Tylin Gordan, 20, Old Niota Road Athens, was charged with Theft of property.

According to report Tylin and another male came into the Food City on Loudon. After reviewing the video one concealed two packs of steaks inside his pants and the other concealed a pack of chicken in his pants and both men left the store. On the same day one of the men came back in the store and concealed a pack of crab legs in his pants and left the store. A employee told the manager that the same man from the earlier incident was in the store again. Tylin was identified in the video and a Warrant was issued. Officer Kent Russell LPD, arrested Tylin and transported him to Loudon Jail.

Assault

Cynthia Walters, 53, Forest Heights Circle Lenoir city, was charged with Aggravated Assault. On 03-11-2014 Deputy Brian Smith LCSO, did respond to the Tennova Hospital in Knoxville for a call of Domestic Violence that occurred at Forest Heights Circle. Upon arrival Deputy made contact with the witness. The witness stated to this Officer his brother the victim came to his house in Knoxville around 9:00 PM and told him that he and his girlfriend Cynthia had been in an argument. The witness stated the victim told him Cynthia had threw a coffee cup at him and struck him in the arm and told him to get out of her house and while he was gathering his belongings to leave she struck him in the left side with a cast iron pot. The witness then stated he took victim to the Ten-nova Emergency Room and they found three broken ribs, punctured left lung that had collapsed and that he was in critical condition. Deputy

Smith was unable to speak to victim due to him being sedated. Upon making contact with Ms. Cynthia Walters she stated the victim gathered his belongings and left and she had not hit him and she was unaware that he was hurt. At this time INV. Cosner was called and advised of the incident and Ms. Walters was transported to the Loudon County Jail further investigation. After Investigator Cosner interview Cynthia it was determined she did commit the Assault and was placed under arrest. Investigator Charlie Cosner LCSO, made the arrest.

non-profit organization. He explained how their mission is to provide assistance service dogs to disabled Veterans, and provide service dogs to autistic children. Mike said, "It takes approximately 2 years, between $20,000 to $25,000 and 1200 hours of training to place a service dog." Also attending was Veteran and volunteer trainer, Dennis Tissot. Dennis and service dog, Bella, demonstrated some of Bella's capabilities on how the training can help and assist disabled veterans. Not only being an emotional companion, service dogs like Bella can perform task of picking up items, retrieving items and even providing assistance in standing up. Kitchens said, they are always looking for volunteer puppy raisers, puppy socializers, and intermediate foster families to help start the dogs with basic obedience and proper canine etiquette.
