Horoscopes:

Aquarius

(Jan 21-Feb 19)

Rock-solid isn't usually your favorite mode, but right now you have to admit

(see Horoscopes pg. 2)

Horoscopes

that this stability feels pretty good. Could it be that being grounded actually gives you even more freedom to soar? Food for thought.

Pisces

(Feb 20-Mar 20)

Uncharacteristically, you dig in your heels. However, someone else is equally as stubborn about the situation. This conflict could actually have a higher purpose (although who are we kidding -- don't most things?).

Aries

(Mar 21-Apr 20)

Why do your plans always have to be about 'someday'? Why not fulfill these dreams in the here and now? Just remember that you have to move slowly, one detail at a time, and you'll get there before you know it.

Taurus

(Apr 21-May 20)

Why do your plans always have to be about 'someday'? Why not fulfill these dreams in the here and now? Just remember that you have to move slowly, one detail at a time, and you'll get there before you know it.

Gemini

(May 21-June 21)

Hoping for the best is always a great outlook, but it doesn't hurt to have a back-up plan just in case. Chances are good that you won't need to put it into action, but that extra bit of assurance will boost your confidence levels.

Cancer

(Jun 22-Jul 22)

Passing judgment on others is easy, but identifying whether you're judging them or projecting bits of your own unsavory self onto them -- well, that's not so easy. Think before you critique someone's actions.

Leo

(Jul 23-Aug 23)

When dealing with a stubborn person or situation, you need to gauge what the most effective tactics are before you make your move. You'll get a lot further using charm. Force will just make them dig in their heels.

Virgo

(Aug 24-Sep 23)

Those feet of yours are planted solidly on the ground. Just make sure you don't get so rooted down that you're unable to move quickly should the situation require it. Keep those energies balanced.

Libra

(Sept 24-Oct 23)

Socially, you're all about putting everyone else at ease. Now the stars say it's time to put yourself at ease with your own body. Delicious and healthy meals, exercise, lots of sleep: Make them part of your lifestyle.

Scorpio

(Oct 24-Nov 22)

Your amazing insight and understanding makes you a much-needed friend for someone who's feeling less than stable. Don't worry about trying to say the right thing; all that truly matters is that you're there to help.

Sagittarius

(Nov 23-Dec 21)

Being bad is just what you need in order to feel good again. The stars give you permission to catch up on all the things that you usually deny yourself. Go ahead and revel in the earthy pleasures.

Capricorn

(Dec 22-Jan 20)

Binding agreements and long-term situations are looking pretty good to you right about now. The stars say plans put in place today will grow beyond your wildest dreams. It's time to plant your dreams for the future.

Broyles

ity and possession of drug paraphernalia.

Raquel Dolores Jones, 32, Carding Machine Road, Loudon, was charged with public intoxication and possession of drug paraphernalia.

According to records, Officer Blake Norman, LPD, stopped Broyles' 1995 Nissan pickup just after 1:00 a.m. for driving 65 M.P.H. in a 45 M.P.H. zone along Highway 72 and upon identifying Broyles and performing a warrants check learned Broyles was wanted by U.S. Marshals for violation of probation.

The officer reported a search of the vehicle produced a glass pipe commonly used to smoke marijuana with marijuana residue in it from under the seat. Broyles was arrested and transported to jail.

Once at the jail, Broyles was searched by Deputy Robbie Lane and, according to the report, 4 grams of a white, rock-like substance believed to be crack cocaine was found in his possession.

Jones was taken into custody after she reportedly was found with blood shot eyes, slurred speech and a strong odor of alcohol about her person. She admitted to drinking alcohol and was deemed a danger to herself and others if left in the public.

Officer Norman, assisted by Sgt. R.S. Newman and Officer Jon Yates, LPD, made the arrests.

Police Beat

Madel Carman Vierra/Guzman, 23, of 2nd Avenue, Lenoir City, was charged with driving without a license. According to the report, Deputy Pete McGinley LCSD stopped a vehicle on Hwy 11 in the school zone for speeding. Ms. Vierra/Guzman was the driver and had no license. Deputy Pete McGinley LCSD made the arrest.

