ty cross the fog line and stay outside the fog line for about one quarter of a mile. Upon activating emergency lights to traffic stop the vehicle, Deputy made contact with the driver Mr. Charles Anthony Sanders.

Deputy Smith did observe Mr. Sanders did have blood shot eyes and appeared to be slow to react to questions but did state he had not been drinking or taking any medication. Deputy did ask Mr. Sanders to perform standardized Field Sobriety Tasks to determine if he was under the influence and he performed satisfactory. Deputy Smith also noticed Mr. Sanders was shaking all over and asked him why he was so nervous. Deputy asked Mr. Sanders if he had anything in his vehicle that was illegal and he stated he had a loaded gun in the black bag on his passenger seat. Deputy Smith did ask Mr. Sanders for consent to search his vehicle and he did give consent to search. Deputy did find a Rugar .357 Revolver loaded with four .357 bullets in a black leather bag on the passenger seat. Deputy Smith also found a purple Crown Royal bag in the passenger seat with three bags containing a green leafy substance believed to be Marijuana, three packs of 1.25 cigarette rolling papers, one red cylindrical pipe and one blue cylindrical pipe, all three commonly used to smoke marijuana. Deputy Smith and L.T. Yokley also found an Altoids container with a metal cylinder commonly used to carry pills, with two light green pills believed to be Oxycodone 15mg, two light brown pills believed to be Oxycodone 40mg, one razor blade and one cut straw. L.T. Yokley also found in the black bag one pill bottle with four light blue pills believed to be Oxycodone 30mg, one brown pill believed to be Oxycodone 40mg, three and 1/4 yellow pills believed to be Alprazolam 2mg and fifteen white pills believed to be Klonopin 2mg. Deputy Brian Smith LCSO, made the arrest.

Police beat

Kenneth Fields, 20, Browder Hollow Road, Lenoir City, was charged with Criminal Impersonation, and Driving on Revoked. On 20 June 2014, Deputy JC Schultz LCSO, observed a maroon Suzuki sidekick travel in front of him on Sugarlimb Rd. The driver of said vehicle was not wearing a safety belt. Deputy fell in behind the vehicle and initiated his emergency equipment, performing a traffic stop at Loudon Ridge Rd. The driver of said vehicle was Mr. Kenneth Justin Fields, whom gave this officer his name in reverse order. Mr. Fields was asked for his license and he stated that he left it at home. Mr. Fields was asked if he had a revoked license and he stated that he did not. A subsequent check through dispatch/NCIC showed a hit out of Arkansas for driving on suspended X 2 and failure to appear for court (no extradition). Dispatch also informed me that Mr. Fields had a suspended Tennessee license and he had given me a fictitious name (due to a license search). Mr. Fields had no proof of insurance and his tag came back to a 2003 red dodge car. Citations were issued for registration, proof of financial responsibility, and safety belt violation. Deputy JC Schultz LCSO, made the arrest.
