Eyewitness Testimony

As many of you know, I have worked in law enforcement for many years. One of the duties associated with my career is to occasionally testify in court. I have testified in general sessions court, criminal court, civil court, federal court and in various other hearings. I was once recognized by the honorable and late William "Judge" Russell as an expert witness regarding methamphetamine labs and meth related investigations.

When someone is called upon to testify in any proceeding, the purpose (see TGN pg. 3)

Glen Spoon, 41, La Christa Way Knoxville, was charged with Aggravated Assault, and Contributing to the Delinquency of a minor.

According to the report, Glen Spoon took his juvenile son to Sharp Drive to where the victim was. Glenn blocked the victim and witness vehicle in and Glen exited his vehicle with a chain in hand threatening the victim and witness.

Glen's juvenile son approached the victim and Glen told his juvenile son to hit the victim. Glen's son hit the victim and a scuffle ensued.

When the victim juvenile was on top of Glen son Glen did kick the victim in the face and broke the victim tooth. Investigator Jack Fine LCPD, issued warrant for Glen.

of the testimony is to share one's firsthand knowledge of an event in hopes of convincing others (the judge or a jury of one's peers) of a fact that we believe to be true and accurate.

Each time someone approaches the witness stand to testify they are asked a question similar to this: "Do you swear, or affirm, that the testimony you are about to give will be the truth, the whole and nothing but the truth, so help you God?"

The witness is asked to make a declaration, as God as their witness, that what they are going to say is not fabricated, not embellished, not exaggerated; but the absolute truth. If the witness is deemed "Credible" by those he or she is trying to persuade, then the weight of their testimony could have life changing consequences for the person they are testifying about.

So why is courtroom testimony being discussed within a Christian article? What does this have to do with Jesus? I was hoping you would ask yourself that question. Acts 1:8-9 is the reason.

"But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth. Now when He had spoken these things, while they watched, He was taken up, and a cloud received Him out of their sight." The last thing Jesus told His disciples, which now includes every believer, was to be a witness to those around them in the city they were currently in, to the surrounding country side, to other nations and ultimately to the entire world.

Jesus' disciples were faithful to that command and as a result, I had the gospel shared with me and made the decision to accept Jesus as my Savior. Their "eyewitness testimony" traveled from Jerusalem over two thousand years ago, and somehow eventually landed between my ears in East Tennessee on the night of November 17, 1987. Through the drawing and the power of the Holy Spirit, I deemed their testimony credible and made a decision that has forever changed my life.

How credible and believable is your testimony for Christ today? If you claim to be a Christian, who have you "witnessed" to lately? Have you shared the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth about the saving power of Jesus Christ with any lost person around you recently? If you were to do so, how would

Robber

Randy Woods, 32, Pathkiller Trail Loudon, was charged with Domestic Assault and Robbery. Randy did go to the Family Dollar on Mulberry St., Randy did approach the clerk and demanded that she give him all the money as he was screaming and yelling at the clerk. Randy violent actions placed the clerk in fear. Randy intentionally and knowingly took approximately $193.00 from the register and fled the store. The clerk was able to give law enforcement a very detailed description of the person and within an hour of the incident was able to positively identify a photo of Randy being the one who robbed her. During a search at Randy residence Officer found $166.00 in cash hidden in a hat box which Randy live in girlfriend stated the money was not there earlier in the day. Detective Brian Jenkins LPD, issued the warrants. Deputy Olwin Norman LCSO, served the warrant at the Loudon Co. Jail.

your testimony be perceived?

I, of course, was not there on the day that Jesus gave this directive. I cannot say that I was an eyewitness to Jesus healing the sick, raising the dead, giving sight to the blind, giving His life on the cross of Calvary, being raised from the dead or ascending to heaven. But I most certainly am an eyewitness to what Jesus has done in my life. I have felt His presence in my life and I have been guided by the Holy Spirit to participate in the things God is doing around me. I have seen lives changed, people come to a saving faith in Jesus and have been spoken to through the word of God. I know that it's true and I know that Jesus matters. I am convinced that my eternal destination will be in heaven with Jesus and I am 100% confident that yours can be as well. Here is another question for you: Am I a credible witness in your eyes? Do you believe me when I say that Jesus loves you and wants to have a true and powerful relationship with you? I have shared with you the truth and why I believe it to be the truth. Every week for over five years Angie and I have opened our lives to the world in hopes that some might believe the gospel of Jesus Christ to be true and act upon that truth. We believe that revival begins within our own hearts and lives and we believe that now is the time for Christians to stand up and act like Christians. The world is crumbling all around us and Christ's return is surely approaching. Are you ready for that day? Is there anyone around you who is not? We must be the witnesses that Jesus called us to be while we still have the opportunity.

Today you can be the judge, and you can be the jury. Is it real? Is it true? Do you believe these words to be credible? If you do, what impact will that truth have on your life today? What kind of witness will you be for Jesus? Jesus said in John 14:6, "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life. No one comes to the Father except through Me". The defense of the truth concerning Jesus Christ rests. Your witness!!!
