Shooter

A. Varlan.

According to facts outlined in his plea agreement on file with the U.S. District Court, Thompson admitted to having committed a total of 13 robberies between March 2009 and October 2014. Notably, during every robbery he committed, Thompson either brandished a real firearm or an object that appeared to be a real firearm and, during the November 2009 robbery of a Hardee's restaurant, Thompson shot a victim employee in the chest before fleeing with money from the restaurant.

Specifically, Thompson robbed the following locations on the following dates: (1) on Mar. 2, 2009, Thompson robbed the Sports Seasons, located on Kingston Pike in Knoxville; (2) on Sept. 14, 2009, Thompson robbed the Kentucky Fried Chicken restaurant, located on North Cedar Bluff Road in Knoxville; (3) on Oct. 9, 2009, Thompson robbed the Chuck-E-Cheese restaurant, located on Kingston Pike, in Knoxville; (4) on Nov. 9, 2009, Thompson robbed the Pizza Hut restaurant, located on Kingston Pike, in Knoxville; (5) on Nov. 10, 2009, Thompson robbed the Hardee's restaurant, located on Western Avenue, in Knoxville; (6) on Feb. 14, 2010, Thompson robbed the Captain D's restaurant, located on Merchants Drive, in Knoxville; (7) on Jul. 21, 2010, Thompson robbed the Hardee's restaurant, located on Chapman Highway, in Knoxville; (8) on Aug. 5, 2010, Thompson robbed the Kentucky Fried Chicken restaurant, located on North Broadway, in Knoxville; (9) on Oct. 17, 2010, Thompson robbed the Pizza Hut restaurant, located on Cedar Lane, in Knoxville; (10) on May 16, 2013, Thompson robbed the Wendy's restaurant, located on Kingston Pike, in Knoxville; (11) on Sept. 3, 2013, Thompson robbed the Wendy's restaurant, located on North Broadway, in Knoxville; (12) on Aug. 11, 2014, Thompson robbed the Petro's Chili & Chips restaurant, located on Kingston Pike, in Knoxville; and (13) on Oct. 25, 2014, Thompson robbed

