test-drove a Chevy S-10 pickup truck from Walt Williams, Highway 11 West, on Friday and returned it just before closing time, telling workers he would return the next day to speak with someone about it.

Ray Williams reported he opened the lot on Saturday and when he walked through he noticed the S-10 had different wheels on it.

Williams said he knew Shultz was the last person to drive the vehicle and when Shultz returned it at closing time he drove it back onto the lot before stopping and checking in at the office.

The missing wheels are valued at $400.

Police Beat

Dustin Lee Holt, 21, of Hines Valley Road, Lenoir City, was charged with aggravated domestic violence.

According to the report, Corporal Pete McGinley, LCSD responded to a domestic call on Hines Valley Road. Upon arrival the officer observed in the yard and on the porch: clothing, nick knock items and a wooden corner shelf. The corporal spoke to the victim, the witness and the assailant.

It was stated by the victim she arrived at the house about 1pm and according to the victim Dustin Holt became upset and started throwing things in the house.

The corporal observed in the residence tumbled over furniture, broken glass and other items. According to the witness

Mr. Holt threw the items about and that both the victim and witness were in for of Mr. Holt. Corporal Pete McGinley, LCSD made the arrest.

Raul Daniel Jones, 34, of Highland Avenue, Loudon, was charged with driving on revoked.

According to the report, Sgt. Kent Russell, LPD observed a maroon vehicle fail to stop for a stop sign.

Jones was found to have a revoked license. Sgt. Kent Russell, LPD made the arrest.

two checks drawn on Home Federal Bank on the victims account in the amount of $65 to West Hills Market and passed them.

The checks had the victim's name signed to them and were passed by Robert Key who knew the checks were stolen. The second check was passed for $47 to West Hills Market in Lenoir City.

Robert Thomas Key, 19, of Coffee Circle, Lenoir City was charged with forgery x2 and theft under $500 x2. Detective Jonathan Sartin, LCPD filed the charges and made the arrest.

Fraud

LCSD, reported he spoke with Sonda Langley of Abbott Road who advised she had received a lottery check in the mail and made contact with the name on the check, Mr. Moritz Webster.

Langley advised Webster wanted her to cash the check and wire him back the money. She did not cash the check, however she got the address the money was to be wired to and turned that information over to police.

Handy Tip

To remove bleach smell from hands (and that slimy feeling) pour a little vinegar or lemon juice over your hands then rinse. Bleach is alkaline, vinegar and lemon are acid, so they cancel each other out and balance the pH of your skin.

Builders

LCSD, responded to the Cormorant Drive residence of Ken and Denise Cooper who advised on October 1, 2007, they gave a check for $13,500 to Joseph and Deborah Napier, owners of Custom Builders, to build a dock on the lake. The check was cashed on October 1 by Custom Boats.

The couple told police they have not received any work, nor any notifications on the progress of the job since the check was cashed and whenever they try to contact the Napiers they either cannot get a hold of anyone, or the Napiers tell them they are making progress and will call back. The Napiers, however don't follow up on the promised call.

Records indicate the Coopers advised that as of Friday, October 26 all but one of the Napiers phones had been disconnected and they were told they would be contacted on Friday, but the contact never came.

The case is under investigation.

Police Beat

Agustin Domingo Deleon, 27 of W. 4th Avenue, Lenoir city was charged with no drivers license. According to the report, Lt. Gillis Morgan, LCPD stopped Deleon for suspicion of drunk driving and found him to be unlicensed. Lt. Gillis Morgan, LCPD made the arrest.

Proclamation

March 1, 2008.

For Statewide Reservoirs:

All Reservoirs, except Kentucky, Dale Hollow, and Douglas reservoirs- 18-inch minimum length limit on smallmouth bass. Existing creel limits will not change. On Boone, South Holston, and Watauga reservoirs the new minimum length limit on smallmouth bass will be 16 inches, increasing to 18 inches in 2009.

For Region 4:

Norris Reservoir- Spotted bass- no creel or size limit.

Chilhowee Reservoir- Largemouth bass- 14-inch minimum length limit with a creel limit of 5 black bass

Douglas Reservoir- Sauger daily creel limit of 5, only one of which can be over 16 inches; no minimum length limit. The daily creel limit is a combination sauger/walleye limit (5 total). The minimum limit on walleye will remain 15 inches.

Cherokee Reservoir- Walleye- 18-inch minimum length limit with a creel limit of 5 fish; Sauger- 15-inch minimum length limit with creel limit of 10 fish.

Boone Reservoir - Striped Bass- November through March- 36-inch minimum length limit with a 1 fish creel limit; April through October- 15-inch minimum length limit with a creel limit of 2 fish.

River smallmouth bass regulations: 13-17 inch protected length range for smallmouth bass, with a creel limit of 5 black bass, allowing only one smallmouth bass in creel to be greater than 17 inches. This regulation would apply to the following locations:

* Nolichucky River- ENKA dam upstream to state line, includes Davy Cockett Reservoir.

* French Broad River- HWY 168 to state line, excluding Douglas Reservoir.

* Holston River- I-40 bridge upstream to North Fork Holston River confluence including John Sevier Reservoir, excluding Cherokee Reservoir.

* Clinch River- HWY 25E upstream to state line.

* Powell River- Gap Creek confluence upstream to state line.

* North Fork Holston River- Confluence with South Fork Holston River upstream to state line.

Clinch River from Norris Dam downstream to HWY 61 bridge- 14-20 inch protected length range on trout, with a 7 trout creel limit allowing only one fish in creel limit to be greater than 20 inches. There are no gear, tackle, or bait restrictions associated with this change.

Gus

I have a bad habit of laying stuff down, like keys, phone and most of the parts that I remove from the shelves, refrigerator doors and the pins for the interior doors. They just disappear or are eaten by the massive piles of stuff. Not to mention that you have to deal with the cable guy, phone guy and electric company.

None of the doors at the new place worked, all the locks had to be replaced, the washer, dryer, and water heater all had to be rewired. It's been two weeks since this started and I see no end in sight.

Plus I'm still sleeping on a cot; lost the bolts to the bed frame last week.

I guess the biggest pain so far was this past weekend. I was hosting a catfish tournament and it took me four hours to find my weigh-in scales. I never found my fishing poles and had to sit that tournament out.

Today I will get to know the neighbors, or at least the neighbors will get to know me; I get to move 600 pounds of year old chum.

See you next Monday, unless I misplace my computer. -Gus
