Inmate

Sean Bronner, 21, Cory Drive Lenoir City, was charged with Theft of Property, and Contraband in Penal Institution.

According to the report, On this date at approximately 1950 hours, Deputy John Bearden LCSO, received information from another inmate that inmate Sean Bronner, had taken something out of a property tote that was located in booking. The tote belonged to victim. Inmate Bronner was being escorted back to his holding cell along with several other inmates from church through the booking area.

After this Deputy was advised that something had been taken, Deputy Bearden, then went to Deputy Jason Arden to advise him of the situation. Deputy Arden had booked victim and was aware of the contents in the property. Deputy then went through the property and it was determined that a cell phone was missing from the property tote. Once all the other inmates were secured back into their respective blocks, Bearden along with Deputy Arden went to holding cell 2 where Inmate Bronner was being housed to confront him. Inmate Bronner initially denied any knowledge and participation of the action. These Deputies made entry into the holding cell and inmate Bronner immediately handed over the cell phone to this Deputy. After retrieving the cell phone, both Deputies went through the property tote again and it was determined that everything that was listed was in the tote. This did occur in the Loudon County Jail. Deputy John Bearden LCSO, made the arrest.