Obituaries

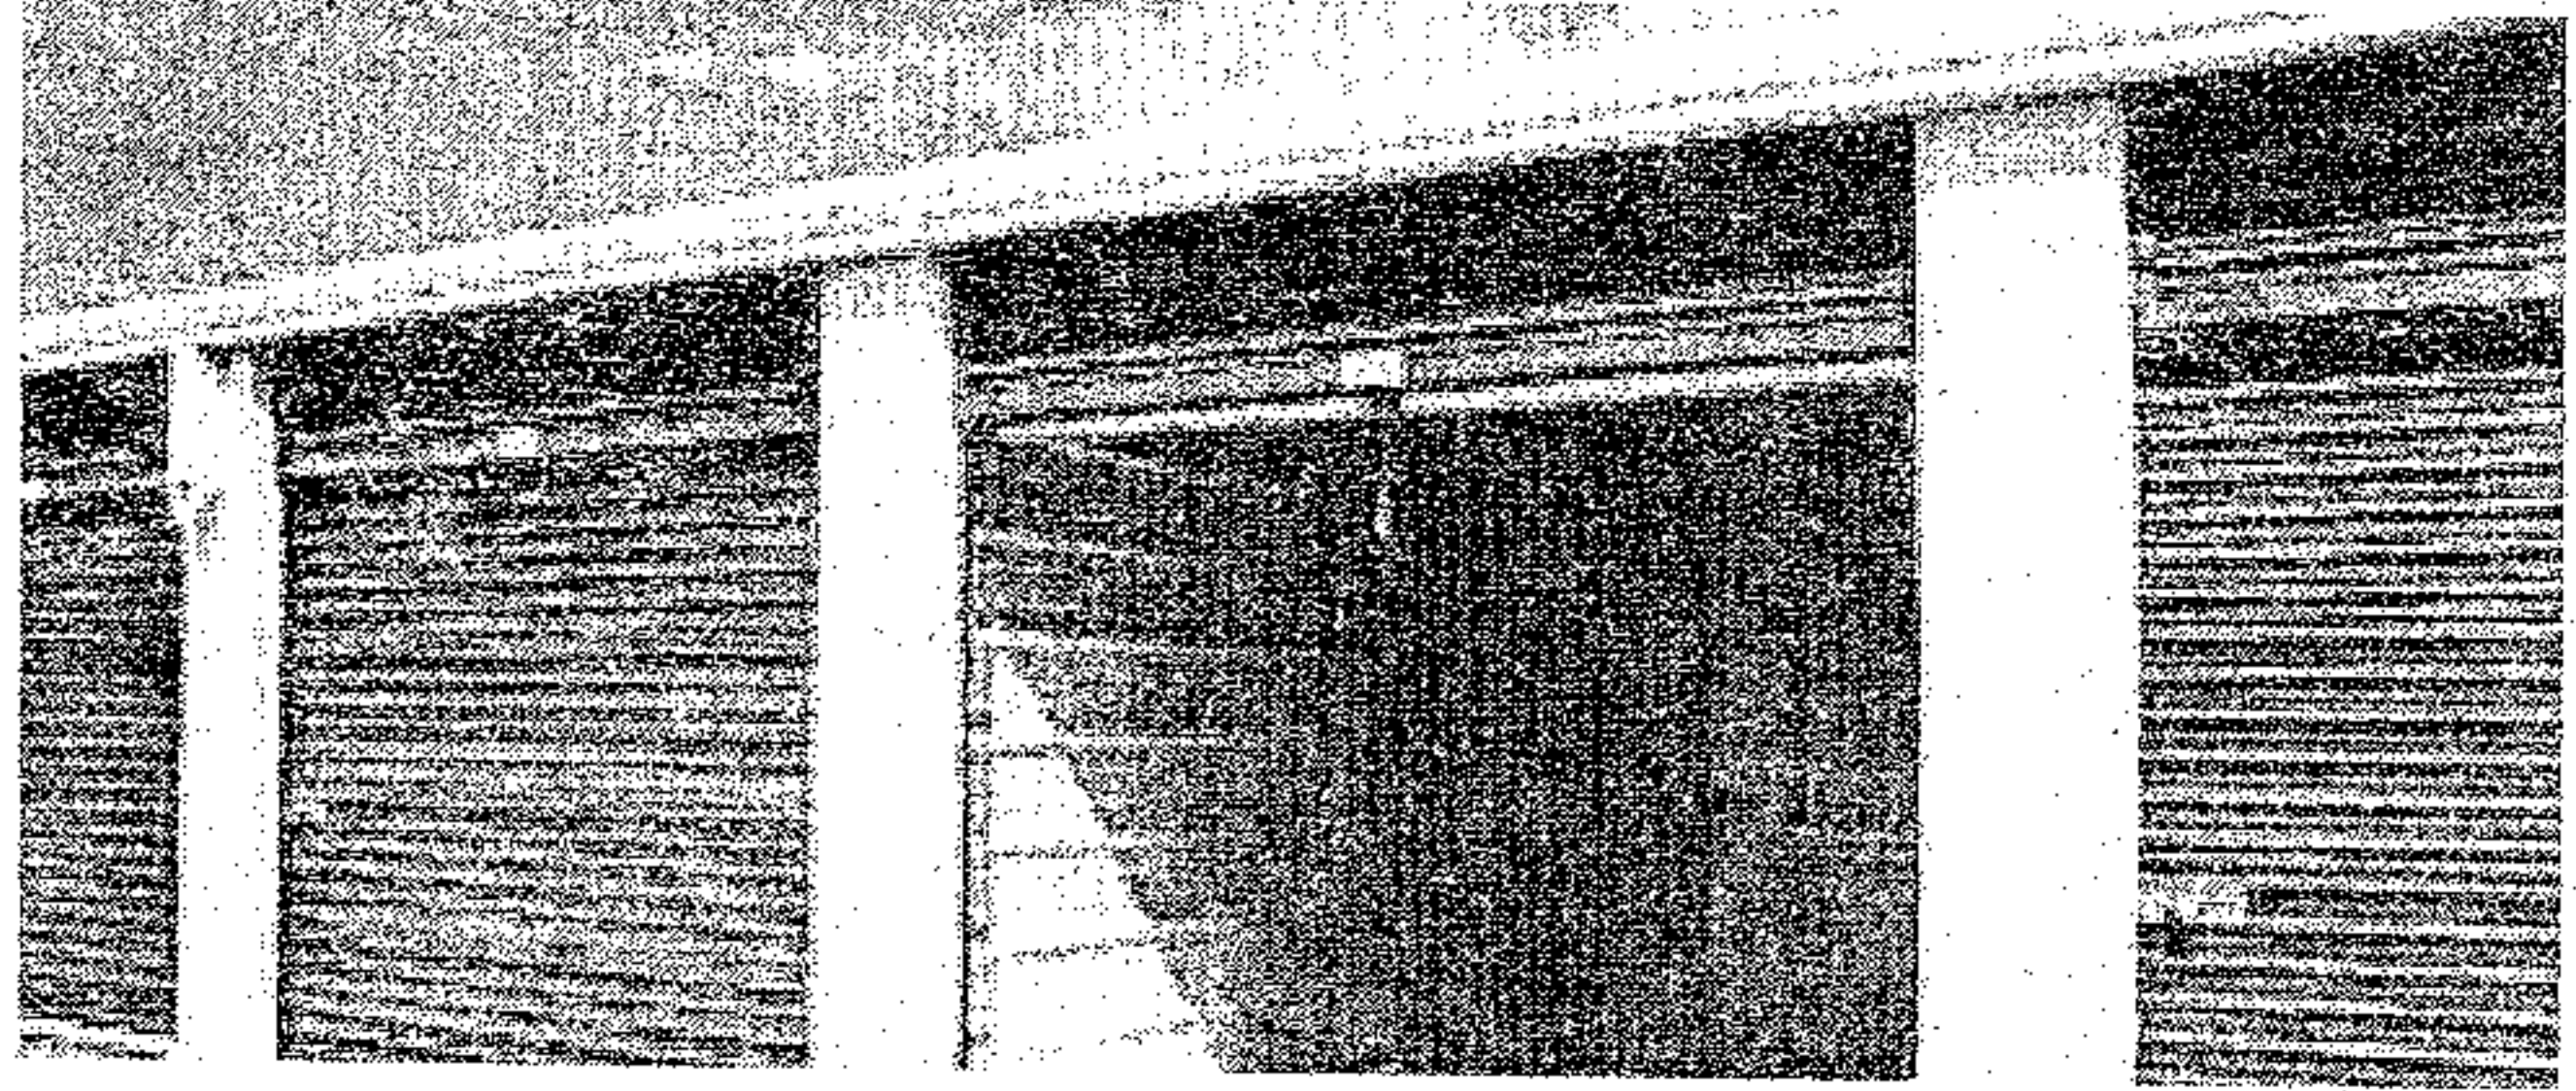

Thomas Redden Colladay, 77, of Loudon, Tennessee (formerly of Big Rapids, Michigan) went to be with his heavenly Father on March 2, 2015 after a brief stay at the Tennova Residential Hospice in Knoxville, Tennessee. Tom was born on November 28, 1937 in Flint, Michigan. He was the only child of Jack B. Colladay and Edythe M. (Redden) Colladay. Tom graduated from Flint Central High School. He continued his education by completing both a Bachelor of Science Degree and a Master of Science Degree at the University of Michigan. He went on to earn his Ph.D from Indiana University in 1976. In 1966, Tom was hired to work at Ferris State College (now Ferris State University) in Big Rapids, Michigan. He started out in the Biology Department and eventually became a full professor. In 1977 he moved over to the Michigan College Optometry where he served as a professor and eventually as the Associate Dean of Student Academic Affairs. He retired from Ferris in 2003. On April 9, 1988, Tom was married to Jennifer (Wilton) Fitch. They made their home in Big Rapids for many years before relocating to Loudon, Tennessee. Tom was a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society. He was a member of St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Big Rapids for several years and served on their Board of Education. More recently, Tom was a member of the Community Church of Tellico Village in Loudon. Tom was an excellent golfer and a skilled sailor.

