Walking with God

As I mentioned a couple of weeks ago, Angie and I have committed the month of August to intentionally seeking a closer and more dedicated relationship with God.

We have spent many hours in a book study learning how to better experience God in every aspect of our lives. We have been listening to audio sermons from our home church in TN, listening to an audio version of the

to the preached word of God, sharing our experiences with others, reading from God's word and speaking to God in prayer.

Our perspective on walking with Christ, detecting His presence in our study time, our prayer life, through our church family, our friends and even our circumstances is being transformed before our eyes! We are experiencing a spiritual freedom and overwhelming peace concerning God's desire to include us in His daily plans among believers and the lost.

I hope to share numerous messages in the coming weeks to demonstrate some of the things that Jesus is showing us during this time, but today I am asking for you to pray for us.

We are 2000 miles from anyone who reads these words but confident that God has, at some point, spoken to one or two folks who scan this article from time to time. If this is the case for you, will you now take a moment to pray for my wife and I in the following ways?

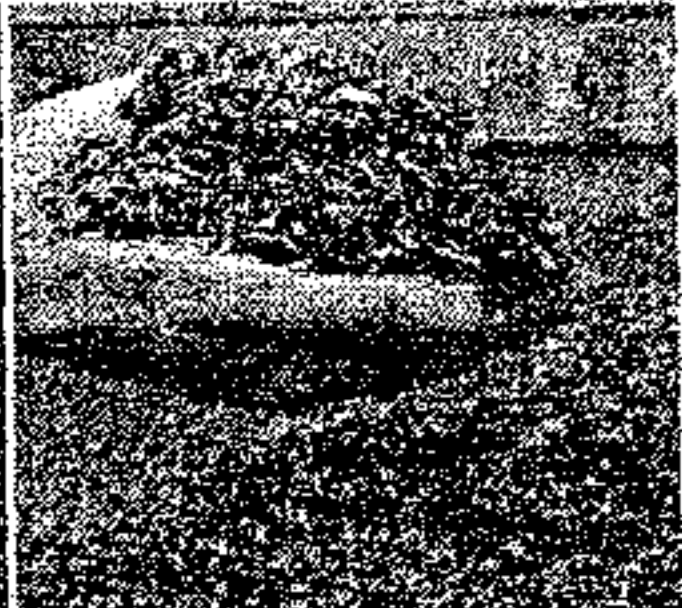

1. Pray that God will prepare our hearts for the work He has in store for us in this place.
2. Pray that Angie and I will be observant to the work that God is already doing around us.
3. Pray that we will always respond to God's invitation to join Him in His work.
4. Pray that our focus always remains on The Lord, and not just the Lord's work.

One final request: If you choose to pray for us this week, would you take one more moment and tell us that you did? What you pray is between you and God and we don't need to know your prayers. We would just love to know that you were willing to join us in prayer as we seek God and seek to be faithful in what He calls us to do.

Feel free to shoot a quick email that simply says, "Praying for you" at either jeff@tgnmissions.com or angie@tgnmissions.com. You could also call or text (865)-304-6779 or send Angie a Facebook message if you're a "Facebooker". We thank you for your prayers and can't wait to share how God chooses to include us in His plan in the days ahead.
