Strikers accused of vandalism

A local man called police Friday when he found someone had dumped roofing nails in his driveway in what he believed was an act of vandalism committed by striking Maremont workers.

According to records, Jack Breeden of Loudon told Investigator Chris White, LCSD, he returned home from Madisonville and found a bucket full of roofing nails scattered all over his driveway that had not been there when left earlier in the morning.

Breeden advised he specific destiny and a divine place that only you can fill. The path may not be clear, but keep putting one foot in front of the other.

Aries

(Mar 21-Apr 20)

It's high time to put your money where your mouth is. You keep piling on more and more tasks in order to help people out, but it actually might be more helpful to make them take responsibility for their duties.

Taurus

(Apr 21-May 20)

Sometimes, you can't barrel your way through a situation -- not even a sign with as much willpower as yours. Instead, you have to stay in the grey area and deal with your feelings as they happen.

Gemini

(May 21-June 21)

So things look a certain way, but does that necessarily reflect the entire truth of the situation? You may have to come to grips with the fact that the truth, the whole truth and nothing but may not be knowable now.

Cancer

(Jun 22-Jul 22)

The right setting makes you shine. Sometimes that means creating a home base that gives you a strong sense of security. Sometimes that means carrying around the home base within your so you have it all the time.

Leo

(Jul 23-Aug 23)

The urge to make something happen just to end a stalemate is irresistible, but the so-called solution could end up being more trouble than the original situation. Practice patience until it becomes second nature.

Virgo

(Aug 24-Sep 23)

Your family has given you so much (although sometimes the gifts have come in some really weird wrapping paper). Now it's time to give back to them in some way. Start by forgiving them for the past.

Libra

(Sept 24-Oct 23)

You're a genius when it comes to social arrangements. Right now, however, you're even more of a genius when it comes to domestic arrangements. You know just the right thing to do to make everyone feel more at home.

Scorpio

(Oct 24-Nov 22)

You have an uncanny perceptiveness about other people and their motives, but sometimes you need help when processing your own. Get out and about. Walking, swimming and cycling help you get in touch with your center.

Sagittarius

(Nov 23-Dec 21)

Why not sit back and take it easy? Sure, being in the center of a whirlwind of activity can make you feel like you're doing something, but sometimes doing nothing and appreciating it is even more necessary.

Capricorn

(Dec 22-Jan 20)

Figure out what you want, because there's a good chance that you'll get it. It's important to know the difference between material gain and truly worthy goals.

Sometimes they're the same, but sometimes they're not.

Aquarius

(Jan 21-Feb 19)

Bringing emotional backup is always a good idea, especially if you're feeling a touch more sensitive than usual. Heck, you can also be your own best cheering squad. Tell yourself what a good job you're doing.

was a machine gun. A three year old child also was in the vehicle with two men who were taken into custody.

Darnell Lamont Boone, 27, of Atlanta, Georgia, and Terence Cite Hall, 20, of Youngstown, Ohio, were charged with possession of a prohibited weapon and were arrested just after 6:30 p.m. by Cpl. Paul Curtis, LCSD.

According to records, the officer and his K-9 partner, Deacon, responded to a traffic stop along I-75 to assist Deputy Craig Brewer, LCSD, and while Brewer, who had advised he thought he'd smelled marijuana, was conducting his business Deacon was deployed around the vehicle, a 1996 Ford Explorer.

The K-9 altered to the passenger side of the vehicle and search produced a Volunteer Enterprises Inc., .45 caliber rifle from the cargo area. The rifle appeared to be modified and a magazine that fit the rifle was found in the luggage in the vehicle.

ATF agent Barney Waggoner came to the scene of the traffic stop and filed tested the rifle, then advised the officers the weapon had field tested positive for a machine gun.

Records indicate Agent Waggoner had testified in Federal Court in the past was a weapons expert.

The two men and three year old girl were the only occupants of the vehicle and neither man claimed ownership of the machine gun. Both were charged with possession of the prohibited weapon and Boone was further issued a warning citation for violation of registration.

