False

Randall Richesin, 32, Murrays Chapel Road Sweetwater, was charged with Poss. of a Handgun while Under the Influence, Public Intoxication, Poss. of Drug Para., False report/statement, and Reckless Endangerment.

Deputy Burley, received a dispatched call of a possible aggravated burglary in progress at Ten Mile Road in Sweetwater, Tennessee (Loudon County). When Deputy arrived on scene, he observed a male white on Ten Mile Road about 500 yards from the house with a flashlight and a gun in the middle of the road running. Deputy detained the subject with a gun and identified him as Randall Lynn Richesin II. The firearm used is a "O.F. Mossberg & Sons" 22 long rifle which had (1) round in the chamber and (10) in the rifle. This rifle does not have a serial number because it was produced prior to the National Firearms Act. Richesin II while running with this firearm, under the influence, which did not have a safety and a round in the chamber was jepordizing the lives and safety of all persons in his vacinity. This reckless behavior was not protect property which he had already left from, to continue a fictional burglarlar, but was a paranoid dillusion that placed others in imminent danger of death or serious bodily injury. This did occur in Loudon County, Tn.

Richesin II stated he had just drove to Blue Bird Lane Sweetwater, Tennessee (Monroe County) and shot that rifle at an occupied dwelling that contained his girlfriend, additionally another male were present at the residence. Richesin II had then returned to his residence of Murrays Chapel Road when he believed that, one male, was attempting to break into Ten Mile Road (an unoccupied dwelling). Richesin II still having possession of the firearm from the previous felony on Blue Bird Lane, again left his residence in attempt to locate the male. Richesin II was encountered by the Deputy walking / running away from his residence (Murrays Chapel Road) as well as 124 Ten Mile Road towards what Richesin II believed to be the male somewhere on Ten Mile Road. Richesin II who admit to being under the influence of methamphetamine, xanax and marijuana was extremely figity and stated that while under the influence of meth-

DV

Gary Collins, 44, Cornett Road Lenoir City, was charged with Domestic Assault.

Deputy Bobby Hamilton LCSO, did respond to Cornett Rd. to a domestic in progress. The caller stated that she could hear the defendant and the victim screaming at each other throwing things in their trailer and breaking things in the trailer. When Deputy arrived he seen the defendant/Gary Collins in the yard with the victim. The defendant was up in the victims face screaming at her. When Deputy approached the defendant and the victim he could see a cut above the left eye of the defendant and two scratches on the left side of his face. There were several items that had been thrown out into the yard by the defendant and broken glass outside of the front door.

When Deputy looked into the trailer, things were thrown all over. When Deputy talked with the victim she stated she returned from town and she found the defendant which is her boyfriend throwing her belongings out into the yard and breaking her personal belongings. The victim stated that the defendant began to poke her in the chest with his finger and accuse her of cheating on him. The victim did have red marks on her chest and also stated that she was afraid of him and that he uses meth and that he injects it. Victim also stated that the defendant has hit her in the past and pushed her 17 year old who also lives with them. The 17 yr old stated the same to Deputy. When Deputy talked with the defendant he stated to Deputy that the victim had not hit him that his injuries were self inflicted. The defendant was very enraged and stated that the victim had been "doing someone else". The defendant had been drinking some type of an alcoholic beverage and had a odor of an alcoholic beverage on his breath. The defendant seemed to be intoxicated on something besides alcohol. Based on my investigation the defendant was the primary aggressor and a more severe assault would have occurred if left. Deputy did placed defendant under arrest and a victims rights form was given to the victim. Deputy Bobby Hamilton LCSO, made the arrest.

amphetamine becomes extremely paranoid. Richesin II left his property with the intent to have an assaultive and possibly fatal encounter with the male at Ten Mile Road and Richesin II brought the afore mentioned firearm with him to do so. This encounter was a result of a paranoid retaliation from Richesin II against then male. Richesin II contacted Loudon County law enforcement for a burglary in progress which was not occurring. Richesin II, had no knowledge of any possible burglary in addition Richesin II stated that while under the influence of methamphetamine he becomes extremely paranoid.

The residence that Richesin II believed was being burglarized was not his residence nor does anyone live at that residence. There was no evidence that the residence in question had anybody attempt to make entry into the home, except law enforcement.

Richesin II knew the report of a possible burglary to be false, as Richesin II admit after being mirandized while at the Loudon County Jail by causing the Loudon County Sheriffs Office to take action and deal with a false emergency. Richesin II also placed the neighbors, including the great aunt of Richesin II, a Aileen Cody, to be in immediate fear for her life and safety in addition to placing all responding law enforcement officers in fear for their lives and safety. Richesin II was a danger to other persons and property as he while under the influence; left his residence with a firearm with the intent to go armed and locate the male and have an assaultive confrontation with the male. Richesin II was a danger not only to the male, but to all other persons in the immediate vicinity. Richesin II was subsequently arrested for possession of a firearm during an armed dangerous felony, false reports and public intoxication. A search incident to arrest revealed two cellophane containers and one pack of rolling papers. Richesin II stated he keeps his xanax and methamphetamine in the two cellophane containers and Richesin II uses the rolling papers to smoke marijuana.

Each of the two cellophane containers had a powered residue which Richesin II stated would be residue from his narcotics. Richesin II was previously convicted of simple possession.

Deputy Brandon Burley LCSO, made the arrest.
