I was driving across the Flathead Indian Reservation today soaking up the New Testament on audio CD. I was listening to the Book of Galatians and how the Apostle Paul was describing two types of people in the world based upon how they live their lives. The first was a description of the kind of person who does not know Christ and is at great risk of spending eternity separated from Jesus. The second description is that of someone who has truly surrendered their life to Christ and their actions clearly reflect their relationship with the Savior.

I ask you today to look at every descriptor within both examples and consider which one best describes your life right now. If you discover that the first example describes your life better than the second, then I suggest you consider evaluating your relationship with Christ while there is time. Maybe your name is not written in the Book of Life, or maybe you have wandered from God (As I did for many years) and need to recommit your life to honoring God and spending time with Jesus.

Galatians 5:19-26 (NKJV) Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lewdness, idolatry, sorcery, hatred, contentions, jealousies, outburst of wrath, selfish ambitions, dissensions, rev- elries, and the like; of which I tell you beforehand, just as I also told you in times past, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long suf- fering, kindness, gentleness and self control. Against such there is no law. And those who are Christ's have crucified the flesh with its passions and de- sires. If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, envy- ing one another.

Jesus said in Matthew Chap- ter 7 that "You will know them by their fruits". He also said the trees which do not produce fruit are cut down and thrown into the fire. Don't get thrown into the fire!

