It's Too Important

Are you ever ashamed of being a Christian? I'm not talking about on Sunday morning around your "Church Friends", I'm talking about being in the presence of others with an opportunity (even a conviction) to associate yourself as a follower of Jesus Christ, and being ashamed to do so.

I remember very clearly being with some friends one day several years ago when one of them began to make fun of Jesus, Christians and church in general. He hadn't grown up in a Christian home like I did and had most likely never even heard the gospel at that time. He was making jokes about Jesus and I cringed just hearing it..... but I didn't say a word!

While I didn't laugh at the joke and didn't participate in the blasphemy, I remained silent because I didn't want to be made fun of as well; I was ashamed to be associated with Jesus and Jesus knew it! I was convicted of my pride, my selfishness and the sin in my life that I used as an excuse to remain silent. My friend was lost without Christ and all I could think of was how I would look if I spoke up.

It would be a few years later that I learned of my friend "Dano" accepting Jesus into his heart and life. He became very active within his church family and is now making disciples of Jesus. His decision to follow Christ may have come much sooner had I been the Christian God called me to be back then..... had I not been ashamed. (If you're reading today Dano, I'm still ashamed of being ashamed!) Here is some advice that the Apostle Paul gave to Timothy and it can benefit us as well; 2 Timothy 1:8-12 (NKJV) Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me His prisoner, but share with me in the sufferings for the gospel according to the power of God, who has saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace which was given to us in Christ Jesus before time began, but has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior Jesus Christ, who has abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel, to which I was appointed a preacher, an apostle and a teacher of the Gentiles. For this reason I also suffer these things; nevertheless I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep what I have committed to Him until that day. Jesus puts it very plainly too; Mark 8:38 (NKJV) For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him the Son of Man will be ashamed when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels.

One the most memorable sermons that I have heard Preacher Mark deliver at New Providence was titled, "Camouflage Christians". In his usual dynamic way, Preacher Mark clearly demonstrated how many of us want to have a ticket to heaven but want our lives to blend in with the world around us. The moral of the sermon was that if our Christian lives are hidden or "Camouflaged" to look like the world around us, then we are apparently not too serious
