A Prayer for God's People

Our most gracious, and our sins. Knowing kind and loving heavenly Father; God you are my strength and my shield. You know all things concerning me and those reading today. You know our innermost thoughts, our fears, our weaknesses and our sins. Knowing how imperfect and sinful that each of us are before you today, you still chose to allow us one more day on this earth. You filled our lungs with air and allowed our hearts to confess our weaknesses

I praise Your name today and acknowledge that all good things come from You. I thank You for loving us so much that You sent Your only Son to pay the ransom for our sins, making a way for us to have a relationship with You.

I thank You for the lessons I am learning through this time of prayer, fasting and the study of Your word. I thank You for using men like Henry Blackaby to teach us how to experience a relationship with You and for Your patience with us as we so often lose focus and wander from You.

I pray that You will search me from the inside out and reveal to me any and all ways that I am failing You. Have mercy on me and cleanse me with the blood of Your Son Jesus Christ that I might be useful to You. Forgive me for being selfish and lazy and for not keeping my eyes on You each day.

There are so many lost people around me every day that desperately need You. I want to be a vessel that is ready and willing to serve You wherever, whenever and however You choose. My prayer is that the people of Montana will see

Your presence in my life and give glory to You through it. I pray that You will speak to those in Tennessee who have taken a moment to read these words. Speak to them as only You can and draw them closer to You. May we be reminded that we are not promised tomorrow and that we all have lost people in our lives. Lord that we may see the importance of the Great Commission and focus our lives accordingly. Father I pray that You will stir our hearts and start a revival that begins within each of us and reaches to the ends of the

Lord, teach us what it means to really and truly deny ourselves, take up our cross and follow You. Show us what You want to accomplish in and through our lives. Give us strength to face the evil that confronts us each day and be glorified by the words that proceed from our lips concerning You.

I surrender every aspect of my life to You and ask You to mold me like clay into Your likeness in the name of our Lord and our Savior Jesus Christ, Amen