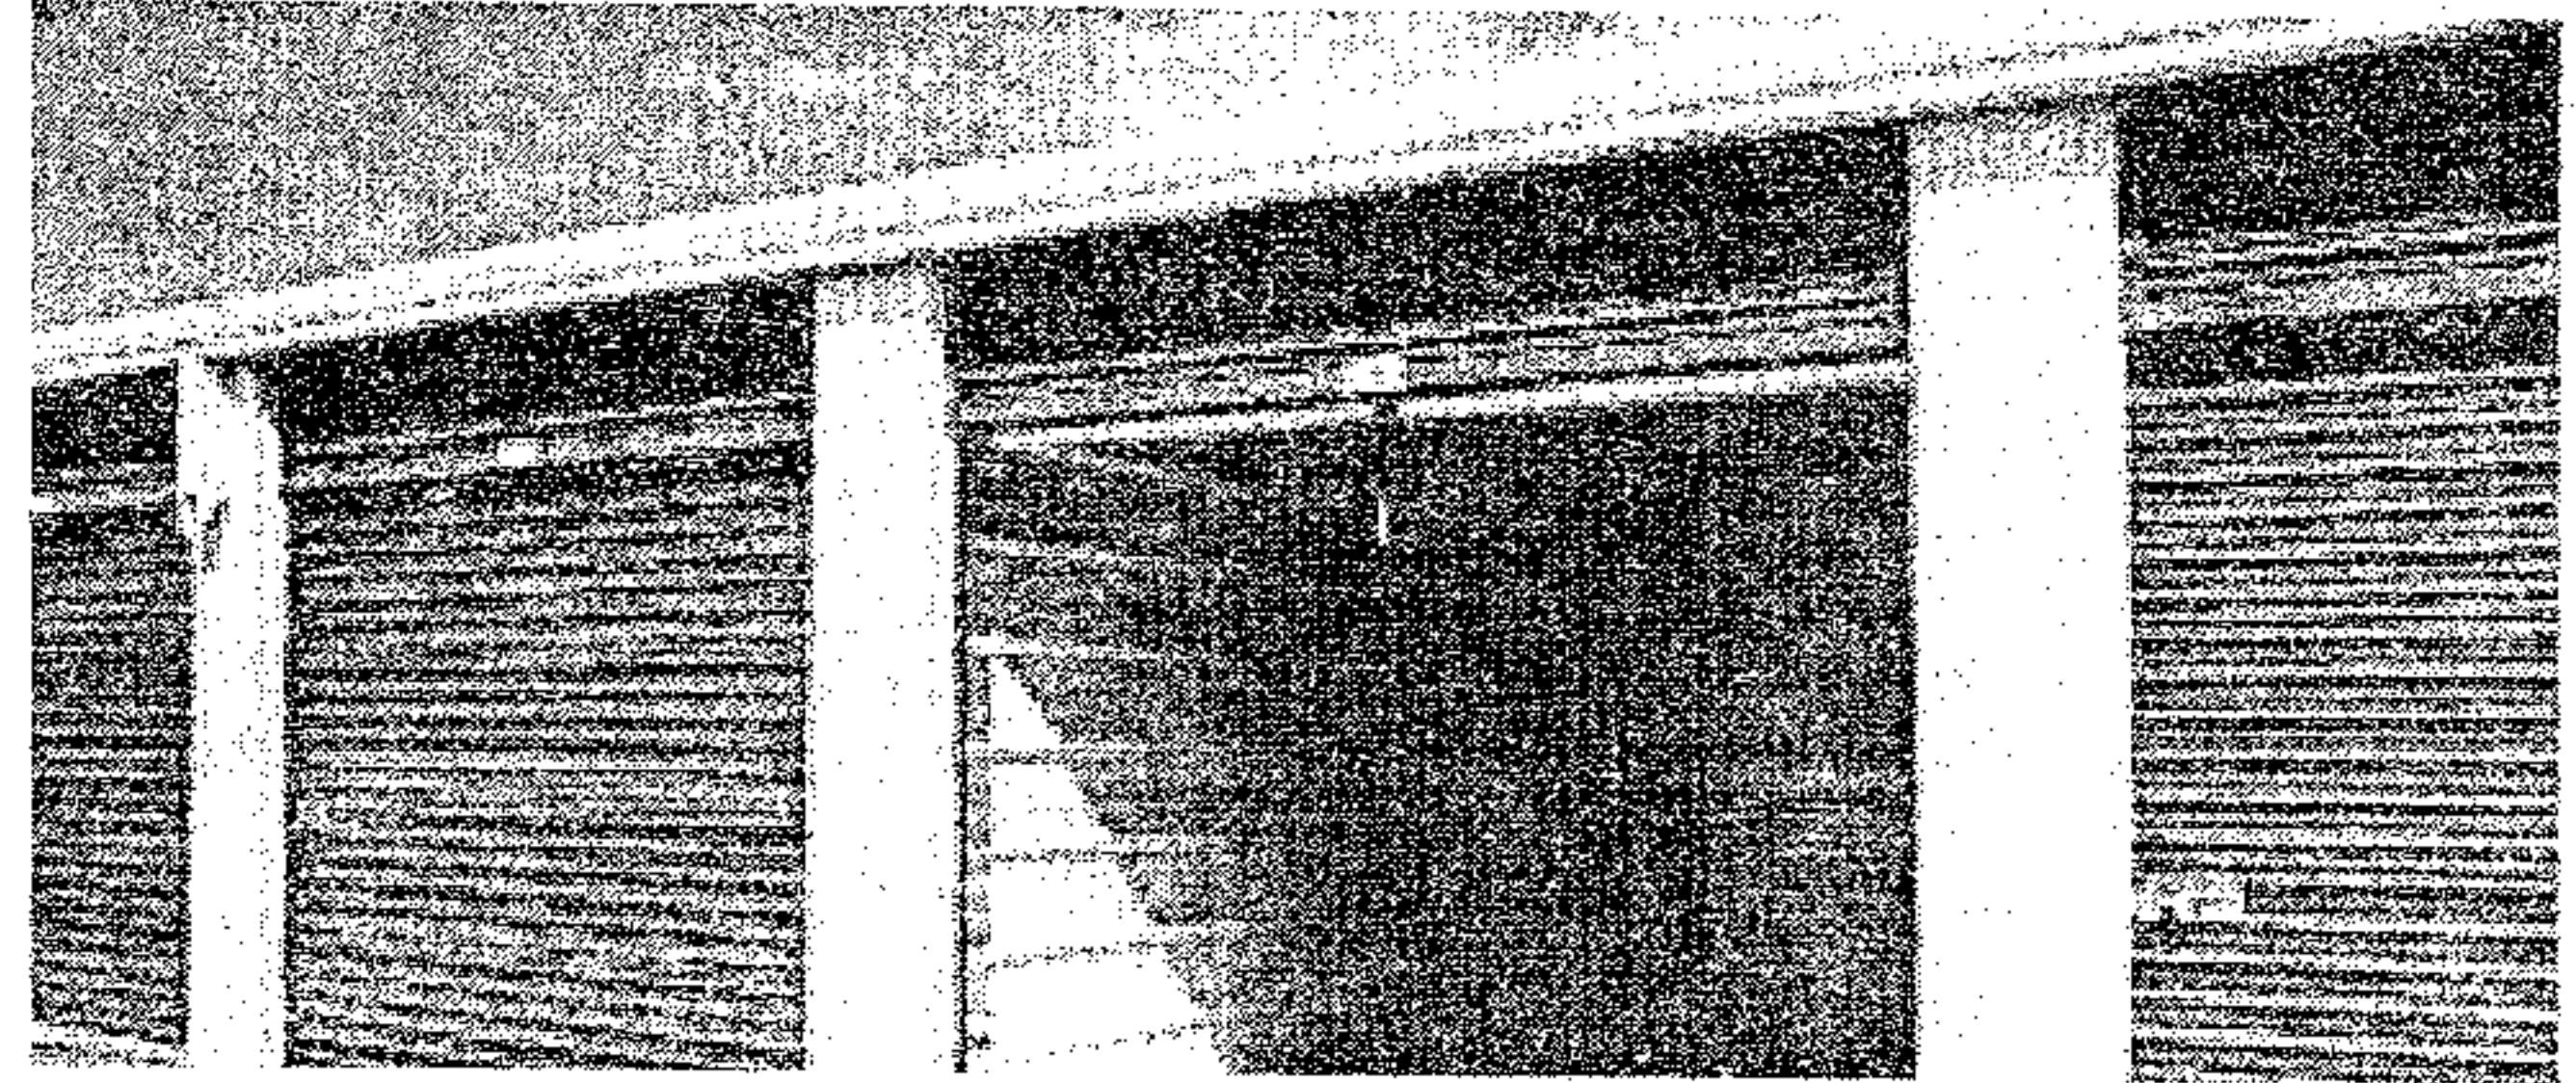

I pray that you are walking with Jesus today and making every day count. He loves you and gave His life so that you may experience the true peace described in the second exam- ple above and have an eternal home with Him in heaven one day. Think about it.

offender were in the middle of the driveway. Also on scene was the victim's mother.

The victim stated he was trying to leave his residence when the offender attempted to gain entry into his vehicle to stop him. The victim also stated on the night of 04/19/15 the offender physically held him against his will inside the residence. When the victim was attempting to leave the residence the offender became upset, pushed him down, and attacked him with a pillow. The victim was not free to leave the residence. The victim stated a few days prior the offender became upset and struck him with a closed fist in the side of the face. The victim is afraid of the offender because the offender had assaulted him on several occasions prior. The offender's mother confirmed the victim's statement about the offender having anger and anxiety issues. The victim stated the offender does take prescription medication and attends therapy for anxiety. The offender was recently force to move out of the mother's residence due to the mother being in fear for her safety and well being. The offender was taken into custody and transported to the Loudon County Jail without incident. Deputy Lance Anderson LCSO, made the arrest.
