The Good News

by Jeff Vittatoo

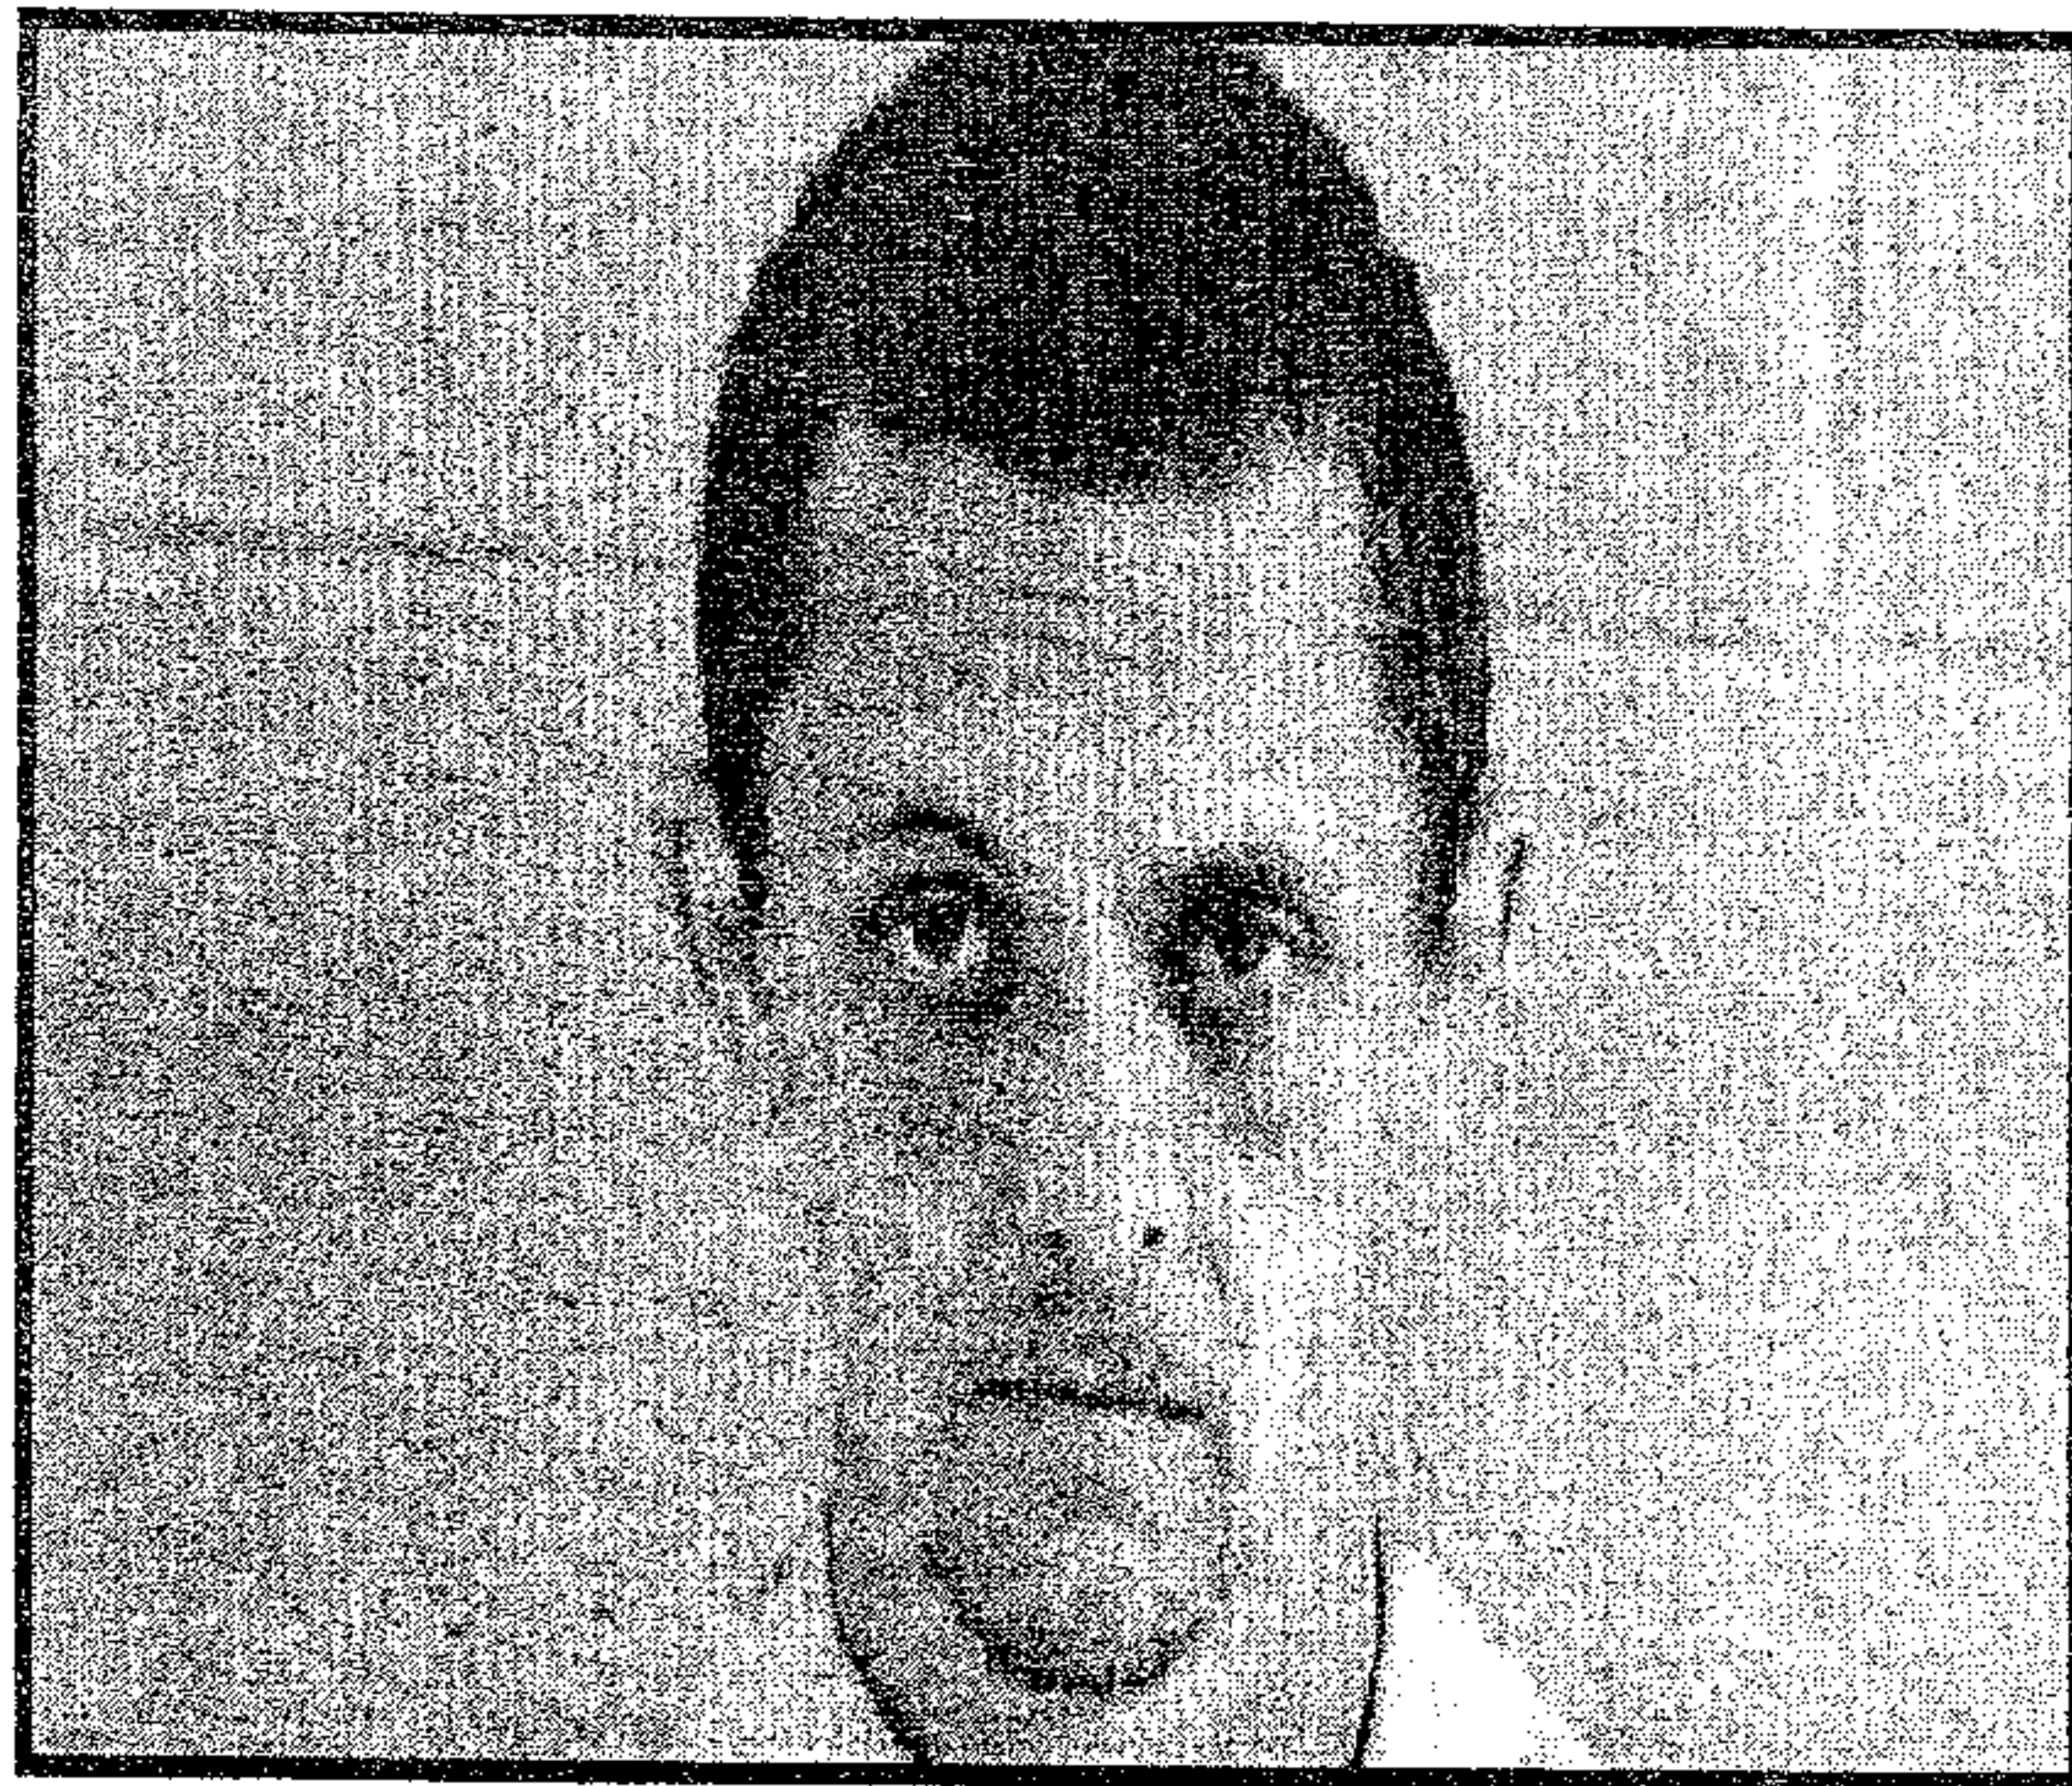

It's Not Suppose To Be All About Me

Today's message is not really designed for someone else's spiritual growth or spiritual evaluation, but more so one of self- confession and repentance for my own spiritual failures. When the Holy Spirit deals with our heart and draws us to the front of the church to kneel before God and repair our broken relationship with Him, we must put our pride aside and follow our hearts back to Jesus. Sharing my faults publicly with you is kind of my way of confessing to God before you that I am nothing without Him and I too am susceptible to drifting when my focus is not on Christ.

