fraudulent and to call the police.

After the phone call from CVS, Sgt. Hall andh Investigator AJ Yokley set up surveillance at the CVS and waited for the subject to pick up the prescription. At approximately 2:30pm CVS called and advised a description of a white female trying to pick up the prescription. The female was stopped as she exited the store and identified as Susanne Gunn.

During the interview Ms. Gunn admitted to calling in the prescription for Suboxone and claiming to be with Dr. Hunter's office. A check of Gunn's criminal history showed a previous history of a conviction for prescription fraud in Knox County in 2006.

Susanne Renee Gunn, aka Barbara Headrick, 37, of Spinnaker Road, Farragut, was charged with prescription fraud. Sgt. Billy Hall, LCSD ND made the arrest.

Chestnuts Roasting...

It's that time to start singing about chestnuts roasting on an open fire. There is a lot more to this sweet, edible nut than song lyrics, though.

Chestnuts are low in fat and calories and contain potassium, vitamin C and fiber.

Peel off chestnuts' hard, dark brown outer shell and bitter inner skin and enjoy them roasted, boiled, pureed, preserved and candied. Chestnuts can be used in desserts, soups or to add flair to holiday favorites, such as turning regular stuffing into chestnut stuffing.

Chestnut season is September through February. Pick nuts that are firm and plump, without any blemishes. Store them unshelled in a cool, dry place or in your refrigerator in a covered container. (From the American Dietetic Association & TDH)

Vandalism

According to records, Carl Farwell, Lakeland Drive, told Deputy Daniel Kelly, LCSD, someone smashed his steel post lantern assembly on the top of his driveway and caused about $200 worth of damage.

The vandalism occurred while Farwell was on vacation and no suspect information was available.

Stolen

Road told Deputy B. Dixon, LCSD, his DeWalt 1/2 paddle drill and DeWalt AM/FM radio charger were stolen from a job site located along Williamsburg Drive.

Palmer reported a coworker said another employee whom he identified had come back to the job site around 8:30 p.m. Friday.

The value of the loss was estimated at $300.

Shoplifters

Becky Juanita Viars

and Kimberly Padgett did enter the BP Valley Mart on Hwy 72 in Loudon. Once inside the business Viars and Padgett, in concert with each other, committed the act of theft by knowingly and intentionally depriving the merchant of property without the merchant's consent.

During the act the subjects took and concealed 12 packs of cigarillos, 7 packs of rolling papers and 6 packs of blunt rolling papers. After taking and concealing these items, both walked out of the business.

In another warrant, on the same date at approximately 2:25pm Becky Viars and Kimberly Padgett did enter the Rocky Top Shell on Hwy 72 in Loudon. Once inside the business Viars and Padgett, in concert with each other, committed the act of theft by knowingly and intentionally depriving the merchant of property without the merchant's consent.

During the act the subjects took and concealed 5 packs of cigarillos, peach flavor and 2 packs of cigarillos, strawberry flavor. After taking and concealing these items the duo walked out of the store.

Kimberly Michelle Padgett, 31, and Becky Juanita Viars, 38, of Queener Road, Loudon were charged with two counts of theft of property. Officer Blake Norman, LPD made the arrests.

pie - he would be glad to take me back out later that afternoon to catch a good mess - Sven spoke up immediately and asked if he could come along. (Sven and Toad have this unspoken competition about who can outfish the other one.)

Sven is one heck of a Trout, Musky, and Pike fisherman. Toad is great at Crappie, Bass and Catfish. Sven being from up North, Toad being from down South.

I jumped at Toad's offer and, to my amazement, Toad agreed to let Sven come along as well.

I met Toad and Sven at the boat ramp about an hour later. Sven was dressed in his normal fishing outfit: hip waders, fishing vest, and his lucky boony hat, everything green in color and covered in a wide assortment of patches. He looks a bit like one of those TV fisherman, only not as cleanly shaven.

Toad was wearing an old T-shirt and a pair of camo pants; he looks like he's getting ready to mow the grass.

I loaded my gear into the boat and we were off. Toad headed back to a little cove that I had fished before.

Now, I had never had much luck in this particular cove...

Conclusion next week. -Gus
