Jeremi Smith, 26, Vonore Road Loudon, was charged with DUI, Driving on revoked license, and Violation of implied Consent.

On 7/18/2014, Deputy Randy Lovelace LCSO, was dispatched to Highway 72 and Vonore Road to a truck stuck in a ditch. On arrival there was a white truck attempting to pull a gold Mazda truck from the ditch. After making contact with subject, Deputy asked him for his driver's license and he advised he did not have one. He advised his name to be Jeremi Smith. Deputy noticed that Mr. Smith had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person and was unsteady on his feet. After a check of Mr. Smith thru NCIC, dispatch advised me he was revoked for driving under the influence. Mr. Smith did state that he was driving the vehicle and the keys to the vehicle were found in Mr. Smith's front left pocket. Mr. Smith was then placed under arrest for Driving on a Revoked License and was transported to Loudon County jail, due to the weather conditions.

At the Loudon County Jail Corporal Rondel M. Branam did ask Mr. Smith if he would perform field sobriety and he refused. Corporal Branam also read the Tennessee Implied Consent Advisement to Mr. Smith and refused to submit to a breath test. Due to the totality of the circumstances Mr. Smith was also charged with

Piney flats man sentenced to serve 14 months for counterfeit postage scheme

On July 21, 2014, Jason Matthew Smalling, 34, of Piney Flats, Tenn., was sentenced by the Honorable J. Ronnie Greer, U.S. District Court Judge, to serve 14 months in federal prison.

Upon his release from prison, Smalling was ordered to serve three years of supervised release. He was also ordered to pay $330,000 in restitution to the U.S. Postal Service and pay a fine of $5,000.

Smalling pleaded guilty in October 2013 to an information charging him with devising a scheme to defraud the U.S. Postal Service through the creation of counterfeit postage mailing labels. Smalling operated a business from his residence in Piney Flats, Tenn., called Value Decals. Value Decals created and sold vinyl decals, some being generic graphics and images and others being unlicensed reproductions of trademarked logos of professional sports teams including Major League Baseball, National Football League, National Basketball League, and National Hockey League teams. Value Decals obtained orders for vinyl decals through its website, valuedecals.com, as well as Amazon.com. In addition to paying for the decals, customers were also charged for the costs of shipping the orders through the U.S. Mail. The orders were shipped to the customers by U.S. Postal Service Priority Mail.

Beginning in approximately August 2011, Smalling created counterfeit postage labeling for parcels being mailed by Value Decals. Using computer software, he reproduced information-based indicia from postage obtained through Stamps.com, manipulating the addressee information but using the same bar-coded information from the original postage. This allowed him to mail the packages without paying for postage.

In addition to using the counterfeit postage to mail the parcels to Value Decal's customers, Smalling continued to collect money from his customers for the costs of mailing as well as reproducing unlicensed trademarked team logos. As a result of the scheme, he defrauded both the U.S. Postal Service for payments of postage and customers of Value Decals for payments for postage.

The case was investigated by the U.S. Postal Inspection Service. Assistant U.S. Attorney Neil Smith represented the United States.
