Charged

Paul Silvers, 57, Dodson Ave Englewood, was charged with Poss. of Drug Para., Poss. of SCH. VI, Tampering with Evidence, and Unlawful carry or Poss. of a Weapon. On 05-27-2014 at approximately 11:40pm Deputy Jamie Ketner LCSO, observed a white Ford F-150, traveling on Highway 11 without a headlight. Deputy stopped the vehicle at the intersection of Highway 72 and Highway 11.

Deputy made contact with the driver, Paul Charles Silvers. There was a strong odor of marijuana coming from inside the vehicle. Officer Yates arrived on scene and Deputy asked Mr. Silvers where there any weapons in the vehicle he stated yes. Deputy took Mr. Silvers to the front of my patrol car at that time Officer Yates noticed that Mr. Silver was chewing and was trying to swallow marijuana. Mr. Silvers stated that he was choking on the marijuana and stated that it was only a small amount. Mr. Silvers did spit out a small amount of marijuana on the hood of the patrol vehicle. Mr. Silvers also had a loaded 38 special, within his reach, concealed in a crown royal bag in the front passenger seat. Mr. Silvers does not have a carry permit for the weapon. There was also a clear container that had marijuana residue inside of it located in a laundry basket in the front seat. Mr. Silvers also has an Order Of protection out of Knox County. Deputy Ketner, arrested Mr. Silvers for Possession of Schedule VI, Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, Tampering with Evidence and Unlawful Possession of a Firearm. Deputy Jamie Ketner LCSO, made the arrest.

Police beat

Dimas Guerra, 30, Willoway Drive Knoxville, was charged with DUI, Driving on revoked License.

According to the report, On 5/27/14 Deputy Craig Brewer LCSO, responded to I 75 South Bound to a report of a reckless driver. On arrival Deputy was at the 68 Exit South Bound. On setting there Deputy noticed a red Chrysler pass by matching the description of the vehicle reported.

On coming out behind the vehicle Deputy noticed using the brake frequently, swerving onto the shoulder and speeding up erratically. On Deputy activating his emergency equipment it took the driver longer than others to respond and pull over. On approaching the vehicle Deputy found Dimas Guerra to be the driver and only occupant of the vehicle. He had blood shot eyes and was told me he had nothing alcoholic to drink and Deputy could smell the odor of alcoholic beverage coming from his person.

On asking him to exit the vehicle he could not follow simple instructions and his blue jeans where unzipped.

On trying to talk with Dimas on scene he advised he did not speak very good English. On checking his license through NCIC it showed to be suspended in TN.

On arrival at the jail had him read implied consent in Spanish and he agreed to give a breath sample.

The blood alcohol content showed to be .128 on the Intox EC/IR-II.

Deputy Craig Brewer LCSO, made the arrest.

Assault

Micki Vanosdale, 47, Loudon Ridge Road Lenoir City, was charged with Aggravated Assault, Domestic Assault, and Resisting Arrest. On 05/28/2014 at approximately 2222 hours Lt. A.J. Yokley LCSO, was dispatched to Loudon Ridge Road for a physical domestic. Upon arrival Lt. Yokley could hear two people arguing inside the house. Lt. was then met at the door by the victim/complainant. When victim exited the residence his wife Micki Vanosdale was still yelling at him from inside the house. Outside the house victim told me that he had come home from the funeral home and Micki Vanosdale was mad and was yelling at him.

When he went to bed she continued to yell at him. Victim stated that he told her that he was not going to argue with her anymore. Victim told Lt. Yokley that Micki Vanosdale began yelling at her daughter. When he came to the living room and asked Micki Vanosdale to just leave the house. Victim was heading back to his bedroom when his daughter yelled "Dad" at that time he was struck on the left side of his head by Micki Vanosdale. Victim did have a red mark on the left side of his face at eye level.

At this point in the investigation Micki Vanosdale came out of the house to confront the victim. She began to yell at him and LT. told her to go back inside. At this point she slapped at Lt. Yokley striking his flashlight in his left hand. At this point Lt. took Micki Vanosdale into custody. As Lt. tried to place Micki Vanosdale in handcuffs she stiffened her arms in an attempt to keep from being handcuffed. Lt. was able to get her into the patrol car where she was able to slip the handcuffs off her wrists. Deputy Brewer and Deputy Schultz went to place the handcuffs back onto Micki Vanosdale when she again began to resist. She was removed from the car and the handcuffs were reapplied. Micki Vanosdale continued to not comply with instructions and at one point kicked Deputy Brewer after he put her back into Lt. Yokley's patrol car. Micki Vanosdale had a strong odor of alcohol coming from her breath and person. Lt. A.J. Yokley LCSO, made the arrest

man, was charged with Drug Para. Officer Timothy Buckner LCPD, stopped Veronica for registration violation. During the stop Officer Buckner obtained consent from the driver to search the vehicle. Officer Buckner pulled all of the passengers out of the vehicle and directed them to sit on the curb. While doing vehicle search Officer noticed 2 syringes commonly used in drug use fall out of Veronica shirt. Veronica stated she forgot she had them in her shirt. Veronica was placed under arrest. Officer Timothy Buckner LCPD, made the arrest.
