Stop

Casey Holt, 18, Cedar Street, Loudon, was charged with Public Intoxication.

Allison Davis, Arden Street Loudon, was charged with DUI, Violation of Implied Consent, Simple Poss., and Failure to yield.

Deputy Brandon Burley LCSO, after conducting a traffic stop on the vehicle on Highway 11 at Bell Road did identify the occupants of the vehicle as well as smell a very strong odor of marijuana coming from the vehicle. Allison Davis had in the vehicle: a 17 year old, Casey Holt, as well as a 2 year old. Allison Davis did have red/watery bloodshot eyes, slow to speak and was unable to multi-task. As such Deputy did ask Allison Davis to exit the vehicle. Davis did admit to having smoked 3 "blunts" of marijuana in the 45 minutes prior to law enforcement contact as well as Emily Davis stated that Allison Davis and Casey Holt were smoking marijuana while Deputy was behind them. Davis was asked to perform standardized field sobriety tasks, which she did poorly on. As such Allison Davis was placed under arrest for driving under the influence 1st offense and read the Tennessee Implied Consent form. Allison Davis refused to provide a blood sample and signed the form as such. Prior to being placed in Deputy's patrol car, Allison Davis was asked if she had anything illegal in/on her person which she stated "no". Once Deputy arrived at the jail, Deputy did observe a condom in the floorboard beneath Allison Davis' feet which has a green leafy plant like substance in it. Deputy then checked the area immediately around the condom where there was more green leafy plant like substance. After reviewing the video it clearly shows Allison Davis moving the rear of the vehicle as if to retrieve an item and then suddenly stop. Deputy had checked his back seat for contraband at the beginning of shift and Allison Davis and Casey Holt were the only two in the back seat. Deputy Brandon Burley LCSO, made the arrest.