Damaged

ports, Ken Gentry of Gentry's Texaco, Steekee Road, told Deputy Pete McGinley, LCSD, he found the RC machine outside his store had been broken into and the bill changer ripped out of it.

The officer reported damage was done to the machine door and another machine located next to the RC machine also was damaged with pry marks.

The value of the loss and damage was estimated at $500.

Vandalism

owner at the time of the discovery.

According to reports filed by Deputy Pete McGinley, LCSD, around 3:00 a.m. Deputy T.J. Scarbrough, LCSD, found a 1996 Jeep Cherokee parked at Village Square that had a large rock thrown through the windshield.

A check through NCIC turned up an owner living in the Village; however no contact could be made at the time of the report.

The value of the damage was estimated at $500.

Village

sano of Tellico Village POA told Deputy Pete McGinley, LCSD, three boats were cut loose from their docks, a water fountain was broken off a bathroom wall, the glass was broken out of an information board and a wooden Indian, which was later recovered, had been thrown in the lake.

The officer reported

other places in the Village had also been vandalized overnight and reports were filed about them.

The boat owners were identified as Luther Davis of Chestana Way, Daniel Arkenau of Cincinnati, Ohio, and William Henderson of Oostanili Way, all of whom were notified of the mayhem by phone.

No other information was available at the time of the report.

Ramirez

accused of going to Cupboard Market, Highland Avenue, to buy beer through a drive-thru window and struck the building before leaving the scene and going to his residence.

The officer located Ramirez and reported Ramirez advised he had gone to the Cupboard to get beer through the drive-thru and struck the building. Ramirez had a strong odor of alcohol about his person and slurred speech.

Ramirez reportedly refused to perform sobriety tasks, telling the officer he'd been arrested for DUI before and failed the test.

The officer further reported a check of Ramirez's information revealed his driving privileges are suspended and Ramirez consented to the implied consent law, but his results showed his sample was insufficient.

Sign

other officers were serving a search warrant at a Hwy 72 residence when they encountered Josh Ferguson a.k.a. (Josh Kerr), a passenger in a vehicle that arrived at the residence. Officer Yates reported a glass pipe, commonly used to smoke crack was found in the passenger's compartment area when officials searched the vehicle.

Ferguson reportedly told the officer that the crack pipe was his and he was there to buy $50 of crack cocaine.

Joshua Lynn Ferguson, 23, Thompson Circle, Loudon was charged with possession of drug paraphernalia.

Indian

mation from the victim of the vandalism call, the officer learned the Indian belongs to Village Realty.

Upon contacting Village Realty and speaking with an employee it was learned two Indians had been taken from the business and the whereabouts of the second Indian was unknown. They are valued at $1000.

Machine

According to reports, Dan Hendricks of Tanasi Golf Club told Deputy Pete McGinley, LCSD, he found the Coke machine at Hole #5 had been vandalized when someone threw a rock at it.

The officer reported the rock was used to line the sidewalk in that area of the course and damage was done to the bill changer, the value of which was estimated at $300.

port, LCSD Deputy Chris Jenkins was on patrol on I-75 when he saw a vehicle with a missing head light and stopped it, identifying the driver as Wilma Fields Williams.

Williams was said to have had an alcoholic beverage smell about her person and Deputy Jenkins reported he saw several alcoholic beverages behind the driver's seat and in the passenger side floorboard in plain view.

Williams was asked to exit the vehicle for field sobriety tests and when asked if she had any weapons or anything on her person, Williams was reported to have told the deputy she had several pills in coat pocket, in which she handed over 19 white round pills believed to be Somas to Deputy Jenkins.

After placing her under arrest, and gaining consent to search the vehicle, Deputy Jenkins discovered a pill bottle with a name other than Williams' that contained 6 pink oval pills believed to be Hydrocodone, and in Williams' purse a black cigarette pack