He loved to read and to listen to music. Traveling was a life-long passion, as were summers spent at the family cottage on Higgins Lake. Tom deeply valued his family and friends. He taught his children and grandchildren to appreciate humor, charity, faith, and education. Left to honor his memory are his two daughters, Laura (Bob) Mancini of Saginaw, MI and Sarah (Chad) Montgomery of Petoskey, MI, his step-daughter, Nicolle (Rick) Tanguay of the Subway restaurant, located on North Cedar Bluff Road in Knoxville.

U.S. Attorney William C. Killian said, "This individual thought he had avoided detection of committing many serious violent crimes over the course of about five years, but the members of the FBI's Safe Streets Task Force were determined to solve these cases and bring Thompson to justice. I commend their perseverance and dedication."

FBI Special Agent in Charge, Knoxville Division, Edward Reinhold stated, "As this five year investigation demonstrates, memories will not fade and freedom is temporary for those who place our community in danger. The Knoxville Police Department and the Knox County Sheriff's Office devote resources to the Safe Streets Task Force, acting as a force multiplier. The FBI will continue to pool resources and work jointly with city, county, and state law enforcement to ensure that violent crime does not go unchecked in East Tennessee."

This case was the result of an investigation by the FBI Safe Streets Task Force, which consists of FBI Special Agents, Knox County Sheriff's Deputies, and Knoxville Police Department Officers. Assistant U.S. Attorney Kelly A. Norris represented the United States.
