Assault

Scott Richie, 46, West 4th Ave Lenoir City, was charged with Aggravated Assault.

According to the report, Officer Tim Buckner LCPD, was dispatched to the area of HWY 321 and Walmart on a male subject driving a white vehicle following a female and her child since Campbell Station Rd. Officer made contact with both vehicles in the area of Walmart. The defendant identified as Scott turned into the KFC parking lot, and the complainant continued to go straight into the parking lot of Walmart. Officer stopped Scott in the Autozone parking lot Scott stated that at first he was coming from Farragut Krogers and had not made any other stops along the way. Officer informed Scott that he seen him in the KFC parking lot, and also ask Scott if he knew the victim he was following Scott stated that he did not know her and then stated that she had honked her horn at him in Farragut because he was slow to pull out from a red light. Scott stated that he became angry and followed the victim. The victim stated she pulled into Bimbo's in an attempt to lose Scott, however he continued to follow the victim until Officer intercepted. Scott stated he wanted to scare her so she would not honk her horn at anyone else. The victim and her child was in fear for their safety. Scott was placed under arrest. Officer Tim Buckner LCPD, made the arrest.

Police beat

Patricia Colicchio, 49, 1st. Ave Lenoir City, was charged with Domestic Assault. Officer Tim Buckner LCPD, was dispatched to 1st Ave and made contact with Patricia who stated she fell and busted her knee earlier in the day, and stated that she needed to be seen by medical. Ems responded and transported her to Emergency Room. Officer Buckner made contact with the victim who stated that he and Patricia had gotten into a verbal argument over keys. Victim stated that he was wanting to go to the ER because of leg pains and Patricia did not want to go with him so she tried to take the keys from the victim during the struggle the key chain broke and caused the victim to fall. Patricia then grabbed a knife and went outside and slashed the right front tire of the only vehicle at the home to keep victim from going to the ER. Restricting the victim from seeking medical attention he was trying to obtain. Patricia was placed under arrest. Officer Tim Buckner LCPD, made the arrest.
