Rarity Bay

Saturday night was a great night to be at Rarity Bay Country Club. The group "The Sock Hops" was performing for those who were lucky enough to garner a ticket to the event. The evening began with an elegant meal complete with hawaiian chicken and an exemplary peach cobbler.

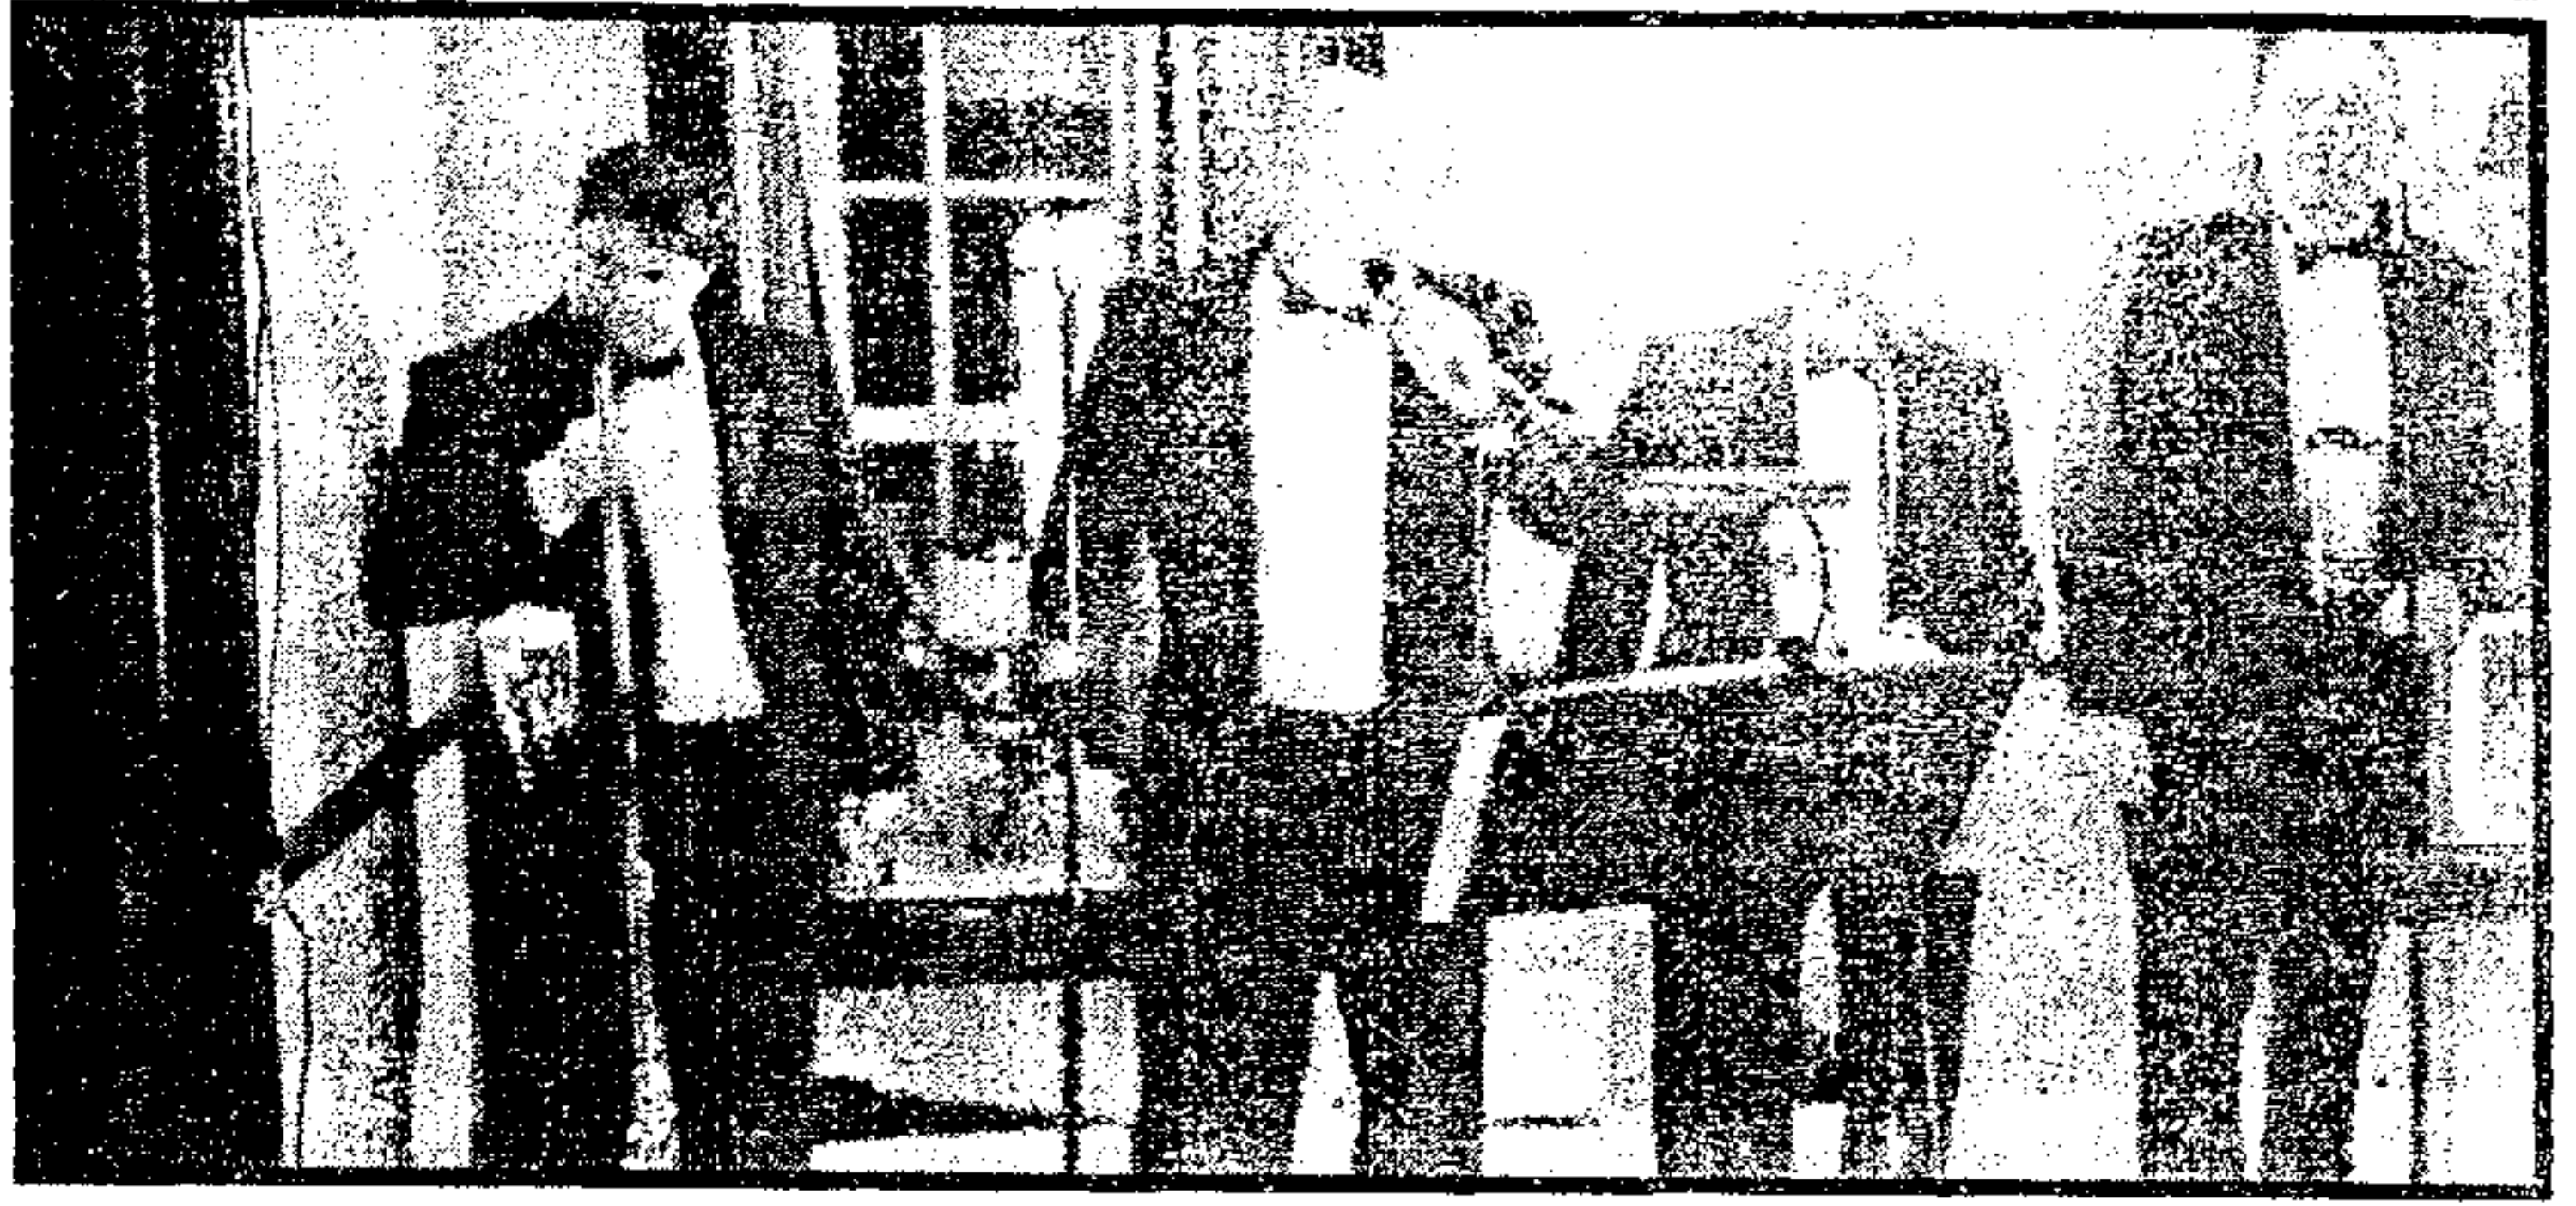

Tables filled with poodle skirts and high school sweaters and the band came in. With the first note of the first song, it took you back to when music was REAL! Words you could understand, a rhythm you could feel and it still lives today. The Sock Hops are truly Amazing performers and if you get the opportunity check them out.

The Sock Hops lead singer Courtney Oliver attended Fulton in Knoxville and is the brother in law of Loudon County's own David Twiggs. David is working with CASA of the 9th Judicial District (the best district in TN) and the group will be in attendance at a fund raiser this weekend for CASA and you can get more info at 865-717-4186.

A great time was had by all for sure and the great folks I had the opportunity to meet were definitely the kind of people I'd like to hang out with again. Evelyn, Max, Benny, Tommy, Sandra and Jo thanks for making my first visit to Rarity Bay and Awesome Time!!!

