Construction worker catches thief

Police arrested a local man Friday when they were called to a Loudon County residence after a construction worker at the home heard the man inside and upon checking, discovered he was stealing from the homeowners.

According to records, Detective Patrick Upton, LCSD CID, charged Michael Ray Daugherty, 33, Highway 72 South, Loudon, with burglary (see Daugherty pg. 3)

you off course. Right now, your focus has to be like a laser: concentrated and brilliant. Find a quiet space where you can spread out and work to your heart's content.

Pisces

(Feb 20-Mar 20)

The stars add even more oomph to your already great momentum. With your skills and some hard work, there's really nothing you can't do. Cosmic inspiration is all around you; it's up to you to make it happen.

Aries

(Mar 21-Apr 20)

Prep for the big fight by doing your homework. When you take the time to lay the groundwork, your confidence will soar. That, as any high-performance type knows, is more than half the battle.

Taurus

(Apr 21-May 20)

Have you ever stood too close to a painting or a photograph? Here you thought you were looking at a drop of rain, but when you back up, you realize it's the entire ocean. Take that perspective on your life now.

Gemini

(May 21-June 21)

A mover and shaker likes what you have to say. In fact, he or she is so impressed that your words make an impact on their next big project. You can parlay this opening into a whole new playing field.

Cancer

If the secret to successfully buying real estate is location, location, location, the secret to a successful life is prioritizing, prioritizing, prioritizing. You have to figure out what's most important to you now.

Leo

(Jul 23-Aug 23)

Sometimes, quitting while you're ahead is actually the best thing you can do to ensure your future progress. In other words, don't overtax your resources -- you need to stop, take stock and appreciate all you've done.

Virgo

(Aug 24-Sep 23)

There's nothing you love more than rooting for the underdog. You're even happier when you see a way to help them get to the top of the heap. They'll definitely remember all your efforts.

Libra

Knowing the right people can make a world of difference in getting a project off the ground. You may not even know you know them, so start mixing and mingling. A fortuitous connection will pop up.

Scorpio

(Oct 24-Nov 22)

The wisest thing to do is almost always the simplest too. First, get clear on your intentions. There's always some kind of payoff for staying in a situation. Now ask yourself if all that hassle is truly worth it.

Sagittarius

(Nov 23-Dec 21)

Working hard or hardly working? Actually, while others think you're having fun, you're actually working. Your brain functions better when your heart and soul are in the enviable state known as flow.

Pride

port, Sgt. Jimmey Wiggins LCSD observed a black truck onto hwy 11 from Sugarlimb Road. The officer observed the vehicle cut the turn short and observed the vehicle swerve several times across the fog line. The vehicle was stopped and the driver was identified as Larry Layton Pride. Mr. Pride did admit to drinking a couple of beers earlier at a bar in Knoxville. Mr. Pride had blood shot eyes and his actions were slow and "clumsy". Pride performed poorly on sobriety tests and was found to have a revoked license with one prior conviction along with 4 prior DUI convictions.

Upon a search of the seat of the vehicle the officer found a camo jacket with a plastic baggie containing a green leafy substance believed to be marijuana, a set of scales, and a pack of rolling papers. The substance weighed approximately 5.5 grams.

Larry Layton Pride, 45, of Duplin Drive, Oliver Springs, was charged with DUI 5th, driving on revoked 2nd, viol. of implied consent, poss. of sch. VI for resale, and poss. of drug paraphernalia. Sgt. Jimmey Wiggins LCSD made the arrest.

Daugherty

and theft over $500 at approximately 1:30 p.m.

The lawman reported he and Deputy Chip Matthews were dispatched to a home located along Oonoga Way where a construction worker reported he was working on the house when he heard Daugherty inside. Upon further investigation it was learned Daugherty had taken a 170 BTY Ready Heater worth $750 out of the residence.

Detective Upton reported Daugherty was interviewed and admitted he went into the residence without the owner's consent and took the heater. He advised he was going to use the heater for his construction jobs.

Scams

ey on behalf of the State Troopers or the Tennessee Highway Patrol.

"The Tennessee Highway Patrol wants citizens to know that we are a government agency and do not solicit charitable donations," said Colonel Mike Walker. "However, we do understand that there are organizations in which some of our personnel may be members that perform legitimate charity works."

