Former TVA and LCPD Officer suspect in Roane shooting

Former Lenoir City police officer Alex Gambrill, who allegedly shot his wife multiple times in the chest and then staged a four-hour standoff with authorities Saturday had good work record with the police department and left for personal reasons.

Alex Gambrill, age unavailable, has been charged with two counts of aggravated assault, officials said.

Roane County Sheriff

Jack Stockton on Sunday said no bond has been set for Gambrill because he hasn't been arraigned yet.

Jenny Gambrill was listed in stable condition Sunday at the University of Tennessee Medical Center, where she was taken after Saturday's shooting, and her condition is expected to improve over the next few days, the sheriff said.

Stockton said alleged

Shooting

Detective Greg Scaff was interviewing Alex Gambrell on Sunday.

The sheriff said he's confident evidence will show Alex Gambrell was the shooter.

Alex Gambrell surrendered to authorities about 7 p.m. Saturday outside the residence at 142 Bridges Lane, east of Harriman, according to Stockton.

Authorities were called to the scene about 2:30 p.m. on the report of a woman who had been shot.

The sheriff said that according to Alex Gambrell's father, Alex Gambrell rendered first aid to his ex-wife before rescue personnel arrived on the scene.

The suspect's father also reported his son told him someone fired on him before he fired. The sheriff said on Sunday he wasn't aware of evidence that someone else fired a weapon.

Stockton said Saturday's standoff was difficult because Alex Gambrell is a former police officer and understood the tactics deputies were using in dealing with him.

DUI

Holly Collins, 24, Grimes Road Loudon, was charged with DUI. Deputy Chris Hutchens, observed a vehicle traveling on Pond Creek toward Hwy 11. The vehicle was traveling behind another vehicle and was so close to the lead vehicle that Deputy only observed the vehicle when it swerved from side to side and its headlight became visible. Deputy turned around and followed the vehicle and observed it weave within its lane and also outside of its lane. The vehicle failed to stop at a stop sign at pond Creek. Deputy initiated a traffic stop in front of Philadelphia Post Office. Deputy approached the vehicle and identified the driver as Holly Collins who had a strong odor of alcoholic beverage emitting from her person, and stated to Deputy she had consumed alcohol this evening. Holly performed poorly of sobriety test and was placed under arrest. Deputy Chris Hutchens LCSO, made the arrest.

TWRA Mtg set for Thursday

Jim Bledsoe will lead his first meeting as chairman of the Tennessee Fish and Wildlife Commission when it convenes on March 26 at the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency's Ray Bell Region II Building.

The March meeting will be held on one day. The meeting starts at 9 a.m. and the public is invited to attend.

Commissioner Bledsoe moves into the position after serving as vice chairman. The Jamestown resident replaces Jeff Griggs as the commission chairman. Harold Cannon of Lenoir City is the new vice chairman and Jamie Woodson of Lebanon was elected secretary.

Gabe Keen will be a guest that will be introduced to the commission. He will be recognized for catching the new state record for a largemouth bass of 15 pounds, 3 ounces that came at Chickamauga Lake on Feb. 13.

A June 2014 flood caused damage to the gates which forced their removal at TWRA's Carroll Lake in West Tennessee. The lake has remained completely drained. Several options are available for the lake's future. TWRA Region I Manager Alan Peterson will present an update of the options to the commission.

The sheriff said Scalf communicated with Alex Gambrell by cell phone for two hours Saturday before a couple of other officers came to the scene who knew him and he asked for one to come up to the house and they started talking.

The sheriff said the Gambrells were divorced and there was an issue about a text message between Alex Gambrell and his ex-wife's boyfriend.

The sheriff said that after the shooting, the boyfriend, who was unarmed, ran down the road and waited for deputies.

Stockton said authorities have been called to the address in the past.

Lenoir City Police Chief Don White said he didn't have documentation with him Sunday as far as dates of employment, but he hired Alex Gambrell as a patrol officer after he was laid off from the Tennessee Valley Authority police department.

"He was a good employee for us and resigned due to personal reasons," the chief said. "He had no disciplinary problems with us."
