Fishing

squirrels with nothing but 10 yards of string and a peanut butter cracker.

As usual, Parson Weaver beat his own record again that year with 5 squirrels in less than four hours. Everyone says that it was because he was trained in Vietnam to find booby traps that gives him this hidden squirrel catching ability.

That first event had always been won by Parson and that's why it was odd when Swindle Windell came strolling up to the check-in station whistling "On the road again" three hours into the tournament. He was holding five of the fattest red squirrels you had ever laid your eyes on and what made it even odder was Windell didn't say a whole lot, just got his picture made for the paper and left.

So after the first day it was Swindle Windell in first, Parson Weaver in second and Trey Darbshire the 3rd coming in third place.

The second event is always held out at Jim Morgan's pumpkin farm and it entails a bit of speed and wit.

See, when Jim's kinfolk came to America back in the early 1800's to settle the farm, his crazy uncle Henry smuggled in a whole boat load of wild Russian boars and turned them loose so they would have meat for the winters. Continued Next Week.

Permits

The special season antlerless deer permits were inadvertently printed with "shotgun-only". Antlerless quota deer permits (hunt codes 1 - 61) allow gun/muzzleloader/archery. The quota fall turkey permits (hunt codes 62-127) allow shotgun/archery.

Leftover permits will go on sale Monday, October 29, 2007, at 8:00 Central Time. Permits can be obtained at any TWRA license agent or on-line. Be sure to retain your receipt, as the receipt serves as your permit. No permits will be mailed for leftover permit sales. Hunters are allowed to obtain up to five (5) permits for a single county and

Drinking milk may help you lose weight

New studies indicate that consuming adequate amounts of calcium may do more than strengthen your bones. In fact, calcium helps break down body fat and may prevent fat cells from making fat.

Researchers from Purdue and Creighton universities and the University of Tennessee conducted several studies on calcium intake and weight. Results consistently showed that people who consumed more calcium had a lower body weight or gained less weight than those who consumed lower amounts of calcium.

For the best health benefits, try to consume at least 1,000 milligrams of calcium every day. Good sources include dairy foods, dark-green leafy vegetables, fish with edible bones and calcium-fortified foods.

One family left with even more. Emily Lamoureux of Strawberry Plains won the grand prize of a complete nursery. The nursery, provided by Toys "R" Us, Babies "R" Us and UT Medical Center, included a crib, bedding, glider, changing table and several other must-have items for the new baby and family.

"I can't believe it," said Lamoureux, who's expecting her first child in December. "This is the exact same crib and changing table I wanted. It's the same color and everything. This is great. This will help our family so much."

At the Greatest Show on Birth, a free event, physicians provided health education programs, while nurses and a multitude of other healthcare professionals provided health screenings and set up informational and educational booths to provide a wealth of information to those who are expecting, those who've recently had babies, and even those who are planning to have a family.

The event also included a spa tent for moms; train rides, a bounce house, crafts and a magician for the kids; healthy food and healthy living cooking demonstrations; and a mother and baby fashion show.

Sponsors of the Greatest Show on Birth included Kroger, Pepsi, Knoxmoms.com, B97.5, me & Mommy-to-be, Motherhood Maternity, Toys "R" Us and Babies "R" Us.

Foiled

According to records, at approximately 5:14 a.m. Thursday Deputy Jason Goddard, LCSD, was dispatched to a home under construction on James Ridge Road in Loudon to investigate an alarm call. Upon his arrival he spoke with Jack Goble, who is a key holder to the property and Goble said he arrived at the location to find an older model blue and white Chevy truck backed into the garage. The truck sped out of the garage, slinging gravel everywhere, and went through the yard onto the road where it made a right on Dry Valley Road.

The officer reported he was unable to make contact with the suspect vehicle, but he and Goble did a walk through of the residence to see if anything was missing. The two men did not find anything missing, but they did find some copper pipe damaged where someone had cut three pieces of it.

Goble's arrival apparently spooked the thieves and they left the three cut pieces of copper pipe laying on the ground in the garage and fled the scene.

The value of the damage was unknown at the time of the report and the homeowner was identified as Stan Forthyse.

Police Beat

Daniel Keith Carver, 27, of Circle Drive, Loudon was charged with assault by domestic violence.

According to the report, Deputy Bobby Hamilton LCSD responded to a domestic call and upon arrival talked with the victim who reported she and Daniel had been arguing and he jumped in front of her vehicle when she tried to leave and would not let her leave. She then pulled back in the driveway and he took her keys, purse and cell phone from her. Carver then pulled the spark plug wire from the engine to keep her from leaving.

When the deputy talked with Daniel he would not cooperate and was angry that the deputy would not leave and just let them talk. Carver has a history of domestic violence and has been charged before with assault by domestic violence.

After speaking to both parties the deputy felt violence would occur and took Daniel into custody. Deputy Bobby Hamilton, LCSD made the arrest.

Willie Arville Burris, 37, of Collins Street, Loudon, was charged with driving on revoked.

According to the report, Officer Bennie Houser, LPD observed a vehicle with the left rear tail light out and stopped it.

The driver Mr. Burris was found to have a suspended license for failure to satisfy a citation. Officer Bennie Houser, LPD made the arrest.

Terrah Lee Allison, 29, of Limestone, Sweetwater, was charged with assault by domestic.

According to the report, Deputy Bobby Hamilton, LCSD responded to a domestic in a vehicle on I75. The vehicle exited off and was stopped by THP Trooper Jimmy Whitt.

Joseph Robinson was driving and stated he and his girlfriend, Ms. Allison were in a fight and she physically attacked him and hit him in the face several times while he was driving. Mr. Robinson had a red mark and swelling to his right cheek.

Ms. Allison stated she hit him and he grabbed her by the hair of the head and began to smash her face in to the armrest. Ms. Allison left cheek was red and did have swelling also. Deputy Bobby Hamilton, LCSD made the arrests.
