TN man charged with solicitation to burn down NY Mosque

Vanita Gupta, the head of the Civil Rights Division, and William C. Killian, the U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of Tennessee, announced today that a federal grand jury in Knoxville, Tennessee, returned a one-count indictment charging Robert Doggart, 63, with soliciting another person to violate federal civil rights laws by burning down a mosque in Islamberg, a hamlet in Hancock, New York. According to court documents, Doggart planned an attack on Islamberg, a small settlement that is home to a large Muslim community. Doggart's plans included burning a mosque, a school and a cafeteria in the community, and he solicited others to join in his plan through Facebook posts and in telephone con-

Michelle Miller, 21, Pine Orchard Road Oakdale, was charged with Public Intoxication.

Deputy Ronnie Reagan LCSO, was dispatched to Huffs Ferry Road on a complaint of an uncooperative intoxicated female that was wanting to leave the residence in her car and was upset that she could not get her keys to the car. Prior to Deputy arrival the female left in a car with another person. Deputy then received a call to respond to Huffs Ferry Road to assist the person that was trying to take her home. Upon Deputy arrival he made contact with the female who was still uncooperative with the people that was trying to help her. Deputy identified her as Michelle Miller and she did have an odor of an intoxicating beverage on her breath. She still insisted that she was in a good condition to drive. She refused to let the people take her home and she refused to cooperate with Deputy in trying to get her home. The people she was with stated that she could not go back home with them and they feared that she would attempt to jump out of the car. She was taken into custody and transported to the Loudon County Jail for her Own safety and the safety of all involved. Deputy Ronnie Reagan LCSO, made the arrest.

Doggart has been charged with one count of soliciting others to violate federal civil rights laws by intentionally defacing, damaging or destroying any religious property, because of the religious character of that property, or attempting to do so. If convicted, the defendant faces a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison.

This case is being investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. It is being prosecuted by Civil Rights Division Trial Attorney Saeed Mody and Assistant U.S. Attorneys Perry H. Piper and Chris Poole of the Eastern District of Tennessee.

An indictment is merely an accusation, and the defendant is presumed innocent unless proven guilty.

 on the Theft of a weed eater. While still responding to the scene E911 advised me that the complainant advised that it was possibly a gray or green, possibly an early 00's Mercury Sable or Ford Tarus 4 door with dark tinted windows with a possible Tn. tag. Before the officer could make contact with the complaint, he saw a vehicle matching the description of the suspect vehicle turn on Axley's Chapel Road off of Hwy 95. It did appear to be a gray or green Taraus or Sable with dark windows. When this officer tried to close the distance on said vehicle it took off to evade this officer reaching speeds well over 80 MPH in a 35 MPH zone on Axley's Chapel Road. This officer had trouble closing the distance for it was clear the vehicle was defiantly running from this officer. This officer tried to keep said vehicle in sight but with the speeds it was running it was nearly impossible. This officer kept said vehicle in sight even when Axley's Chapel turned into East Coast

Tellico Parkway. Once the officer was on East Coast ,speeds was over 100 mph and this officer lost sight and terminated. The officer then went back to the scene and spoke to the complainant. The complainant advised Deputy that he was mowing at the Glendale Community Center when the gray or green Tarus or Sable pulled in the parking lot of the Community Center and a white male got out of the vehicle and grabbed a weed eater off of complainant's trailer and took off in the car. The weed eater was described as a Red Max lightweight, red motor cover and with a straight shaft handle. Complainant advised me of the same tag# of R06-76E on the vehicle.

When leaving the Community Center E911 advised Deputy that a female, was calling 911 and saying that she had been in the car during the chase and that she was a Axley's Chapel Road. This officer responded to that address to talk to the female. This officer arrived at Axley's Chapel and the car in question, which turned out to be a 2001 Mercury Sable SLS 4 door with dark windows, was there with the exact tag number. Female was very upset and shaking and crying and advised me that she was the passenger in the car when the suspect driver(named) had just ran from the Police on Axley's Chapel. The female wrote a sworn statement as to what happened while she was in the car as a passenger and that when suspect driver(named) saw the Police that he said "shi@!!" and that was when the driver floored it. Female was afraid for her life and scared to death and shaking. Female ad-

DUI

Jeffrey Fields, 20, Merle Lane Knoxville, was charged with Underage DUI.