Barn

Sinking Creek Road, said he found his barn door open on January 24 and discovered several items missing from it.

The missing items included a Stihl chainsaw, a Stihl brush cutter, a Porter Cable air compressor and a transfer pump, all valued at $1155.

of Pine Ridge Drive, Lenoir City, was charged with DUI 3rd, implied consent, and driving on revoked.

According to the report, Taylor was involved in an altercation with a neighbor and was stopped by LCPD. Upon interview Taylor had an extreme odor of an alcoholic beverage on his person and admitted to drinking a pitcher of mixed drinks and taking multiple prescription meds before driving.

Once at the jail Taylor admitted to having a buzz prior to driving. Taylor was also found to have 2 prior DUI convictions.

Taylor performed poorly on sobriety tests and refused a BAC test.

Trooper Russell Smith, THP made the arrest.

Chickens

Andreas Miguel Matias, 19, Johnson Street, Knoxville, was charged with violation of registration, driving while suspended, and cruelty to animals.

Tomias Pedro Jimenez, 26, and Carmen Pedro, 32, both of the Johnson Street address, and Ramiro Mateo Baltazar, 28, of Louisiana Avenue, Knoxville, were all charged with cruelty to animals.

According to records, the arrests came after Deputy Daniel Kelly, LCSD, stopped Matias's green Chevy Cavalier along I-75 at the Exit 76 ramp when he noticed the tag was partially obscured. Upon checking his license status, it was learned Matias's driving privileges are suspended for failure to satisfy citations in Loudon County and he was placed under arrest.

The officer reported eleven chickens were found tied up in onion bags in the truck of the car and two of them had died from the inhumane treatment. All four men admitted to having put the chickens in the truck.

Police Beat

Charles Emory Gaston, 44, of Carding Machine Road, Loudon, was charged with an attachment for failure to comply in child support court.

Deputy Mike Williams, LCSD made the arrest.

Ronald D. Tutterow, 49, of Mason Lane, Loudon, was charged with driving on revoked.

According to the report, Sgt. Gillis Morgan, LCPD stopped Tutterow for speeding 45 m.p.h. in a 30 m.p.h. zone.

A check showed his license to be revoked. Sgt. Gillis Morgan, LCPD made the arrest.

Lisa Renee Duff, 36, of Hines Valley Road, Loudon, was charged with a mittimus to jail after hearing (child support).

Deputy Dewayne Drinnen, LCSD made the arrest.

Charlie Eugene Wallace, 29, of Steekee St.,

Loudon, was charged with a mittimus to jail after hearing (child support).

Deputy Dewayne Drinnen, LCSD made the arrest.

burglary and failure to appear (violation of probation).

William Bernice "Billy" Watson III, also of Beal's Chapel Road, was charged with criminal attempt burglary.

According to records, Sgt. Jimmey Wiggins, LCSD, responded to a possible break-in call at East Tennessee Scale Works, Martel Road, where the caller advised he had pulled into the lot and found a brown van parked in front of the Coke machine. One subject was ducked down in the passenger seat and the driver got out and advised his vehicle had overheated and they would be on their way.

The officer reported he spotted a van matching the description turning onto Highway 11 from Leeper Parkway and he followed it back onto Martel Road where he stopped it.

Watson was identified as the driver and when both he and Matlock were asked where they had been and where they were going their stories did not match.

The lawman further reported he found

Watson to be uncensured and Watson made a statement of his own accord attesting that he and Matlock had gone to the business with the intent to break into the Coke machine there. Matlock also said they intended to break into the machine.

Matlock received the FTA charged when police learned he had an outstanding warrant against him for failing to appear on a violation of probation charge.

Police Beat

Michael Steven Parker, 51, of Windthorst St., Wichita, TX, was charged with being a fugitive from justice out of Texas for poss. of marijuana and authorities there said they would extradite.