"We want consumers to be cautious of these scams and make sure they research the charity before making a donation," said Mary Clement, Director for the Tennessee Division of Consumer Affairs. "We encourage consumers to report possible scams to their local police department or contact our office."

Consumer Affairs and the THP both advise that they are aware of only one legitimate Memorial Fund on behalf Trooper Jenks that has been setup through AmSouth Bank in Tennessee.

Here are a few tips consumers should consider before making any charitable contribution:

Check to see that the charity is registered with the Tennessee Charitable Solicitations Division and also check with your local Better Business Bureau before donating.

Be wary of appeals that are long on emotion but short on what the charity will do to address the needs of recipients.

Ask how much of your gift or contribution would be used for the purpose mentioned in the appeal, and how much would go towards administrative and fund-raising costs.

Find out what the charity intends to do with any excess contributions remaining after the needs of the recipients are addressed.

While there may be a sense of urgency to the appeal, remember there will be opportunities to give to other charities in the future.

Beware of charlatans who telephone and pose as members of a reputable charity. Their appeal may sound sincere and their organization may sound worthy. However, it's best to ask that more information be mailed to you so you can research the charity before you decide. If the caller refuses, don't donate, simply hang up. And, most importantly, never give out your credit card or bank account number to someone who calls you.

If you would like to file a complaint, please feel free to call Consumer Affairs toll-free at 1-800-342-8385 or visit www.state.tn/consumer.

Mower

along Old Greenback Road and the last time he'd seen it was about a week earlier.

Locklear reported a female at the residence had two persons living with her and no one could get in contact them now.

The mower was valued at $4092.

Police Beat

Melissa Ann Barnett, 34, of Breazeale Road, Lenoir City, was charged with an attachment out of juvenile court.

Corporal Teresa Smith, LCSD made the arrest.

Hampton

hol and had several alcoholic beverages in his vehicle, including an open one at hand.

Henry Clyde Hampton, 48, of Eblen Lane, Kingston, was charged with tenth offense DUI, ninth offense driving on revoked license and violation of implied consent just before 10:00 p.m.

According to records, Deputy Chris Jenkins, LCSD, responded to the area of Highway 70 to investigate a report of a possible stolen vehicle out of Roane County when he spotted a gray Chevy Impala matching the description and stopped it.

Upon making contact with the driver and identifying him as Hampton, the officer asked him to exit the vehicle and noticed there were several alcoholic beverages on the passenger side floor and one open beverage in the cup holder of the console.

The deputy reported he patted down Hampton for officer safety and while speaking with him observed a strong smell of alcohol coming from Hampton's person.

Hampton was unsteady on his feet, had red, watery eyes, and stated he had been drinking and that he'd had several alcoholic beverages earlier in the evening. He performed poorly on field sobriety tasks.

A check through NCIC/TCIC showed Hampton's driving privileges are revoked for driving under the influence with nine prior DUI convictions and eight prior driving on revoked license convictions. He was placed under arrest and when read the implied consent form refused to comply.

Dog

a dog belonging to a man she identified as Dan Duggan came into her yard and attacked it, causing severe injuries.

Cobb reportedly further advised the attack was not the first; Duggan's dog had attacked her cat before and injured it.

The officer concluded his report by noting Duggan has been warned several times by Animal Control to put up the dog, but he has not done so.

February 6, she noticed some charges on her account that she, nor her husband, had made. The were all made in California and included a charge for $41.33 at Union 76 in Long Beach, one for $286.07 at Albertson's Grocery in San Clemente, a third for $754.23 at Target in Oceanside, and a fourth was made again at the Oceanside Target for $555.10.

It was not indicated

what type of account had been pilfered, but the theft has so far cost the victim $1637.36.

Police Beat

Mario Guzman, 23, of E. 1st. Avenue, Lenoir City, was charged with driving without a license, driving without insurance and driving left of center line.

According to the report, Officer Jamie Whitt, LCPD observed the vehicle Guzman was driving in the middle of the roadway and stopped it. A check of his license showed he had none. Guzman had no insurance either.

A passenger, Alejandro Cornejo, 18, of E. 1st Avenue, Lenoir City was charged with underage consumption. According to the report, Cornejo smelled of an alcoholic beverage and is only 18. Officer Jamie Whitt, LCPD made the arrests.