Deputy Kenneth Palmer LCSO, observed a 2013 Toyota Scion Silver, on Highway 321 near City Park Drive traveling the wrong way on the roadway. Deputy Burley, did respond to the location and make contact with the driver, Jeffrey Norman Field, who appeared to be somewhat confused and disheveled. Field, who is 20 years old, did admit to having 6 Jello shots while at the Lenoir City Park Marina. Due to the rain, Deputy Palmer stayed with Field's vehicle;

while, Deputy Burley did transport Mr. Field less than one half mile away to the Catholic Church on St. Thomas Way to conduct standardized field sobriety tasks in a dry and covered area. Field did poorly on all standardized field sobriety tasks, as well as Field did also conduct two alternative tasks. Based on Field's driving (on the wrong side of the road), Field who is 20 years old admitting to having consumed at least 6 Jello Shots of liquor, and performing poorly on field sobriety tasks Field was placed under arrest for underage driving while impaired. Deputy Kenneth Palmer LCSO, made the arrest.

Chase ctd. from pg. 5

Deputy the driver jumped out of the car at Baileys Road and Hwy 95 and he took off on foot from there. Female then advised she drove the car back to Axley's Chapel to call Police. Female was escorted to Loudon County Sheriff's Office to be interviewed by Investigators. Vehicle in question was towed due to vehicle being used in a Felony.

Female did name the suspect driver as Dylan Ferguson, and did write a statement on the pursuit. On 7/2/15 / Dylan Ferguson was arrested and taken to the Loudon Jail where Deputy Brandon Dishner LCSO, made the arrest.

Verage

Kerry Raper, 20, Rusty Way Maryville, was charged with Underage Consumption, Public Intoxication, and Disorderly Conduct.

Deputy Brandon Burley LCSO, did receive a dispatched call of a white male with no shirt walking in the area of Tennessee Avenue and highway 95 in town of Greenback yelling and screaming so loudly it could be heard blocks away.

This is a residential area and the subject had woke up multiple residents of the community causing them unnecessary duress and alarm. While attempting to locate this subject Deputy did make contact with two more individuals who were frightened and alarmed by this male subject. Eventually the Deputy did make contact with the subject, who was shirtless, had blood covering his hands and arms and was screaming on Craigs Chapel Road near Highway 95 North.

Deputy was able to identify the male as Kerry Raper (age 20), who had red / watery bloodshot eyes, slurred speech and a strong odor of alcoholic beverage upon his breath.

