mathis and were proud to display these items, as well as their new winter coats, while Blondie took the attached photograph.

What an amazing story of God using the youngest of His followers to make an impact that will undoubtedly go far beyond two coats and a shirt! Boone Mathis followed his heart and God will bless him for it! Angie made a new friend that we will follow up with in the days to come and a family from Clancy, Montana was able to see the love of Jesus from the heart of a young man on the other side of the country. Ain't God Good!!!!!!

 Thank you, Boone, for being a great example of loving others like Christ loves us! Many of us reading today should follow your lead and the world would be a much better place for everyone!

Deuteronomy 6:5-7
 (5) You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength. (6) And these words which I command you today shall be in your heart. (7) You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up.

Proverbs 22:6 tells us to "Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old he will not depart from it."

Hey Adam and Anee..... It's working!! Keep pointing all of those boys to Jesus!!

Assault

Sammy Clabough, 40, D Street Lenoir City, was charged with Aggravated Assault.

According to the report, Officer Tim Holloway LCPD was dispatched to West Broadway to a fight in progress and a man with a knife. Upon the Officer's arrival the front door was open and the Officer announced himself and entered the residence. The parties were separated at that time. The Officer ask who had the knife? A female pointed to Sammy Clabough as the person with the knife.

Upon the Officer detaining the subject he had a strong of alcohol and was verbally aggressive to the Officer and the residents. The female stated Mr. Clabough entered the residence at the rear of the home and he had the knife in his back pocket. The female stated Mr. Clabough began arguing with one of the male residents and Sammy struck the female with an open hand during the course of the argument. Mr. Clabough then pulled the knife on the resident placing them in fear for their life. Sammy was placed under arrest. Officer Tim Holloway LCPD, made the arrest.