In my reading today I found myself in the beginning chapters of the Book of Jeremiah. For those of you who may not know, Jeremiah was a prophet called by God to proclaim the forthcoming judgment of God to the children of Israel who had wandered away from God and placed their focus on the things of the world and upon themselves.

Jeremiah 1:4-8 (NKJV) Then the word of the Lord came to me, saying: "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you; Before you were born I sanctified you; I ordained you a prophet to the nations." Then I said, "Ah, Lord God! Behold, I cannot speak, for I am a youth." But the Lord said to me, "Do not say, 'I am a youth,' For you shall go to all to whom I send you, And whatever I command you, you shall speak. Do not be afraid of their faces, For I am with you to deliver you," says the Lord.

Let me be clear from the beginning; I am not claiming to be a called prophet of God as was Jeremiah. But God did know me before I was formed in the womb. He gave me life and has blessed me beyond measure with more than I deserve. He forgave me for many wasted years and completely changed my life when I was willing to deny myself, take up my cross and follow Him. He has now opened doors for my wife and I to make disciples of Jesus Christ at home in Tennessee as well as here in Montana. He has given us a mission, and right now I feel as though I am failing Him.

Read a little further and hear God's complaint against His people as He gave it to Jeremiah;

Jeremiah 2:1-9 (NKJV) Moreover the word of the Lord came to me, saying, "Go and cry in the hearing of Jerusalem, saying, 'Thus says the Lord; "I remember you, the kindness of your youth, the love of your betrothal, when you went after Me in the wilderness, in a land not sown. Israel was holiness to the Lord, the first fruits of His increase. All that devour him will offend; Disaster will come upon them," says the Lord.

Hear the word of the Lord, O house of Jacob and all the families in the house of Israel. Thus says the Lord; "What injustice have your fathers found in Me, That they have gone far from Me, Have followed idols, And have become idolaters? Neither did they say, 'where is the Lord, Who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, Who led us through the wilderness, Through a land of deserts and pits, Through a land of drought and the shadow of death, Through a land that no one crossed And where no one dwelt?"

I brought you into a bountiful country, to eat its fruits and its goodness. But when you entered, you defiled My land and made My heritage an abomination. The priests did not say, 'where is the Lord?' And those who handle the law did not know Me; The rulers also transgressed against Me; The prophets prophesied by Baal, And walked after things that do not profit. Therefore I will yet bring charges against you," says the Lord, "And against your children's children I will bring charges."

After reading this passage today (and even before) I found myself guilty of trying to do things "For God" but not really looking to God to show me where and how I am to honor Him with my life. I was happy that God brought us here to serve but quickly began serving without seeking. How could God use me if I was not seeking His direction but trusting in myself? Am I idolizing the mission and neglecting the Creator and sustainer of the universe? Am I busy talking about serving God but not talking with God? Am I just realizing that there is a difference? As Paul put it in Romans 7,

"Oh wretched man that I am!!! Who will deliver me from this body of death? I thank God - through Jesus Christ our Lord."

I was then reminded of the God we serve when I ventured into the next chapter of Jeremiah;

Jeremiah 3:12-13 (NKJV) Go and proclaim these words towards the North, and say; 'Return, backsliding Israel,' says the Lord; 'I will not cause My anger to fall on you. For I am merciful,' says the Lord; 'I will not remain angry forever. Only acknowledge your iniquity, That you have transgressed against the Lord your God, and have scattered your charms to alien deities under every green tree, and have not obeyed My voice,' says the Lord.

The lesson I took away from Jeremiah today, and maybe you can as well, is that God knows us better than we know ourselves and all He wants is for us to keep our eyes on Him. He is worthy of that and will reward us for doing so both now and forever. My commitment to God today is to stop trying to look like a follower of Jesus and to become one. Keep my family in your prayers as we seek to honor and acknowledge God in everything we do. Thanks for reading.