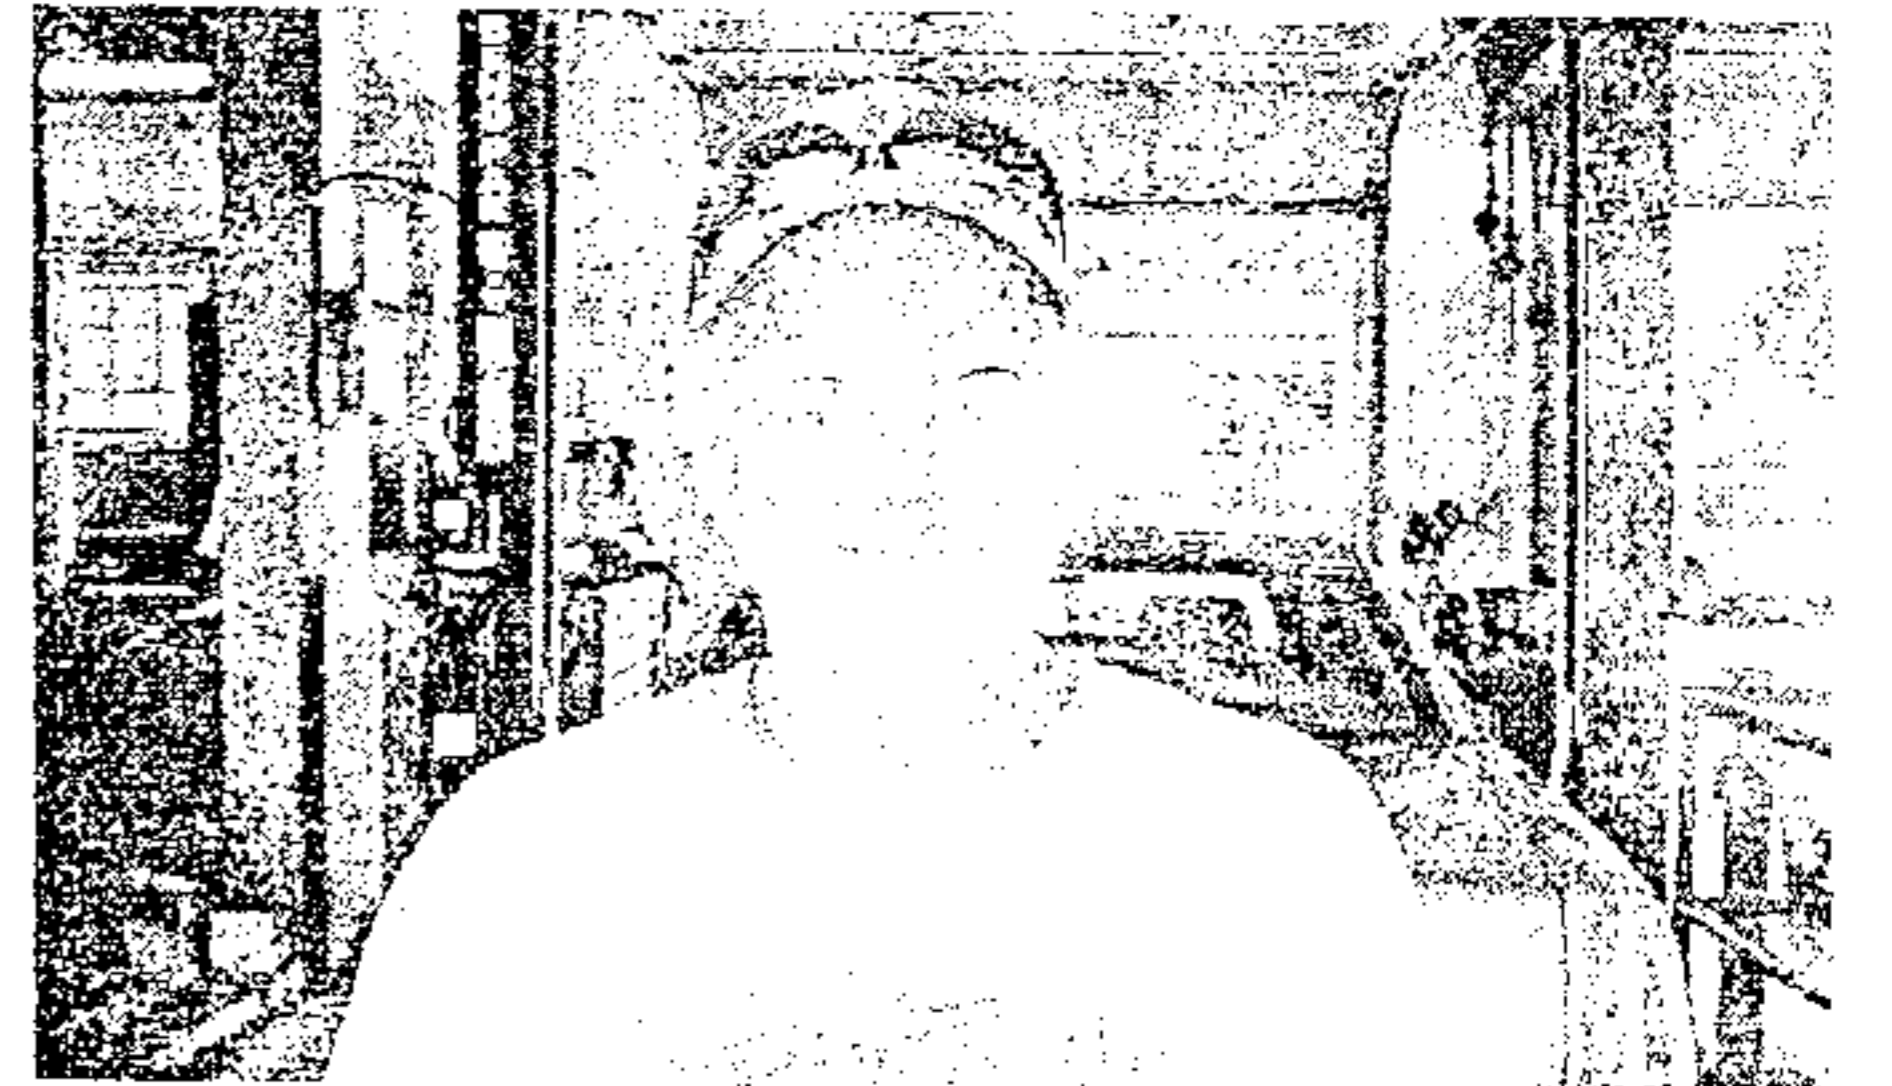

Raper stated he had consumed "a fifth of whiskey" and was returning from a friends residence at Morganton Road in Greenback. Raper stated the blood on his person came from trying to cross multiple fields that had electrified fences. Raper was a clear danger to himself and others, given the blood on his fists and his inability to control himself while under the influence. Raper, who is under the age of 21 did consume alcohol illegal and did cause an unnecessary duress and alarm in a residential area where people were sleeping. Deputy Brandon Burley LCSO, made the arrest.