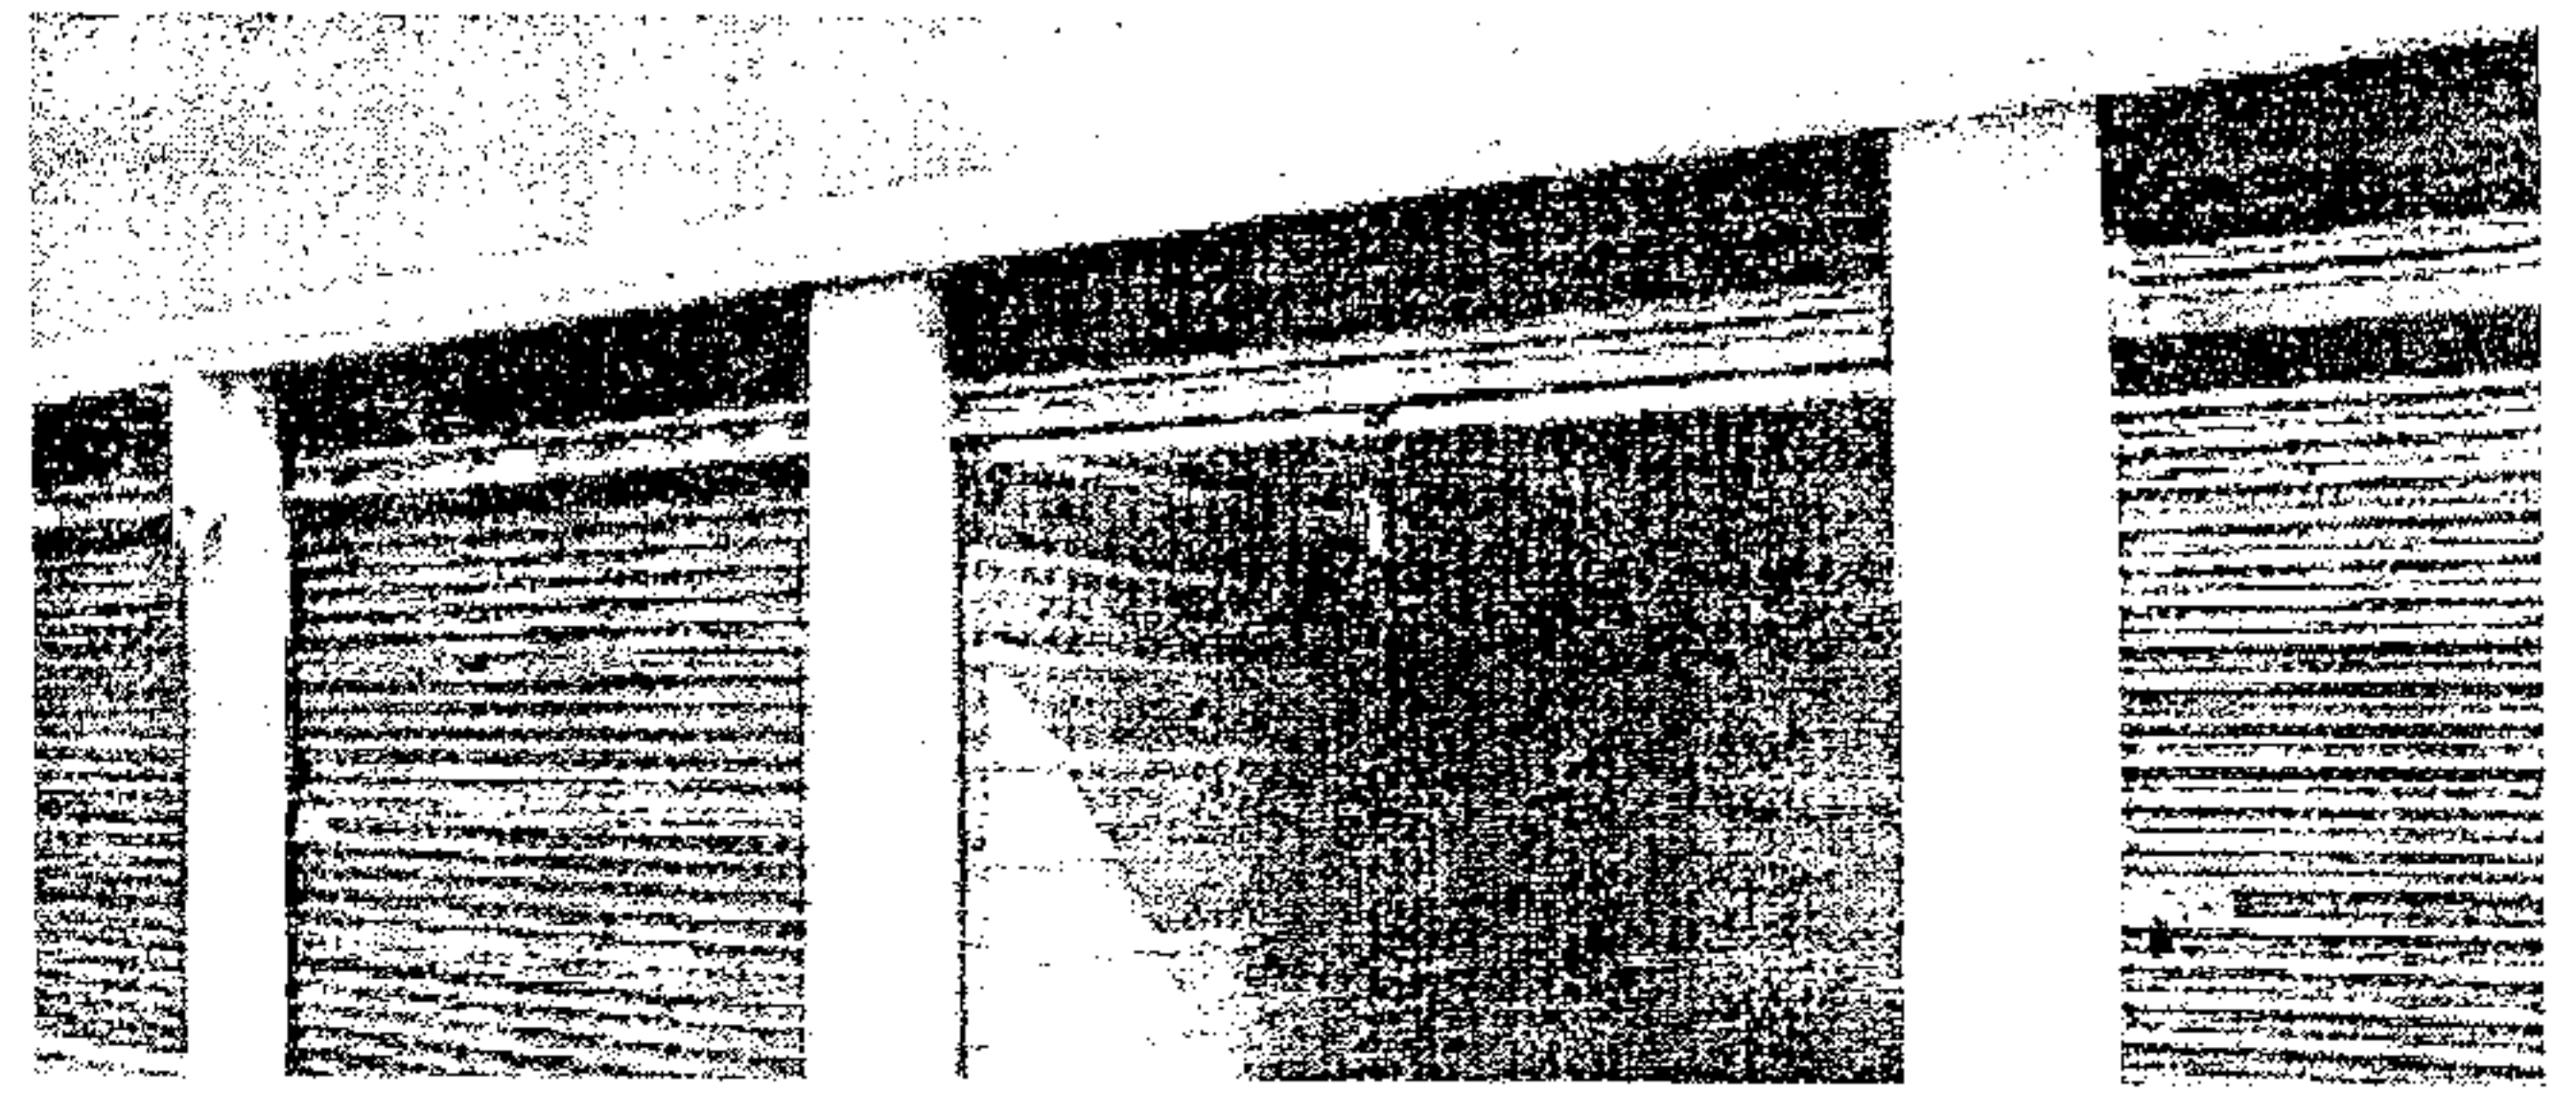

Dancing the night away with a great Poodle Skirt for sure!
